Code of Conduct

Eurosko Gruppen AS

Introduction

At Eurosko Gruppen AS we promote decent working and environmental standards in our supply chains. We cooperate closely with our suppliers and business partners in pursuit of this aim. Accordingly, we have prepared this code of conduct to illustrate what we expect of our suppliers and business partners. The code of conduct covers human rights, workers' rights, the environment and corruption.

Eurosko Gruppen AS is a member of the Ethical Trading Initiative Norway (IEH), a membership organisation for private and public enterprises and organisations. IEH is a resource centre and an advocate for ethical trade practices. Eurosko Gruppen AS reports annually to IEH. This report is made publicly available.

Eurosko Gruppen AS aims to continuously improve policy and practice that supports suppliers in complying with this code of conduct.

Principles

Eurosko Gruppen AS suppliers are to supply goods and services that are produced in compliance with the code of conduct. Moreover, the suppliers are to communicate the code of conduct to their sub-suppliers, and to monitor implementation.

A supplier must be able to document compliance with the code of conduct at Eurosko Gruppen AS request. Such documentation may take the form of self-declaration, follow-up meetings, and/or inspections of the working conditions at production sites. The supplier will be obliged to name and provide contact information for any sub-supplier that Eurosko Gruppen AS wishes to inspect.

In the event of a breach of the code of conduct, Eurosko Gruppen AS and the supplier will jointly prepare a plan for remedying the breach. Remediation must take place within a reasonable period of time. The contract will only be terminated if the supplier remains unwilling to remedy the breach following repeated enquiries.

Eurosko Gruppen AS Ethical Trade Principles are founded on key UN and International Labour Organization conventions and documents. National laws shall be respected, and where the provisions of law and Eurosko Gruppen AS ethical trade principles address the same subject, the most stringent shall apply.

1

Forced and compulsory labour

(ILO Conventions No. 29 and 105)

1.1 There shall be no forced, bonded or involuntary prison labour.

1.2 Workers shall not be required to lodge deposits or identity papers with their employer

1.3 Terms of contract shall be fully communicated to and understood by workers and workers are free to leave the employer after reasonable notice.

1.4 Employee loan or credit schemes managed directly or indirectly by the employer shall be managed in a clear, transparent and fair manner.

1.5 By use of recruitment agency, all commissions and other fees in connection with the employment should be covered by the employer.

2

Freedom of Association and the Right to Collective Bargaining

(ILO Conventions No. 87, 98, 135 and 154)

2.1 Workers, without distinction, shall have the right to join or form trade unions of their own choosing and to bargain collectively.

The employer shall not interfere with, obstruct, the formation of unions or collective bargaining.

2.2 Workers representatives shall not be discriminated and shall have access to carry out their representative functions in the workplace.

2.3 Where the right to freedom of association and/or collective bargaining is restricted under law, the employer shall facilitate, and not hinder, the development of alternative forms of independent and free workers representation and negotiations.

3

Child Labour

(UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, ILO Conventions No. 138, 182 and 79, and ILO Recommendation No. 146)

3.1 The minimum age for workers shall not be less than 15 and comply with

- i) the national minimum age for employment, or;
- ii) the age of completion of compulsory education, whichever of these is higher. If local minimum is set at 14 years in accordance with developing country exceptions under ILO Convention 138, this lower age may apply.

3.2 There shall be no recruitment of child labour defined as any work performed by a child younger than the age(s) specified above.

3.3 No person under the age of 18 shall be engaged in labour that is hazardous to their health, safety or morals, including night work.

3.4 Policies and procedures for remediation of child labour prohibited by ILO conventions no. 138 and 182, shall be established, documented, and communicated to personnel and other interested parties. Adequate support shall be provided to enable such children to attend and complete compulsory education.

4

Discrimination

(ILO Conventions Nos. 100 and 111 and the UN Convention on Discrimination Against Women)

4.1 There shall be no discrimination at the workplace in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination or retirement based on ethnic background, religion, caste, age, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, union membership or political affiliation.

4.2 Measures shall be established to protect workers from sexually intrusive, threatening, insulting or exploitative behaviour, and from discrimination or termination of employment on unjustifiable grounds, e.g. marriage, pregnancy, parenthood or HIV status.

4.3 All workers with the same experience and qualifications should receive equal pay for equal work.

6.8 Fire extinguishers and/or sprinkler systems shall be functional and maintained. Fire extinguishers shall be visible and easily accessed to all workers.

6.9 Machines and equipment shall have functional and visible safety devices.

6.10 Proper measures shall be taken to determine whether protective gear is needed. Protective gear shall be available to workers at no personal cost. It is the responsibility of management that is in consistent use.

6.11 Hazardous material and waste shall be stored and handled in a safe and proper manner, and collected by qualified and certified waste collecting companies.

7

Wages and benefits

(ILO Convention No. 131)

7.1 Wages and benefits paid for a standard working week shall as minimum meet national legal standards, industry benchmark standards or the wage negotiated in a collective agreement, whichever is higher. Wages should always be enough to meet basic needs, including some discretionary income.

7.2 All workers shall be provided with a written and comprehensible contract outlining their wage conditions and method of payments before entering employment. The wages should be paid directly to the worker, regularly and on time.

7.3 Deductions from wages as a disciplinary measure shall not be permitted.

7.4 Pay slips or other information regarding wages should be presented in a understandable manner to the worker. The pay slip shall also indicate the number of working days, wages/ piece rate per day, overtime hours and overtime pay, bonuses etc.

7.5 The piece rate shall be calculated so that those producing the least amount always receive minimum wage within normal working hours.

7.6 Holiday pay, sickness allowance, maternity leave compensation, as well as other compensated absences established by law shall be covered by the manufacture pursuant to the particular country's law and regulations.

7.7 Social benefits shall at least conform to national law or the prevailing industry standard, whichever is higher.

8

Working Hours

(ILO Convention No. 1 and 14)

8.1 Working hours shall comply with national laws and benchmark industry standards, and not more than prevailing international standards. Weekly working hours should not on a regular basis be more than 48 hours.

8.2 Workers shall be provided with at least one day off for every 7 day period.

Corruption

13.1 Corruption in any form is not accepted, including bribery, extortion, kickbacks and improper private or professional benefits to customers, agents, contractors, suppliers or employees of any such party or government officials.

14

Management Systems of Suppliers

The management system is key to the implementation of the code of conduct. Eurosko Gruppen AS emphasises the importance of suppliers having systems that support such implementation.

Eurosko Gruppen AS expectations in this regard are summed up in the following measures:

- The supplier should make a centrally placed employee responsible for the implementation of the code of conduct in the supplier's business.
- The supplier must make the code of conduct known in all relevant parts of its organisation.
- The supplier must obtain Eurosko Gruppen AS consent prior to outsourcing production or parts of production to a sub-supplier/contractor, if this has not been agreed in advance.
- The supplier must be able to give an account of where goods ordered by Eurosko Gruppen AS are produced.
