For purchases made in shops:

The relevant shop entity which can be found in Appendix 1, also to be contacted at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>;

All hereafter called "MediaMarkt".

MediaMarkt acts as credit intermediary for lender Buy Way Personal Finance S.A., Boudewijnlaan 29 bus 2, 1000 Brussels, RPR 0400.282.277.

Supervisory authorities:

- FPS Economy, General Directorate of Economic Inspection - NG III, Avenue Albert II 16 (3^{de} floor), B-1000 Brussels (<https://economie.fgov.be>);
- Financial Services and Markets Authority (FSMA), Rue du Congrès 12-14, 1000 Brussels (<https://www.fsma.be>).

Applicability

You can find the current terms and conditions on our website www.mediamarkt.be and in our physical shops in Belgium. If necessary, we will update these terms and conditions. Your purchase is subject to the version of the terms and conditions that you, at the time of purchase, have read and approved on our website or in one of our shops.

Are you a business/professional customer? Then these general terms and conditions do not apply to your purchase. See the general terms and conditions that apply to business customers at www.mediamarkt.be.

Definitions

Below you will find the definition of terms often in these general terms and conditions. So you know exactly what is meant by them.

- Purchase: the purchase of a product, but also the purchase of one or more additional services from MediaMarkt.
- Customer/you: a buyer, natural, acting for purposes outside his business or professional activity (consumer) or an entrepreneur not materially different from a consumer who makes the purchase for purposes other than his actual professional activity.
- MediaMarkt Outlet: via outlet.mediamarkt.be we offer Outlet products from our regular range, which, for example, have been returned, whose box has been opened or which have been (slightly) damaged or previously repaired.
- MediaMarkt / us: the physical shops and the online shop (webshop and outlet) of MediaMarkt in Belgium.
- Outlet products: these products are not new. The products we sell through MediaMarkt Outlet are sold in the condition they are in at the time of purchase by the Customer. These products may have various features that are clearly specified on the product page, including possible damages, signs of use, scratches or having been previously returned or repaired.
- Auvibel levy: a statutory levy on data carriers such as CDs, DVDs, hard drives and other electronics (including mobile phones) that benefits copyright holders to compensate for home copying.
- Recupel contribution: the amount added to the price of a new electrical or electronic appliance. With the revenues, Recupel coordinates and organises the collection, sorting, treatment and recycling of discarded electro-appliances in Belgium.

Prices

What does our price consist of?

The price quoted by MediaMarkt includes VAT, Recupel, Auvibel and other taxes and is always quoted in Euro/€ .

What is not included in the price?

Our prices do not include any shipping and/or delivery or other administrative costs. We will of course inform you in advance if there are any such costs. Read more about the topic 'Delivery' at www.mediamarkt.be.

Which prices are leading?

MediaMarkt always offers you an attractive price. The applicable price is stated on the price tag. You will find it on or near the product. On our website, the price of the product is shown on the product page.

It may happen that the listed price is incorrect. Should this be the case, MediaMarkt may still decide to charge you the correct price, for example if the price is disproportionately low.

Can you claim a refund of paid VAT?

Yes. All requests for recovery or reclaiming of VAT paid on purchased products by non-EU residents or diplomats, as well as verification of the legal conditions for reimbursement, should be addressed exclusively to external specialised partners designated by MediaMarkt. You agree to comply with the applicable general terms and conditions of these partners. You can easily request more information about these partners in shop, by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice> or calling 02/808 68 16.

Actions and offers

Promotions and offers are only valid while stocks last. MediaMarkt cannot be held liable for the consequences of printing errors in prices or articles, deviations in illustrations or interim changes in designs.

Where can you find MediaMarkt's promotions and offers?

Actions, offers and promotional activities will in any case be announced on www.mediamarkt.be and in MediaMarkt shops.

Do the products in the MediaMarkt Outlet also participate in promotional activities?

The promotional activities - actions and offers - mentioned on www.mediamarkt.be and/or in the MediaMarkt shop do not apply to the MediaMarkt Outlet, unless explicitly stated in the action conditions.

Where can you find the action terms and conditions?

Actions, offers and promotional activities are subject to specific action conditions. These conditions can be found on the MediaMarkt website, with the other information about the promotion or offer.

Payment methods

Which means of payment does MediaMarkt accept?

