

Mindy Sherwood

Chief Sales Officer

Mindy leads strategy and capability for P&G Sales across all categories and regions to deliver a superior retail experience for shoppers and value and growth for P&G and our retail partners.

Since joining P&G, Mindy has held numerous roles spanning categories, geographies, and customers. She oversaw P&G's Nordics' business from Stockholm and led Central Europe Operations while in Budapest. She's worked in categories from Beauty to Baby & Family Care to Food & Beverage—and has also directed P&G's business with Kroger. She led P&G's global Walmart business which was an engine of growth under Mindy's leadership. Her expert understanding of the dynamic changes and digital disruptions in retail, as well as key customer experience, earned her appointment as Chief Sales Officer.

Mindy is a champion for building and leveraging high performing end-to-end organizations. She is passionately involved in creating a diverse and inclusive culture that serves all consumers, advocating for holistic wellbeing, and developing people. Her leadership philosophy is about encouraging team members to be their best in the arena every day.

A native of Michigan, Mindy enjoys hiking, mountain biking, community service and reading. She and her husband, Marc, have two children, and reside in Cincinnati.
