"We're proud to move more than three million people each week," says Javier Tamargo, President & CEO, 407 ETR. "In 2025, we're attracting more drivers in sections of the Highway that can accommodate a bit more traffic – without disrupting the world-class driving experience that motorists rely on."

In March, 407 ETR supported the Little Native Hockey League tournament for the second consecutive year. Held in Markham, the event welcomed over 270 teams and more than 4,000 Indigenous athletes. As a diamond sponsor, 407 ETR has donated $30,000 and provided $150,000 in in-kind travel for athletes and their families.

407 ETR is also a proud sponsor of Toronto and Region Conservation Authority and provided $100,000 in the first quarter. The funding helps support the popular Sugarbush Maple Syrup Festival and an ongoing phytoremediation study to research how native plants can help remove salts from soil, including the effects of roadside application.