Through our sales channels (shop, webshop, outlet), you can pay in various ways:

Payment methods	Shop	Webshop	Outlet
Deferred payment (Klarna)		X
Pay on collection	X	X
Paying in instalments	X	X
Gift card / e-Voucher	X	X
Ecocheque	X
Cash	X
Credit card (VISA)	X	X	X
Credit card (Mastercard)	X	X	X

Credit card (American Express)	X	X
Bancontact	X	X	X
Paypal		X	X

Additional conditions may apply to some payment methods. Should this be the case, it will be indicated during checkout.

For products you wish to purchase through the webshop, you will need to pay before delivery can take place.

Not all payment methods are visible at checkout in the webshop. Is this correct?

Some products can only be paid with a specific payment method. The shopping cart - on our website - will indicate the payment options available for the product(s) in your cart.

Booking and payment in shop

Have you ordered via the webshop and wish to pick up your products in one of the MediaMarkt shops (pickup@store) in Belgium? Then your order will be ready in your chosen MediaMarkt shop a few days later, depending on stock levels. You will be notified once your products are ready for pick-up.

MediaMarkt is entitled to cancel the order or regard the agreement as dissolved if the products have not been collected by you no later than two weeks after the message was sent to inform you that your products are ready for collection.

During major commercial promotions, such as "VAT? Get rid of it!" or "Black Friday", the possibility of paying for reserved products in-store is excluded. We do this to keep the shopping experience of all Customers as smooth as possible.

MediaMarkt may refuse orders or reservations if:

- there is a serious suspicion of bad faith or intent to defraud;
- there is repeated abuse of the right of withdrawal/return;
- there are suspicions of repeated (legal) abuse or fraud by a Customer;
- erroneous, suspicious or wrong Customer details are provided;
- it is found that a person provides fictitious personal data;
- an abnormal quantity ordered - possibly in different purchase orders - is identified beyond purely personal use;
- it can be assumed that orders were made for resale;
- there is force majeure.

You can also buy a product or have it delivered to your home via an online purchase via a tablet or online kiosk in the MediaMarkt shop. At that moment, a buy-sell agreement is concluded. The Customer will be informed by when the product can be picked up in the MediaMarkt shop or when the product will be delivered to his/her home.

Delivery

How will MediaMarkt deliver your order?

If you buy a product from MediaMarkt, you can have it delivered to the address of your choice in Belgium.

The MediaMarkt delivery service makes sure you can enjoy the product you ordered as soon as possible. Estimated delivery times are not binding for MediaMarkt and are given for information only. They are therefore not an essential condition for the sale. After your order has been processed by us, you will receive an e-mail from us with a track & trace link that allows you to follow the package at any time.

What can you expect from us when delivering your order?

Does your order not fit through the letterbox? Then we will deliver your product to your doorstep. We deliver to your front door in transport packaging without unpacking. In an apartment building we deliver to the main entrance of the building.

Any visible damage to the product must be noted on the copy of the delivery note signed by you and the carrier. You must report the damage within two days of delivery by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>. On delivery with installation, any visible damage must be reported immediately to the carrier and to MediaMarkt (by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>.)

Not at home? Then, for small and medium-sized products, a message will be left in the letterbox by the carrier or postman. Where you can pick up your product afterwards will be clearly stated.

For large-sized products that require installation, our specialist delivery partner will contact you to arrange a new date. If you are not at home again at that time, MediaMarkt reserves the right to charge extra fees.

Should the installation require a goods lift, an additional supplement of 100 euros will be invoiced upon delivery and installation.

What do we expect from you upon delivery of the ordered product?

Of course, you are responsible for providing the space and facilities to make the delivery, installation and connection of your product possible and as smooth as possible.

When does the transfer of ownership and risk take place?

Ownership of delivered products passes from MediaMarkt upon receipt or delivery of the products and full payment of the price. The products sold, delivered or installed (for example: TV, washing machine, built-in fridge, etc.) remain the exclusive property of MediaMarkt until full payment of the invoice.

Until you pay the sales price, it is prohibited to pledge the products or offer them in any way as security or use them as collateral. It is expressly forbidden to modify these products, make them immovable by incorporation or destination, sell them or dispose of them in any way.

