George Weston Recital Hall

The George Weston Recital Hall can seat up to 998 people. The orchestra seats 627 people, the dress circle seats 236 people, and the loges seat 135 people. Seating is assigned in the theatre, and your ticket will tell you your row and seat number. If you require assistance locating your seat, let a theatre attendant know and they will take you right to it.

There are 32 accessible seats on the orchestra level of the George Weston Recital Hall, and 17 accessible seats on the dress circle level of the George Weston Recital Hall.

A venue guide for the George Weston Recital Hall is available here.

The artists

BEATrio features three musicians, listed below.

Béla Fleck is a performer in this show and will be playing the banjo.

Edmar Castañeda is a performer in this show and will be playing the harp.

Antonio Sánchez is a performer in this show and will be playing the drums.

The show

BEATrio will run approximately 90 minutes, with no intermission.

Three musical powerhouses. One unforgettable sound.

Banjo legend Béla Fleck, Colombian harp virtuoso Edmar Castañeda, and Grammy-winning Mexican drummer Antonio Sánchez team up as BEATrio—a boundary-breaking acoustic trio.

Together, they create an explosive mix of rhythm, melody, and improvisation that moves effortlessly between jazz, Latin, folk, and classical sounds. With instruments you don't usually see on the same stage, BEATrio delivers a show full of joy, complexity, and surprises.

During the performance

The stage

The three performers will be playing in the centre of the stage, in a semi-circle formation. From left to right: Béla Fleck on banjo, Antonio Sánchez on drums and Edmar Castañeda on harp. There will be warm toned lights on the performers.

Advisories

Live music will be played for the duration of the show.
