The Story of a Real-life Rescue Pet

Troy Epilepsy

Just one month after being rescued, Troy began having convulsions. Troy's mom rushed him to the emergency vet where he was diagnosed with epilepsy.

Four years later, Troy still has seizures, but they're managed with ongoing medication. Embrace Pet Insurance covers his rechecks, bloodwork, emergency care, and medications.

"If it wasn't for the insurance from Embrace, Troy would have had to go back to the shelter. I will never own a pet without having insurance ever again."

—Brianna, Troy's Pet Parent

Total vet bill: $10,644.85

Embrace reimbursed: $7,728.18
