

Mindy Sherwood

President, Global Walmart and Chief Sales Officer

Mindy leads strategy and capability for P&G Sales across all categories and regions to win the shopper path-to-purchase through superior customer value and retail execution. She also leads the global Walmart business, P&G’s largest global retail customer.

Since joining P&G, Mindy has held numerous roles spanning categories, geographies, and customers. She oversaw P&G’s Nordics’ business from Stockholm and led Central Europe Operations while in Budapest. She’s worked in categories from Beauty to Baby & Family Care to Food & Beverage—and has also directed P&G’s business with Kroger. P&G’s Walmart business has been an engine of growth under Mindy’s leadership. Her expert understanding of the dynamic changes and digital disruptions in retail, as well as key customer experience, earned her appointment as Chief Sales Officer.

Mindy is a champion for building and leveraging high performance end-to-end organizations. She is passionately involved in diversity and inclusion programs, strengthening manager relationships, and developing people. Her leadership philosophy is about bringing to life a culture where all can be their best in the arena every day.

Mindy is a native of Michigan and enjoys hiking, mountain biking, community service and reading. She and her husband, Marc, have two children, and reside in Northwest Arkansas.
