General Strike FAQ

Strike Start: Strike Begins on October 27th at 5am PST. Only the AM shift is needed at the start of the strike. Please check the Go Page for your specific start time based on your shift (6am, 7am, 11am, 7pm). Clinicians should be aware of this date as it signifies the start of their strike duties.

Strike End: Strike ends on Friday October 30th at 5am PST. Only the PM shift will be needed to close out the strike.

- Day Shift: The day shift is expected to work their full 12.5 hour shift until the day before strike end date. For example, strike end date is Friday October 30th, you will work your full shift on Thursday October 29th and travel home on Friday.
- Night Shift: Night shift employees should plan to work their full shift on the Day of the strike's end date (October 30th)

Schedule Information

- Day 1 Schedule: Your Day 1 shift will be closer to 14 hours, whereas remaining strike days will be 12.5-hour shifts. In general, you can expect to arrive at least 1 hour early on DAY 1 of the strike for your assigned shift time. All arrival times will be posted on the GoPage. Note, not everyone will come in early for DAY 1 of strike – follow your assigned shift shown on your schedule for your arrival time.
- Schedule Receipt: Your schedule will be emailed once it has been finalized the day before the strike starts.
    - Your schedule will be sent from USN!
    - Schedule Reading: Your assigned unit will be listed first, followed by your shift. Please refer to the GoPage for shuttle times for your assigned hotel and shift.
    - Schedule Changes: Please adhere only to the schedule provided by USN. Any schedule changes will be communicated directly from USN.
    - For any questions regarding your schedule: See your hotel ambassador or contact USN at 800.726.8773
