Travel and Weather

It is extremely important for visiting groups to plan ahead. We encourage groups to add at least an hour to their travel time in addition to planning for stops, in case you encounter construction or traffic. We recommend traveling with driving directions and referring to the following websites in order to plan your route, anticipate obstacles, and determine approximate travel time. It is vital to the success of your visit that you arrive on time. Please refer to your Reservation Email for information on our 15-minute policy.

Please note: school buses require extra travel time than typically noted on travel websites and GPS systems.

In addition, please note we will expect groups to visit regardless of the weather. If you are unable to make it to campus due to snow, rain, etc., please call our office to cancel your visit. Please do not assume that your visit is cancelled just because of the weather as the only time we will cancel your visit is if the university closes for weather. This is very rare, but should it occur we will let you know! Students and chaperones should dress appropriately for the weather, as our tours are roughly 75-90 minutes and almost entirely outdoors.
