

Driver Experience Log

Practice is important

Supervised on-road driving experience is a crucial part of learning to drive and it is recommended to practice driving as much as possible before taking your road test. Lessons from a licensed driver training school can also help you prepare.

On the back of this form is your Driver Experience Log. This is your way to track what you practice every time you drive. You do not need to provide this form to ICBC.

Suggested practice

Your driving practice should include the items listed below. All necessary information and important topics are covered in more detail in Tuning Up for Drivers, and represent what you must be comfortable with as a new driver.

1. Pre-trip check
2. Starting up and pulling away
3. Stopping
4. Backing up
5. Space margins, See-Think-Do
6. Driving straight through
7. Right and left turns
8. Driving on hills and curves
9. Starting and parking on hills
10. Stall parking
11. Two and three-point turns
12. Parallel parking
13. Sharing the road, yielding
14. Lane position, lane changes
15. Driving in traffic
16. Choosing a safe speed
17. Driving on highways and freeways
18. Driving at night
19. Driving in bad weather
20. Hazard perception

Use the Driver Experience Log on the back of this form to record your progress. Quality practice in a variety of conditions will help you best prepare for the test.
