4 Membership

4.1 Members of the company

- (a) The members of the company are those:
 - (i) noted as such on the application for the incorporation of the company; and
 - (ii) applicants admitted as members of the company in accordance with rule 4.2, and have not since ceased to be a member.
- (b) With effect from the Transfer Date, every individual who is a properly registered member of USU immediately prior to the Transfer Date will, upon completion of any necessary administrative steps including provision of a signed consent, be admitted as a member of the company in the equivalent class of membership, notwithstanding any eligibility criteria or requirements that would otherwise apply to new applicants for that class of membership. For the avoidance of doubt, such individuals are not required to satisfy the eligibility criteria rule 4.2(a) for their class of membership for the purposes of this initial admission.
- (c) If an applicant is admitted as a member of the company, the secretary must ensure:
 - (i) the applicant is given notice of admission as a member of the company; and

- (ii) the name and details of the applicant are entered in the members' register in accordance with rule 4.4(a).
- (d) The secretary must ensure each applicant not admitted as a member of the company is informed of this decision. The directors may, but are not required to, provide reasons for the decision not to admit an applicant into membership.

- (c) The directors must postpone the assessment of all membership applications received during the period between the calling of a general meeting and the holding of the general meeting to which the notice relates, or any adjournments of that meeting.

4.3 Member's rights

Each member has the rights associated with the class of membership to which that member belongs as set out in the column titled 'Membership rights' in the table at Schedule 2.

4.4 Membership not transferable

- (a) Membership of the company and the associated rights cannot be transferred or sold in any manner whatsoever.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this constitution prevents an existing member from applying to transfer to a different class of membership and such application will be determined in accordance with rule 4.2.

4.5 Register of members

- (a) A register of members must be kept in accordance with the law.
- (b) Without limiting the requirement under rule 4.5(a), the following must be entered in the register in respect of each member:

- (i) the name and address of the member;
- (ii) the date of admission to and cessation of membership;
- (iii) the class of membership to which the member belongs;
- (iv) any other information required by the directors or the law from time to time.

4.6 Membership fees

- (a) Unless a different amount applies as determined under rule 4.6(d), the joining fee for membership of the company is $0. The joining fee, if any, is payable at the same time as the application for membership is made. The joining fee will be reimbursed to the applicant if the application for membership is declined.
- (b) Unless a different amount applies as determined under rule 4.6(d), the annual membership fee for membership of the company is $0. The first year's membership fee, if any, is payable at the same time as the application for membership is made and is required in addition to any joining fee. The first year's membership fee will be reimbursed to the applicant if the application for membership is declined.
- (c) Other than the initial membership fee which may be payable under rule 4.6(b), annual membership fees (if any) are to be paid at such times and in such manner as the directors determine from time to time.
- (d) The directors may at their complete discretion:
 - (i) determine the joining fee and/or the annual membership fee be a different amount;
 - (ii) determine the joining fee and/or membership fee payable by one or more members or one or more classes of member be payable at a different time or times; and
 - (iii) determine, or waive all or some of, the fees payable by one or more members or one or more classes of member at any time.
- (e) A member who has not paid the required membership fee in accordance with this rule 4.6 may not exercise any of the rights associated with that member's membership, including the right to exercise any vote the member may have at a meeting of members, unless and until the required membership fee is paid.
- (f) The joining fee and annual membership fee which may be required under this rule 4.6 are exclusive of any GST which may be payable.

4.7 Membership renewal

The directors may, at their discretion, send a notice to one or more members requiring that member to confirm or to renew membership of the company and/or to confirm or update that member's details (Membership Renewal Notice).

