

Deliver high quality, value-based care to meet performance goals

Elsevier's Care Planning solution for your Care Management programs combines the patient story, evidence-based care plan guides, and standardized assessments into one patient-centered plan of care. With this solution you can identify and remove barriers to successful self-care, close care gaps, and optimize performance and quality metrics.

ELSEVIER

Copyright 2024 Elsevier

Care Planning Features:

Holistic, longitudinal Plan of Care

- Summarizes the patient's story, plan and progress across care settings
- Comprehensive Health and Wellness assessment
- Improves communication, interprofessional collaboration, and care coordination
- Identifies barriers to self-management

Care Plans and Guides

- Directs and standardizes practice based on individualized needs
- Informs equitable care supported by evidence
- Aligns evidence-based practice
- Provides consistent care plan including goals, interventions, patient action steps, and education to promote self-management
- Developed through a rigorous peer-reviewed process and validated by clinician experts across specialties
- Content supports NCQA accreditation

Encompasses six interprofessional processes of care

- Capturing the patient story
- Planning individualized care
- Providing care
- Educating the patient
- Evaluating progress towards goals
- Providing professional exchange of patient information

EHR-integrated

- Placing each patient-centered care plan at the point of care within your existing workflow

To learn more, please visit
elsevier.com/solutions/care-planning

ELSEVIER

Copyright 2024 Elsevier

Elsevier's Professional Practice Services:

The Professional Practice Services team supports your unique goals and needs by combining years of clinical expertise with first-in-class consultation services to guide a customized implementation and adoption of Elsevier's Care Planning solution.

With support and expert guidance from Elsevier's Professional Practice Services team, you can deepen the usage of evidence-based care plan guides across the continuum, advance interprofessional practice, and empower lasting positive results in your work culture.

"Elsevier's Professional Practice Services were a game changer for us. The experts were at our fingertips to answer all our questions. We are now in a much better spot as a network."

—Dan Patzek, RN-BC,

Chief Nursing Informatics Officer,
Bassett Healthcare Network

Care Planning