David is a proven leader with over 40 years of experience. He served as P&G's Chairman, President & CEO from 2015 to 2021, during which he and the people of P&G transformed the company returning it to sustainable, balanced growth and value creation.

Prior to becoming CEO, he was group president of P&G's Global Beauty, Grooming and Health Care sectors with a portfolio of leading brands such as Crest, Oral-B, Head & Shoulders, Olay, Pantene, SK-II, Gillette, Fusion, Mach 3 and Vicks. His time in Product Supply gave him broad experience in manufacturing, logistics, engineering and supply chain operations. His track record of rigorous operational excellence is grounded in these pivotal early assignments.

In the early 1990s, David transferred to P&G brand management, where he helped build many of the company's core businesses including Baby Care, Family Care, Hair Care and Home Care. He has led global businesses, living and working in North America, Europe and Asia.

In addition, David serves on the Board of Directors of Delta Air Lines and Nexii, a sustainable building products company. He also serves on the boards of the U.S.-China Business Council and Catalyst. He is a member of the Board of Visitors at Duke University's Fuqua School of Business. Earlier in his career, David was vice chair of the Greater China Quality Brand Protection Committee, a collaboration among top companies and the Chinese government.

Finally, David is passionate about addressing food insecurity in the U.S. For eight years, he served on the Board for Feeding America, including two years as board chair. He continues to serve as a member of the Cincinnati Freestore Foodbank.
