Dear [redacted]

Thank you for your email.

We actually responded to a very similar FOI at the beginning of the month that asked more or less the same questions: <http://www.theipsa.org.uk/publications/freedom-of-information/2017-18/cas-92438>.

In short, we recently conducted a review of all pooled staffing services (including the ERG) and will be publishing our report on that review in a couple of weeks (16 November).

I hope this helps.

Kind regards,

Please could I request any information you hold in relation to the European Research Group - including correspondence relating to the group, any details about its functions and any assessments of whether its purposes are parliamentary or political.