5 Ceasing to be a member

5.1 General overview

- (a) There are a number of reasons why a member's membership will end. For instance if:
 - (i) a member resigns from membership (see rule 5.2);
 - (ii) a member's membership automatically ends (see rule 5.3); or
 - (iii) a member is expelled from membership (see rule 0).
- (b) The directors may adopt such other policies and procedures relating to the disciplining, suspension and expulsion of members as they so determine from time to time provided they are consistent with the requirements set out in this rule 5.
- (c) Where a member ceases to be a member in accordance with the law or this constitution, that member's name must be removed from the register of members.
- (d) Upon the removal of a member's name from the register of members:
 - (i) the member will forfeit all rights and privileges attached to membership and all rights which that member may have against the company arising out of the membership; and
 - (ii) the company will have no liability to such member in respect of that member's removal from the register of members.
- (e) Any member who ceases to be a member remains liable for:
 - (i) any moneys which may be owing by that member to the company; and
 - (ii) in the case of the company being wound up within one year of the date of cessation of membership, the relevant contribution under rule 2(c).

5.2 Resignation from membership

A member may resign from membership of the company at any time by providing written notice to the company addressed to the President or the secretary. Unless the notice provides otherwise, the resignation takes effect from the date the notice is received.

5.3 Automatic ending of membership

A member's membership will automatically end if the member:

- (a) dies;
- (b) fails to pay any required membership fee in accordance with rule 4.6 within two months after the date on which that membership fee becomes due or such later time as the directors may determine;
- (c) fails to return a Membership Renewal Notice in accordance with rule 4.7 within two months after the return due date specified in that notice or such later time as determined by the directors; or

- (d) no longer complies with the membership requirements associated with the member's class of membership as described in Schedule 2 (including as set out in the column entitled 'Eligibility criteria') as determined by the directors.

5.3A Membership continuity for directors

Any Graduate or Graduand who is a member of the company and is a director of the Board, but who has not yet been granted Life Membership, shall remain an Ordinary Member until the expiration of their term on Board, notwithstanding any lapse in eligibility arising by virtue of their having graduated from the University. For the purposes of this subsection the relevant Fee must be paid within 14 days of the Board member receiving notification in writing that their membership shall expire if the Fee is not paid and that membership will not otherwise cease if no such notification is presented.

5.4 Disciplining, suspension, and expulsion of members

- (a) This rule 0 describes what needs to happen when considering whether to discipline a member. In summary, the process involves:
 - (i) putting the member in question on notice and giving the opportunity to provide information; and
 - (ii) passing a directors' resolution to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline that member.
- (b) Provided the steps set out in this rule 0 are followed, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline a member if that member:
 - (i) has refused or failed to comply with the provisions of this constitution, any bylaws made pursuant to rule 16(c) or any Charter; or
 - (ii) has acted in a way which, in the opinion of the directors, is, or could be, materially prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the company,

(Member Disciplinary Resolution).
- (c) The directors must give the member in question at least 14 days' prior notice of the date the directors will consider the Member Disciplinary Resolution. This notice must be in writing and inform the member:
 - (i) the directors are to consider warning, suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplining the member (as the case may be);
 - (ii) of the reasons why the directors are considering taking the determined action;
 - (iii) of the right for the member to give the directors, either orally or in writing, any explanation or defence relevant to the proposed disciplinary action;
 - (iv) of the date, place and time of the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered; and
 - (v) of the right for the member to attend the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered but not to be present during any director deliberations or the putting of or voting on the resolution unless the directors resolve otherwise.

- (d) Where a member subject to a Member Disciplinary Resolution is also a director that director is not entitled to vote on the relevant Member Disciplinary Resolution.
- (e) Where a Member Disciplinary Resolution relates to the expulsion of a member or other serious disciplinary action contemplated under rule 5.4(h), such resolution must be passed as a special resolution of at least 75% of directors entitled to do so. Any other Member Disciplinary Resolution, including in relation to the warning or suspension of a member (other than as set out in rule 5.4(h)), may be passed as an ordinary resolution of directors entitled to do so.
- (f) Directors must notify the relevant member in writing about the directors' decision within 14 days after the date a Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed, but failure to do so does not invalidate the decision.
- (g) If the decision is to warn, suspend or otherwise discipline a member (other than expulsion or serious disciplinary action contemplated in rule 5.4(h)), the directors' decision is final and takes effect as at the date the Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed.
- (h) If the decision is to expel a member, or to suspend or otherwise discipline a member with the effect of materially limiting or preventing that member's exercise of their membership rights or privileges (in whole or part) for a period of more than 3 months, then the written notice must state the:
 - (i) directors have resolved to expel, suspend or otherwise discipline the member (as the case may be); and
 - (ii) process to be followed if the member wishes to appeal the decision as described at rule 5.5,