As long as MediaMarkt owns the delivered products, you will remain liable for keeping these products in good condition. During this period, you will only be liable for any loss of or damage to the products. You undertake to insure the products against all risks. You also undertake to arrange the storage of the in such a way that any confusion with other products is ruled out at all times and they can always be recognised as belonging to MediaMarkt. Any payment by you will first be deducted from the outstanding amounts owed for products that you have modified or sold in violation of this article.

Additional services on delivery

We offer additional services where we bring in, connect and/or install your product. See all options at www.mediamarkt.be.

Return

Report your product for return by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice> or by calling 02/ 808 68 16. You can use the following template for this purpose:

"Dear,

I hereby inform you that I revoke our agreement regarding the sale of the following goods/delivery of the following services:

- Description of goods/services:.....
- Order number or article number:
- Date the goods/services were received or ordered:..... [Customer name]

[Customer contact details]

Customer address]"

Then send the product stating the order number and item number to the address communicated to you by our employee.

Please note: A separate return procedure applies to the iPhone 18 Pro Max. If you wish to return your iPhone, please follow these return instructions. The instructions explain step by step how to prepare your device safely for return. Prefer not to prepare the device yourself? You can also return your iPhone to one of our MediaMarkt stores, where our specialists will handle the return for you.

What is MediaMarkt's return period?

All products purchased from MediaMarkt (both in-store and online) can be returned within 30 days.

When does the return period start ?

The return period starts when the product is in your possession.

Are several deliveries involved for one product order? Then the return period starts from the physical taking possession of the last part of that one product.

What are MediaMarkt's return conditions?

All products bought at MediaMarkt in Belgium can be returned within 30 days. A product must be returned complete, in its original condition and, if reasonably possible, in its original packaging. This way, we can give the product a second life. In this way, we contribute together to the sustainable use of consumer electronics.

If your purchase consists of a joint offer/bundle, the return notification applies to all products in the joint offer/bundle.

Are there any products that MediaMarkt deems not returnable?

The following products and services cannot be returned:

- Sealed audio and video recordings and computer software (CDs, DVDs, blu-rays, software, hardware, CD-ROMs, video games, USB sticks, hard drives, etc.), including rechargeable phone cards, whose seal has been broken;
- Items that have a clear personal character (e.g. by an engraving);
- Delivery of products that spoil quickly or have a limited shelf life;
- Items that are sealed and not suitable for return for reasons of health protection or hygiene and whose seal has been broken after delivery;

- The supply of products which, after delivery, are by their nature irrevocably mixed with other products.

Have you bought a product for professional use or for your business? Then this return right does not apply.

What is a sealed product?

A good example can be found with CDs. If both the plastic wrap and the sealing seal were opened, the CD cannot be offered a return. Other products - such as shavers and toothbrushes - can also be sealed. This allows you to assess what the product looks like and, in the event of any return, we can establish that the product is unused. Breaking the seal ensures that we cannot take the product back.

How can you return a product?

Return of small products

If you wish to return a small, wearable product, we advise you to do so in one of our shops. If you return your product in store and it meets the return conditions, we will refund you the purchase price (including any standard delivery charges) immediately. Amounts above € 500 will preferably be refunded to your bank account, for your and our security.

Please note: A separate return procedure applies to the iPhone 18 Pro Max. If you wish to return your iPhone, please follow these return instructions. The instructions explain step by step how to prepare your device safely for return. Prefer not to prepare the device yourself? You can also return your iPhone to one of our MediaMarkt stores, where our specialists will handle the return for you.

If you do want to return a product to us, you will have to organise this yourself. This means that you are responsible for ensuring that the product reaches our logistics center properly and also bear the cost of shipping. In addition, we will refund you in this case after the product has been received and checked by us.

As you are responsible for returning your product yourself, we recommend:

- To pack the product properly,
- To insure the product,
- To use only well-known transport companies.

Register your product for return by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice> or by calling 02/808 68 16. Then send the product stating the order number and article number to the address communicated to you by our employee.

Return of large products

Large and/or heavy appliances that we have delivered to your home cannot be returned to the shop. We will collect these products from your home in Belgium free of charge. Please contact our customer service (<https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>; tel: 02/808 68 16) to find out which products are involved and to make an appointment to collect them. Once the product has been checked at our logistics center and found to comply with our return conditions, we will refund you the purchase price (including any standard delivery charges).

