

Subway closed

The subway at Rochdale station is currently closed for essential maintenance and repair works.

As highlighted in the map below, the front of the station can be accessed by turning right up Miall Street, left up Richard Street / Lincoln Street and then heading left on Station Road.

We would like to thank you for bearing with us during the works and apologise for any inconvenience.