(Serious Disciplinary Notice).

5.5 Appeal of member expulsion or serious disciplinary action

- (a) A member to be expelled or subject to serious disciplinary action under rule 5.4(h) in accordance with a Member Disciplinary Resolution may appeal against that resolution. Such an appeal must be made to the Senate (with a copy to the directors) in writing addressed to the University's Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) and must be received within 10 days after the date the Serious Disciplinary Notice described at rule 5.4(g) is received by the member (Appeal Period).
- (b) If an appeal notice is received by the Senate and the directors within the Appeal Period, the Senate must ensure that (within two months after receipt of the notice) a resolution confirming the expulsion or serious disciplinary action is considered by the Senate. The member the subject of a Member Disciplinary Resolution must be given the opportunity to make representations at the meeting in relation to the decision.
- (c) If the Member Disciplinary Resolution is confirmed by the Senate, the member's expulsion, suspension or other disciplinary action takes effect from the date of that determination. If the Senate does not confirm the Member Disciplinary Resolution, then the member's membership continues in full effect.
- (d) If an appeal notice is not received by the Senate (with a copy to the directors) within the Appeal Period, then the:

- (i) Senate is not required to consider the expulsion or serious disciplinary action; and
 - (ii) member's expulsion, suspension or other disciplinary action takes effect from the date the Appeal Period concludes.
- (e) A member that has been expelled from membership of the company is not permitted to be re-admitted into membership of the company at any time.

6 General meetings

6.1 Introduction

- (a) For as long as the company is registered as a charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission or its successor, and for as long as the law permits or requires, the directors:
- (i) must ensure the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Governance Standards, in particular Governance Standard 2 relating to accountability to members, are complied with; and
 - (ii) must ensure the company holds meetings of members (including annual general meetings) in accordance with this constitution and the Corporations Act despite the fact the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with members' meetings may not be directly applicable to the company.
- (b) If there is any inconsistency between the Corporations Act and this constitution with respect to the calling and holding of members' meetings then, to the extent permitted by law, the provisions of this constitution will prevail.

6.2 Calling of general meetings

A general meeting of members may be initiated by:

- (a) a resolution of the directors;
- (b) the Voting Members in accordance with the Corporations Act; or
- (c) the court in accordance with the Corporations Act.

6.3 Notice of general meetings

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with consent to short notice, if a general meeting of members (including any annual general meeting) is called under rule 6.2, at least 21 days' notice of that meeting must be given to each person who is at the date of the notice:
- (i) a member of the company eligible to receive notices of meetings;
 - (ii) a director of the company;
 - (iii) the auditor of the company; or
 - (iv) the CEO.
- (b) A notice of a general meeting must specify:

- (i) the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - (ii) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, or using technology only, the technology to be used to facilitate the meeting;
 - (iii) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting, including the text of any resolutions to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - (iv) any other matters required under the law.
- (c) Notwithstanding rule 6.3(b), where the company holds an annual general meeting, the ordinary business of that meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
- (i) the consideration of the annual financial report, the directors' report and the auditor's report; and
 - (ii) the appointment of the auditor and the fixing of the auditor's remuneration.
- (d) A person who is entitled to receive notice of a general meeting or who is requested by the President to attend a general meeting is entitled to be present whether or not the person is a member.
- (e) Subject to the Corporations Act and this constitution, the directors may change the venue for, change the technology to be used for, postpone or cancel a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting, but a meeting called in accordance with a members' requisition under the Corporations Act may not be postponed or cancelled without the prior written consent of the persons who requisitioned the meeting.
- (f) The directors may give notice of change, cancellation or postponement as they determine, but any non-receipt of, or failure to give, notice of change, cancellation or postponement does not invalidate the change, cancellation or postponement of any resolution passed at a postponed or relocated meeting.