If you do want to return a product to us, you will have to organise this yourself. This means that you are responsible for ensuring that the product reaches our logistics center properly and also bear the cost of shipping. In addition, we will refund you in this case after the product has been received and checked by us.

If you send the product to us yourself or if we collect the product from you, refunds are normally made within 14 days after receipt and inspection at our logistics center.

What if the product does not (fully) meet the return conditions?

A product does not (fully) comply with the return conditions if it is incomplete, (the packaging) is unnecessarily damaged or the product has been used more than necessary to assess (look at or try) it. For example, you can feel free to look at a deep-fat fryer from all sides, but you cannot fry in it if you still want to return it.

If a product does not (fully) meet the return conditions, we will see what we can do for you. One of the solutions may be that MediaMarkt charges you for the depreciation of the product afterwards and/or the costs required to give the product a second life.

How do you get your money back?

Refunds will be made in the same way you paid for the product. Amounts above €500 will preferably be refunded to your bank account, for your and our security.

If you return the product and it meets the return conditions, we will pay you the purchase price (including any standard delivery charges):

- on a return in one of our shops immediately; or
- if you send the product to us yourself or if we collect the product from you, normally within 14 days of receipt by our logistics center.

However, we may wait to refund until we have received the product, or until you have proved that you have sent it in line with the return conditions.

Legal guarantee

All goods, digital content and digital services, purchased from MediaMarkt, are covered by the statutory warranty. This means that you are entitled to a good product. Within the legal warranty, MediaMarkt will ensure that a defective product is repaired as soon as possible or - if repair is not possible - replaced.

If it turns out that no repair or replacement can take place, you can opt for a price reduction or the termination of the agreement. With the latter, the termination of the agreement, you will have to return the product to MediaMarkt.

The legal warranty period is 2 years for new products. The statutory warranty period commences the moment the product is in your possession or was delivered. You must report defects to MediaMarkt in writing within 2 months of discovery. Outlet products are also covered by a 2-year warranty (being a 1-year statutory warranty followed by a 1-year commercial warranty).

Each of our Outlet products is unique, even if they are products of the same type. One Outlet product may have a scratch, while another Outlet product may have slightly damaged packaging or has been previously repaired or returned. The specific condition and details of each Outlet product are always clearly stated on the product page. As the product page informs you of the condition and known details of an Outlet product prior to purchase, you cannot make a warranty claim to subsequently have that Outlet product repaired or replaced because of this previously known condition and details.

Please note: What is not covered by warranty include, among others (non-exhaustive list):

- defects caused by incorrect or abnormal use or other use that does not conform to the instructions supplied with the product;
- defects caused, after the product has been delivered to you, by external causes such as fire, water (flooding), lightning, an accident or natural disasters;
- ordinary or normal signs of wear;
- defects caused by handling by third parties not authorised by MediaMarkt.

What is the guarantee certificate?

We regard any proof of purchase or delivery - such as a receipt, invoice or purchase receipt - as proof of warranty. Even if you cannot find any of these documents, we will be happy to help you. For example, to request a copy of your proof of purchase.

What about showroom models/demonstration products?

These products also enjoy a 2-year warranty. However, you may have to sign an extra document regarding all visible damage or visible defects to the product. You will not be able to claim against MediaMarkt or its carrier for this product for these listed visible defects/damage.

How can you get a defective product repaired?

Repair of small products

We advise you if you want to have a small, portable product repaired, to have it done through one of our shops.

Please note: A separate return procedure applies to the iPhone 18 Pro Max. If you wish to return your iPhone for repair, please follow these instructions. The instructions explain step by step how to prepare your device safely for return. Prefer not to prepare the device yourself? You can also bring your iPhone to one of our MediaMarkt stores for repair, where our specialists will handle the return for you.

If you do want to return a product to us, you will have to organise this yourself. This means that you are responsible for ensuring that the product arrives at our logistics center properly and also bear the cost of shipment.

As you are responsible for returning your product yourself, we recommend:

- to pack the product properly,
- to insure the product,
- to use only well-known transport companies.

Report your product for repair by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice> or by calling 02/808 68 16. Then send the product stating the order number and article number to the address communicated to you by our employee.

Repair of large products

Large and/or heavy appliances, such as a fridge or washing machine, cannot be handed in to the shop for repair, but will be repaired at home. Register your product for home repair by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice> or by calling 02/808 68 16.

What should you look out for when presenting a defective product?

