

“You’re stronger than you think!”

Hiya, Annie here,

OMG you finally know my real name! I’ve been so excited to tell you! I feel so much more myself now and I’ve even got a brand-new look to match. Don’t worry, it’s still me though, we’ve just got so much to catch up on, let me fill you in.

Since we last saw each other, I’ve made a new friend Jaz – she’s an inventor and makes really cool things! She gave me a Super Strength Bangle and I’m now stronger than ever before.

Pink is still my absolute fave colour though – just look at me!

We’ve been working really hard at Seaside Squad Bootcamp, training for our next adventure. We can’t wait for you to join in the fun when you’re next here!

Come and give me a big hug when you next see me on park and check out my amazing new outfits!

Love ya,

Annie