6.4 Annual general meetings

- (a) Subject to rule 6.4(b), the company must hold annual general meetings in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) For as long as the company is registered as a charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission or its successor, and for as long as the law permits, the company may determine the timing for the holding of any annual general meeting, provided there is at least one such meeting held in each calendar year.
- (c) Notwithstanding rule 6.3(b), where the company holds an annual general meeting, the ordinary business of that meeting may include the consideration of the annual financial report, the directors' report and the auditor's report, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting.

6.5 Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting, except the election of a chair (if required) and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business and the quorum remains present throughout the meeting.

- (b) The quorum for a general meeting of members is 50 members present in person and entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting:
 - (i) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, a member or members, the meeting must be dissolved; or
 - (ii) where the meeting was convened by, or at the request of, the directors or the court:
 - (A) the meeting stands adjourned to the day, and at the time and place, as the directors determine or, if no determination is made by the directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place;
 - (B) at the adjourned meeting the quorum is 40 members present in person and entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting; and
 - (C) if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, proxies will not be counted in determining whether a quorum is present pursuant to rule 6.5(b) or 6.5(c)(ii)(B).

6.7 Conduct of and participation in general meetings

- (a) The chair of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in the opinion of the chair necessary or desirable for:
- (i) proper and orderly debate or discussion; and
 - (ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes.
- (b) The chair of a general meeting at which a quorum is present must if so directed by the members present with a majority of votes, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place. However, no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (c) Notice of an adjournment and the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting must be given to all persons who were entitled to receive notice of the meeting the subject of the adjournment.
- (d) In addition to the rights provided for in rule 6.3(a)(iii) and 6.3(c), the auditor of the company (if any) will be entitled to be heard at any general meeting which the auditor attends.
- (e) A meeting of members may be held in two or more places linked together by any technology, or using virtual meeting technology only, provided it:
- (i) gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings;
 - (ii) enables the chair to determine whether the person participating in the meeting is in fact a member or attorney of a member;
 - (iii) enables the chair of the meeting to be aware of proceedings in each place; and
 - (iv) enables the Voting Members in each place to vote on a Show of Preference and on a poll.

6.8 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Except in the case of any resolution which under this constitution or as a matter of law requires a Special Resolution, questions arising at a general meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Voting Members present at the meeting (including being present by technological means) and who are entitled to vote. Such decision is then for all purposes a decision of the Voting Members.
- (b) In the case of an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution at a meeting of members the chair does not have a second or casting vote in addition to any vote the chair may have as a member of the company.
- (c) Unless a poll is demanded, a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of preference of Voting Members, with each Voting Member present indicating a preference by a means appropriate to that Voting Member and is readily interpreted and understood by the chair (Show of Preference).
- (d) A Voting Member may only exercise one vote on a Show of Preference regardless of whether that Voting Member also holds one or more proxies.
- (e) A poll may be demanded before a vote being decided by a Show of Preference is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the Show of Preference by:
 - (i) the chair of the meeting;
 - (ii) at least five Voting Members present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution; or
 - (iii) a Voting Member or Voting Members present at the meeting and representing at least 5% of the votes which may be cast on the resolution on a poll.
- (f) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair on the result of a vote on a Show of Preference is decisive of the outcome of that resolution. Such declaration does not need to refer to the number or proportion of votes for or against the resolution.
- (g) Except for a poll on the question of an adjournment which must be taken immediately, if a poll is demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken when and in the manner the chair directs, and in all cases the result of the poll will be recorded as a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (h) A poll cannot be demanded at a general meeting on the appointment of a chair of the meeting.
- (i) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

