Don't forget to organise a licensed plumber to connect your equipment to the service pit.
Don't know anyone? We can recommend F. Wood and Son (admin@fwoodplumbing.com.au).

Please note

F. Wood and Son are the only company licensed to connect to MCEC's gas supply.

Terms and conditions

- It is your responsibility to arrange a licensed plumber to connect your equipment to the service pit.
- Pit access fees fund the cost of regular site service inspections to ensure industry best practice and safety standards have been applied.
- MCEC takes no responsibility for pinched hoses restricting flow when it is beyond the venue's reasonable control.
- Due to the location of the pits, access may not be available to water, drainage and compressed air at all stands.
