

Justin Gibson

Chief Audit Executive

As the Chief Audit Executive, Justin provides independent assurance on the effectiveness of risk management activities and the strength of the overall control environment.

With foundations in both IT and financial audit, Justin has more than 25 years of audit and risk leadership experience across banking, tech, healthcare, and global enterprises. Prior to joining LendingClub, Justin served as Chief Audit Executive of First Republic Bank, where he built and led the audit organization, acting as a trusted advisor to the Board, CEO, and regulators. Justin has also previously served on the Boards of both the San Francisco Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) as well as the San Francisco Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA).

Justin holds a BA in Economics, with a minor in Accounting and specialization in Computing, from University of California, Los Angeles, and certifications as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), and Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP).
