To persuade means to make someone come around to your point of view. To do that, you need to build an argument and support it with details. Here’s how:

1. Choose a topic and your position for or against it.
2. Provide three reasons that support your position.
3. Below each reason, write two facts that support it.

Persuasion outline

Topic:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reason:</th>
<th>Reason:</th>
<th>Reason:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
<td>Supporting detail:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
To persuade means to make someone come around to your point of view. To do that, you need to build an argument and support it with details. Here’s how:

1. Choose a topic and your position for or against it.
2. Provide three reasons that support your position.
3. Below each reason, write two facts that support it.

Topic: Muggle-born children should continue to be allowed to attend Hogwarts.

Reason:
- Have been going to Hogwarts for a long time
- 3 of 4 Hogwarts founders OK with Muggle-born
- Only Slytherin was against it

Supporting detail:
- 3 of 4 Hogwarts founders OK with Muggle-born
- Only Slytherin was against it

Reason:
- Very talented examples of Muggle-born
- Hermione
- Harry Potter’s mom

Supporting detail:
- Very talented examples of Muggle-born
- Hermione
- Harry Potter’s mom

Reason:
- Many myths about Muggle-born
- Ministry of Magic trying to clear up myths
- Muggle-born have just as much ability as pure-bloods

Supporting detail:
- Many myths about Muggle-born
- Ministry of Magic trying to clear up myths
- Muggle-born have just as much ability as pure-bloods