Important information you should know before submitting a vehicle damage claim form:

- Vehicle damage is a risk of driving. As the operator of Highway 407 ETR, 407 ETR is not responsible for damages caused to a vehicle where road conditions, including roadway debris situations, may have been a contributing factor, provided that the Company has met the applicable Ontario Ministry of Transportation (MTO) requirement to monitor and reasonably maintain safe roadway conditions. Highway 407 ETR is patrolled by 407 ETR patrollers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. In the vast majority of vehicle damage incidents that are investigated, it is confirmed that 407 ETR has met or exceeded the applicable MTO patrol and maintenance standards for highways.
- Please fill and submit a damage claim form ONLY if damage to your vehicle was caused by debris that originated from a 407 ETR vehicle (which includes vehicles performing construction or maintenance on the highway).
- For any and all damage claims resulting from debris deposited on Highway 407 ETR by other vehicles (i.e., non-407 ETR vehicles), 407 ETR is not responsible, and you should contact your insurance company and the police to report the incident.
- Should you submit a damage claim form where damage to your vehicle was NOT caused by a 407 ETR vehicle, you will not be compensated. Instead, you should contact your auto insurance company for any compensation that may be available to you.
