

Elsevier's Oncology Journal Network

Find the best home for your research

High-quality journals covering the entire field

We invite you to browse this comprehensive overview of Elsevier's growing portfolio of over 70 international, peer-reviewed journals covering the dynamic field of oncology and cancer research.

Our programme features flagship titles such as

The Lancet Oncology, Annals of Oncology, Cancer Cell and the European Journal of Cancer, and includes a wide range of broad scope as well as specialist journals. We are also the proud publisher of numerous prestigious society journals facilitating exchange of ideas, experiences and research findings among their communities.

Many of the journals listed are unique in their own right, but there are also a number of interdisciplinary aspects that unite them, not least a rigorous peer-review process. You will find key information on the individual journals in the catalogue as well as every journal's website, where you can read the latest content and submit your research. Don't forget to sign-up to be kept up-to-date. We also provide access to our portfolio of titles through our gateway page: Oncology Journal Network \(elsevier.com\).

Open access is an integral part of our commitment to a collaborative, inclusive and transparent world of research where authors, researchers and academic institutions can share knowledge and build on each other's work to advance outcomes. For our Open Access Agreements and Policies, please visit www.elsevier.com/open-access and look for our growing portfolio of Open Access and Hybrid Journals in the catalogue.

Your contributions as authors, readers, editors and reviewers of our journals are much appreciated and we welcome any feedback you may have about our programme.

Yours sincerely,

Martina Volz

Elsevier's Oncology Journal Network

Finding a journal that will help your work reach the right audiences can take time, and then there are the ups and downs of the publishing process to navigate. The good news is you don't have to do it alone – with over 70 journals, including The Lancet Oncology, Cancer Cell, European Journal of Cancer and Cancer Letters, Elsevier's Oncology Journal Network has the right fit for your paper. Best of all, our titles offer a transparent and supportive publication process that puts you and your research at the center.

We know how critical it is that your research is found and read by the right people, whether that's fellow researchers, policy makers or educators. Our family of 70+ titles provides breadth and depth of coverage from basic to translational to clinical research, across all cancer types, with a wide variety of open access options. It's a comprehensive portfolio of titles; in fact, between them, our oncology network journals publish 18 percent of all papers in the field.

Highlights

We invite you to explore the latest, cutting-edge oncology and cancer biology research on our Highlights page. Here, you can browse through our topical cancer awareness month article collections, view open calls for papers for upcoming special issues, and learn about recently published special issues in our 70+ oncology and cancer research journals.
