	f) Failing to comply with any conditions set by the USU CEO, Board or Head of Department.
2. Informal Resolution
2.1	Wherever possible, USU employees should encourage the relevant individuals and the Complainant to independently resolve the issue via open communication and informal measures and at a Student Group level. Where appropriate, the Complainant may approach the person in question and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) tell them what the issue is b) ask them to stop or behave differently; and c) where appropriate, keep a written record of this action 	Programs
3. Making a Complaint
3.1	Where the issue cannot be resolved, or where informal resolution is deemed inappropriate, a Complaint can be made by contacting the relevant department of the USU. The complaint should be referred to an appropriate supervisor or manager of that department in the first instance.	Programs
3.2	The Complainant may be asked what they deem a reasonable solution and what they are seeking to achieve in resolving the Complaint.	Programs
3.3	The USU may elect, in its absolute discretion, not to intervene where the A nComplaint involves disagreements over the general running of a Student Group or personality clashes. If a USU employee is unsure whether the USU should intervene, the matter will be referred to the USU People & Culture Head of Department.	Programs
3.4	Complaints are not required to be in writing unless an investigation is required.	Programs
3.5	Complainants are required to engage with the Complaints process, and to provide sufficient details of their Complaint and the respondent (if relevant) in order for the USU to conduct an assessment and investigation or reach a resolution.	Programs
4. Preliminary Complaint Assessment

4.1	Written Complaints that are received will be referred to the Head of Department and the following records will be maintained by the USU: a) the details of the Complainant b) a summary of the Complaint c) the identity of any persons named in the Complaint; and d) the solution or outcome sought by the Complainant	Programs/HOD
4.2	Before an assessment may take place, the Complainant will be informed that their identity will be made available to any person/s against whom they have lodged a Complaint.	HOD
4.3	Where appropriate, support services should be referred to the Complainant and any respondent to a Complaint as required.	HOD
4.4	Assessment of the Complaint may involve discussions with relevant parties or respondents, collating documents, or information relevant to the matter.	HOD
4.5	Where discussions are held regarding a Complaint, all relevant parties are welcome to bring a support person. The role of a support person is to provide the employee with emotional support during the meeting, the support person cannot represent the employee and is not able to advocate on their behalf.	HOD
4.6	The USU may deem that no further action will be taken in instances where: a) Insufficient information or evidence of the Complaint is provided; b) The Complaint is frivolous, malicious, or vexatious; or c) The Complaint is deemed resolved. Where the Complaint is found to be frivolous, malicious, or vexatious, a further investigation will take place and the Complainant may be subject to disciplinary action.	HOD
4.7	Should the Complaint fall outside the remit of the USU, the Complainant may be directed to the relevant department of the University of Sydney or other regulatory bodies or authorities as required by the nature of the complaint.	HOD
4.8	The USU may require a written Complaint to be provided within a specified timeframe. If assistance or additional time is needed, support can be provided on request. If the Complainant fails to provide a written complaint within the specified timeframe, the matter may be closed.	HOD
4.9	At the conclusion of the preliminary assessment, the USU will notify the Complainant regarding the outcome and outline any rights to seek an appeal.	HOD

4.10	Any action taken by the USU in response to a Complaint will depend on the nature and gravity of the conduct reported in the Complaint, as well as in part the extent to which the Complainant wishes to make the Complaint.
5. Assisted Resolution
5.1	Where the outcome of a preliminary assessment of the Complaint deems assisted resolution is appropriate, resolution may include one or more of the following: a) clarifying a misunderstanding b) an apology c) discussion or mediation d) an agreed plan of action to avoid further incidents, or e) training or educational sessions.	HOD
6. Investigation
6.1	The USU may initiate an investigation: (a) for serious Complaints (as determined by the USU); (b) where the USU considers it has enough information to independently investigate the circumstances making up a Complaint even if the Complainant does not wish to participate; or (c) where assisted resolution is unsuccessful or not appropriate.	All
6.2	Respondents to any Complaint will be given a right of response in relation to the Complaint, within a reasonable timeframe to respond to any Complaint.	All
6.3	Investigators must make findings of fact and may make recommendations for Complaint resolutions in accordance with USU policies and procedures. Recommendations may include referrals to other governing bodies of the USU or University, or the USU CEO.	All
6.4	In the event the USU decides not to refer a Complaint to the University but decides to deal with the Complaint itself, then the USU will elect to either investigate the Complaint internally or appoint an external investigator to investigate the Complaint (the choice of which is at the absolute discretion of the USU). A Complainant is not entitled to a copy of any report or findings made in response to a Complaint made to the USU and either investigated by the USU internally or by an external investigator appointed by the USU to investigate the Complaint.	All
