

USU's PRESIDENT REPORT:

AUTHOR: Cole Scott-Curwood

TITLE: July 2022

I'm energised and grateful to be serving as USU President. My role is to support the Board in collectively deciding on USU strategy and planning. We do this by looking at things holistically, representing our 35,000 members, and guiding the dedicated USU staff.

Having a background in STEM clubs, I came to the Board passionate about the Clubs & Societies Program. So far, we've increased club funding by creating a discretionary grant pool and have been providing free training to club executives. The comprehensive training was made possible through the first collaboration between the USU, SUPRA, SRC, SUSF, and the University. The USU is committed to supporting our 240 clubs and societies, and their executives, so they can provide for their members.

Our Union has so much breadth and depth because we aim to make campus life better by providing existing and new events, initiatives, and services. This semester, we'll be reviving Battle of the Bands, bringing a reimagined PULP magazine to print, and inaugurating the Someday Soon music festival. We'll continue to be ambitious while accounting for challenges like COVID-19, rising inflation, and extreme wet weather.

Building upon the foundations laid by the outgoing Board, I'm excited for the year ahead.