To allow us to properly examine a defective product, we request you to return or send along all supplied accessories - such as chargers, cables and so on. If you send the product, please do so in the original packaging - or make sure it is properly packed - so that no damage can occur during transport.

How long does it take?

We will make sure you can use your product again as soon as possible. You can follow every step of the repair process yourself via the status page at www.mediamarkt.be.

What do you need when collecting your repaired product?

When you hand in a product for repair at one of our shops, you will receive a delivery note. When you collect your repaired product from the shop, you will need this deposit slip.

The delivery receipt can also be found on your repair status page.

What should you do with (confidential) data that is stored in your product?

In the repair process, data may be deleted or the data carrier and/or the entire product may be replaced, resulting in data loss. Therefore, always back up data and programmes before submitting the product for repair.

For more information about data and your privacy, please see our privacy statement at www.mediamarkt.be.

Damage

Do you have a damaged product?

It is of course never the intention to deliver a damaged product, unless it is an Outlet product for which it was indicated on the product page that the product is characterised by (slight) damage or other particularities.

We would ask you to contact us about this within 48 hours of delivery so that we can look for a suitable solution together.

Did the damage occur during delivery of an order?

Please inform us about this as soon as possible.

MediaMarkt cannot be held liable for loss of or damage to the product when a delivery is made by our service partner to a location chosen by the Customer other than the Customer's own home address, such as neighbour's or private addresses in the Customer's immediate vicinity. The Customer is responsible for the chosen place of delivery according to the terms and conditions of the service partner.

Complaints

Where can you file a complaint?

We are keen to improve our service and therefore ask you to us to share your experience with us so that together we can look for an appropriate solution. Contact the MediaMarkt Consumer Service: <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>

Telephone: 02/808 68 16 (available Monday from 10am to 6.30pm, Tuesday to Friday from 9.30am to 6.30pm and Saturday from 10am to 5pm).

What if you can't work it out with MediaMarkt?

Hopefully, it will not come to the point where we cannot work things out together. If so, please refer to the Consumer Ombudsman Service, which is a public service that helps consumers to settle consumer disputes out of court, as provided for in Book XVI of the Economic Code. Please consult the rules of procedure on the website beforehand. You can contact the Consumer Ombudsman Service through the following channels:

Website:

<https://consumentenombudsdienst.be> Email :
contact@consumentenombudsdienst.be

Address: North Gate II, Koning Albert II-laan 8 Bus 1, 1000 Brussels

Telephone number: 02/702.52.00

Customers can also turn to the European Commission's online dispute resolution platform:
<https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/main/?event=main.home2.show>.

Validity of these general terms and conditions?

If one of the articles of these general terms and conditions should be invalid, void or declared void by a competent court, this shall not affect the validity of the other articles of these general terms and conditions, which shall remain in full force and effect. Should any of the articles of these general terms and conditions be invalid, void or declared null and void by a competent court, the parties shall by mutual agreement replace the article by a valid article that corresponds as closely as possible to the initial intention of the parties.

Which court has jurisdiction?

All agreements concluded between you and MediaMarkt and these General Terms and Conditions shall be governed exclusively by Belgian law. Any dispute regarding the existence, execution and/or interpretation of these general terms and conditions and all agreements between you and MediaMarkt shall fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the court(s) of Brussels, Belgium.

BeCommerce quality label code of conduct

MediaMarkt has endorsed the code of conduct of the BeCommerce quality label. You can find a copy of this code of conduct at www.becommerce.be or you can request it by contacting us at <https://www.mediamarkt.be/nl/service/klantenservice>

MediaMarkt only products it purchases from original manufacturers and their wholesalers at all times. When in doubt about the authenticity of products, you can find more information and tips on the website www.eccbelgie.be. If you suspect counterfeiting, you can always submit a complaint via the hotline.

Intellectual property

All texts, comments, magazines, illustrations and images displayed on the webshop and in the shops are protected by copyright, neighbouring rights, and/or other relevant intellectual property rights. Any partial or total reproduction of texts, comments, magazines, illustrations, images, the web shop or the catalogue of MediaMarkt is prohibited.

Personal data

How does MediaMarkt handle personal data?

Naturally, we handle your data with care - and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. More information about how MediaMarkt handles your personal data can be found in our privacy statement, which can be found at www.mediemarkt.be.
