

CHANGE HEALTHCARE DATA BREACH TIMELINE: FEDERAL ACTION

Published on July 8th, 2024

March 5, 2024

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) releases a statement on Change healthcare cyberattack.

March 13, 2024

HHS' Office for Civil Rights (OCR) issues a "Dear Colleague" letter and opens an investigation on the Change Healthcare cyberattack.

April 15, 2024

A bipartisan group of Energy and Commerce (E&C) leaders send a letter to Andrew Witty, CEO of UHG, seeking answers about the cyberattack.

April 19, 2024

OCR publishes a webpage responding to frequently asked questions (FAQs) concerning the Change Healthcare cyberattack.

May 30, 2024

Senate Finance Chairman Ron Wyden (D-OR) sends a letter to the FTC and SEC to investigate UHG's "negligent cybersecurity practices."

June 5, 2024

Senate Finance Chairman Ron Wyden (D-OR) sends a letter to HHS calling on the department to enforce mandatory cybersecurity measures for major healthcare entities.

June 14, 2024

HHS, Labor, and the Treasury announce 120-day extension for IDR disputes impacted by the cyberattack.

February 21, 2024

Change Healthcare, a unit of UnitedHealth Group (UHG), discovers data breach. ALPHAV/Black Cat later claims responsibility for the ransomware attack.

• March 9, 2024

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) announce availability of Accelerated and Advance Payment (AAP) Program funds for providers impacted by the cyberattack.

March 22, 2024

Senator Mark Warner (D-VA) introduces legislation tying minimum cybersecurity standards to AAP Program funding.

• April 16, 2024

The House E&C Subcommittee on Health holds a hearing on the incident and CHIME's Board Chair, Scott MacLean, testifies on behalf of CHIME's membership.

May 1, 2024

Andrew Witty, CEO of UHG, testifies in both the Senate Finance Committee and the House Energy & Commerce Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations. Witty's responses to the Senate Finance Questions for the Record (QFRs) were released a few weeks after.

May 31, 2024

OCR updates its Change Healthcare Cybersecurity Incident FAQs.

June 7, 2024

Senators Maggie Hassan (D-NH) and Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) send a letter to Andrew Witty on the status of breach notifications.

June 17, 2024

CMS announces closure date of July 12, 2024 for payments under the AAP Program in response to the cyberattack.

July 19, 2024

OCR posts breach on its website