This is a detailed map of the Manchester and North public transport network. It shows a dense web of bus routes, with major roads and motorways highlighted in blue. Metrolink lines are shown in yellow, and train lines are in grey. The map includes numerous place names, such as Radcliffe, Whitefield, Prestwich, Salford, and Manchester. A scale bar at the top indicates distances in miles and kilometers. A legend in the top left corner explains the symbols used for bus stations, Metrolink lines, train lines, and other points of interest. A small inset map in the top right corner shows the location of the area within the Greater Manchester region.
