Any portion in dispute will not be paid to either party until and unless mutual agreement is reached. In the event that mutual agreement cannot be found, ADR procedure will be initiated in accordance with the rules of Tenancy Deposit Scheme . Further information is available on request. (www.depositprotection.com).
Consent of the landlord or his agent	Where the consent of the Landlord or his Agent is required for the tenant to carry out some action it is strongly recommended that where such consent is granted, the tenant obtain confirmation in writing so as to avoid misunderstandings or disputes at a later date.

5. GENERAL ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT SHOULD READ THESE CLAUSES

Re-instatement of property rendered uninhabitable

- 5.1 The landlord’s repairing obligations referred to in Clause 3.3 shall not be construed as requiring the landlord to (a) carry out works or repairs for which the tenant is liable by virtue of his duty to use the premises in a tenant-like manner; (b) to rebuild or reinstate the premises in the case of destruction or damage by fire or by tempest, flood or other inevitable accident; or (c) to keep in repair or maintain anything which the tenant is entitled to remove from the premises.
- 5.2 The Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to this agreement.
- 5.3 This agreement is subject to all laws and statutes affecting assured shorthold tenancies. If a court decides that some part of the agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the rest of the agreement will still be valid and binding on all parties.

Service of Notices etc. by the Landlord or Agent

- 5.4 In accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 as amended by the Recorded Delivery Service Act 1962; if the landlord or his agent delivers a Notice or document (and retains reasonable evidence of that delivery) required to be served under this agreement or any Act of Parliament, to the premises (or the last known address of the tenant if different) by hand or sends it by recorded or registered delivery or by first class post, addressed to the tenant then the tenant will be treated as though they have received it.

Surrender of the tenancy by the tenant

- 5.5 Strictly with the landlord’s prior written consent and subject to certain conditions that may include the landlord’s reasonable costs associated with the re-letting of the premises, the tenant might be allowed to surrender or give up this tenancy before it could otherwise lawfully be ended.

Stamp Duty Land Tax

- 5.6 The tenant will be responsible for assessing their liability, if any and at any time, for Stamp Duty Land Tax (SDLT) and for submitting the appropriate forms and payment to the Inland Revenue.

• FORFEITURE - RIGHT OF RE-ENTRY

Important If either party to this agreement are unsure of their rights or require further clarification of this clause they should consult a solicitor or their local Citizens Advice Bureau.

The law (Protection from Eviction Act 1977) gives tenants protection against arbitrary or immediate termination of their rights of occupation and the law restricts a landlord’s rights, except in certain circumstances, to evict from, or prevent a tenant from living in, premises subject to an existing tenancy agreement without first obtaining a court order.

For the landlord to commence legal proceedings to repossess the premises based on a breach of the tenancy (where the tenant had failed to remedy the breach in good time), which might result in the court evicting the tenant or issuing a court order terminating the tenancy earlier than might otherwise be lawful; the law requires that the tenancy agreement contains a Forfeiture clause, sometimes referred to as a Right of Re-entry. Clause 5.7 is such a clause.

For the avoidance of doubt: - In order to exercise his legal rights under this clause, 5.7, a landlord will first need to obtain a court order

- 5.7 If at any time the rent, or any part of the rent, shall remain unpaid for 14 days after becoming due, whether formally demanded or not, or if any major agreement or major obligation on the tenant’s part is not complied with, or if any of the circumstances mentioned in the following Grounds;

- Ground 8. (that both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings there is (a) at least eight weeks rent unpaid where rent is payable weekly or fortnightly; (b) at least two months rent is unpaid if rent is payable monthly; (c) at least one quarters rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable quarterly; (c) at least three months rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable yearly), as set out in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) or,
- Ground 10. (that both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings there is some rent outstanding),
- Ground 11. (that there is a history of persistently being behind with rent),

Ground 12. (that the tenant has broken one or more of his obligations under the tenancy agreement),
Ground 13. (that the condition of the premises or the common parts has deteriorated because of the behaviour of the tenant, or any other person living there),
Ground 14. (that the tenant or someone living or visiting the premises has been guilty of conduct which is, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance to neighbours; Or, that a person residing or visiting the premises has been convicted of using the premises, or allowing it to be used, for immoral or illegal purposes or has committed an arrestable offence in or in the locality of, the premises),
Ground 15. (that the condition of the furniture has deteriorated because it has been ill treated by the tenant or someone living at the premises), Ground 17. (that the landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by either the tenant or a person acting at the tenant's instigation), as set out in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) shall arise, then the landlord may re-enter the property and the tenancy shall be terminated. Any such action will not restrict or limit any other legal rights, which the landlord may have in pursuing the tenant for breaches of the tenant's obligations under this agreement.

6. DATA PROTECTION & CONFIDENTIALITY

- 6.1 Letting agents may share details about the performance of obligations under this agreement by the landlord and tenant; past, present and future known addresses of the parties, with each other, with credit and reference providers for referencing purposes and rental decisions; with Utility and Water Companies, local authority Council Tax and Housing Benefit departments, Mortgage lenders, to help prevent dishonesty, for administrative and accounting purposes, or for occasional debt tracing and fraud prevention. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you are entitled, on payment of a fee which will be no greater than that set by statute, to see a copy of personal information held about you and to have it amended if it is shown to be incorrect.
