Mr Boo.

Please find enclosed the evidence for this month's payment card. Row 4 and 5 of the payment card statement relate to my trip to the Königswinter Conference between 4th and 6th of June.

One part of this conference included meetings with the German finance minister and British Ambassador to Germany, as the list of attendees demonstrates.

The flight to and from Berlin included a £9 travel insurance entry (row 4). Since I do not have an option to claim for travel insurance, I have included this as part of the Public Air Travel expense type option. I think this is firmly within the remit for travelling abroad in the capacity of my parliamentary functions.

If I must use my own funds to repay this, so be it. But I feel that the evidence offered indicates that this is entirely legitimate.

Warm regards,

Douglas Carswell MP

P.S. If I may say, dealing with IPSA recently has been particularly difficult & tiring. This is the latest in a long list of issues....
