

North East Trust for Aphasia

May to July 2022

NETA News

This block NETA has enjoyed

Conversation Group

Zoom Chat

Reading Club

Summer

NETA's café will be open throughout summer: 12 - 2pm
You can ask on NETA Whats App to see who is going.

There will be no groups running.

Groups will begin again on 15th September 2022.
You will receive an email with your choices to sign up.

To join NETA Whats App contact: Kathy.cann@ncl.ac.uk

NETA Annual General Meeting

Everyone is welcome to NETA's AGM.

21st July 12– 1pm

at the Aphasia Centre Newcastle University

NETA's Poetry Competition

Thank you to everyone who submitted a poem. There were some wonderful entries.

Result will be out soon!

Aphasia Aware June goes global!

This year for Aphasia Awareness Month, NETA Art Club decided to leave Painted pebbles around our local community.

With help from Abi Roper and Carly Davey we set up a social media platform #RockingAphasia. Hundreds of rocks were created and left to be found.

Numerous individuals and 26 other organisations joined us from 22 countries!

In the 4 weeks of June #RockingAphasia reached 72k people on Twitter and many more on Facebook, Instagram and TikTok.

26
organisations and numerous individuals joined in

22 countries

NETA Film

NETA members have written, filmed and directed a short video all about NETA.

It is on YouTube.
https://youtu.be/T_e_0-GpPQk

It is to help others understand more about what it is like to come to NETA.

Magenta Singers - Sage

Magenta Singers sing old familiar songs, all members have aphasia. For anyone out there who ever enjoyed singing, come and try it. Feel good about your voice.

Led by NETA Assistant Kerry Green

Aphasia research opportunity

MAIA is a new research project based at City University. It aims to explore how people living with aphasia access museums, art galleries.

Contact aphasia@ncl.ac.uk if you would like more information.

You can find NETA online: www.neta.org

A private group for NETA members

@neta.ncl

@NETA_Aphasia

North East Trust for Aphasia

