USU CEO Departure and Message of Thanks from the Board

After three years of dedicated service, USU CEO Andrew Mills will be leaving the organisation having tendered his resignation. During his tenure, Andrew has demonstrated exceptional leadership and commitment, guiding the USU through tumultuous times in the aftermath of Covid-19. Andrew's last day with the USU will be 11 March 2024.

The USU Board of Directors expresses its appreciation for Andrew's leadership and wishes him all the best in his future endeavours. The USU remains committed to its mission of serving students and the Board is committed to a seamless transition process to ensure continuity and continued success.

In line with our existing succession plan, the USU is presently in the process of appointing an interim CEO whilst we finalise our recruitment process for Andrew's successor.