6.9 Voting rights

- (a) Each member has the voting rights associated with the class of membership to which that member belongs as set out in the column titled 'Membership rights' in the table at Schedule 2. For the avoidance of doubt, this may include having no voting rights.
- (b) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:

- (i) must be raised before or immediately after the result of the resolution for which the vote objected to is given; and
 - (ii) must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (c) A vote not disallowed by the chair of a meeting under rule 6.9(b) is valid for all purposes.

6.10 Representation at general meetings

- (a) Subject to this constitution, each Voting Member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may vote:
- (i) in person;
 - (ii) by proxy in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept; or
 - (iii) by attorney in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept.
- (b) A proxy or attorney may, subject to rule 4.2, be a member of the company but does not need to be.
- (c) The chair of a meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy or attorney to establish to the satisfaction of the chair the person has been validly appointed as a proxy or attorney and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the chair may exclude that person from attending or voting at the meeting.
- (d) If the company receives a proxy form from a member without the name of the proxy in that proxy form filled in, then the proxy of that member will be:
- (i) the person specified by the company in the proxy form as being the proxy; or
 - (ii) if no such person is specified by the company in the proxy form, the chair of the meeting for which that proxy applies.
- (e) A proxy or attorney may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting unless the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is received:
- (i) at the registered office of the company or at another place or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting; and
 - (ii) at least 48 hours before the time scheduled for the commencement of the meeting.
- (f) Unless the company has received prior written notice of one or more of the circumstances listed at rules 6.10(f)(i) to 6.10(f)(iii), a vote cast by a proxy or attorney at a meeting of members is valid even if, before the proxy or attorney votes:
- (i) the member dies;
 - (ii) the member revokes the proxy's or attorney's appointment; or
 - (iii) the member revokes the authority under which a third party appointed the proxy or attorney.

 - (i) may only be for losses or liabilities incurred as an officer of the company (either before or after the adoption of this rule);

 - (iii) operates only to the extent the loss or liability is not paid by insurance.
- (c) To the extent permitted by law, the company may take out and pay for insurance for the benefit of its officers (both current and past) against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the company including, but not limited to, a liability for negligence or for legal costs.

approval for a proposed modification or repeal of the constitution (or any provision of it), on reasonable grounds. Without limiting the foregoing, for the purposes of this rule 14(b), reasonable grounds will include if:

For the avoidance of doubt, the power conferred on the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education and Students) by rule 14(b)(ii) may not be relied upon if the applicable timeframe is that under rule 14(c)(iv).
- (c) For the purposes of rule 14(a)(ii), if the company notifies the Senate in writing of a proposed modification or repeal of the constitution (or any provision of it), the Senate will be deemed to have approved the proposed change if:

 - (iv) if the change relates to ensuring the company complies with obligations imposed by legislation or a regulatory body, the change is necessary to ensure that compliance, the obligation requires the change to be made in less than the timeframe contemplated by rule 14(c)(iii), and provided that the proposed change is notified by the company to the Senate as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes aware it is needed, no written response approving or rejecting the change is provided by the Senate to the company prior to the date the corresponding Special Resolution approving the change under rule 14(a)(i) is passed.
 - (v) in any other circumstance, no written response approving or rejecting the change is provided by the Senate to the company within 30 calendar days.

- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, if an amendment under rule 14(a) falls into more than one category under rules 14(c)(ii)-(iv), the time period in which the Senate must provide a written response approving or rejecting the amendment shall be deemed to be the shortest time period applicable under those provisions.
 - (e) If the company expressly provides the Senate in writing an extended timeframe in which to approve or reject an amendment, that timeframe shall apply instead of those contemplated by rules 14(c)-(d).
