

Questions to Ask Before Hiring a Private Evaluator

1. Are you a licensed provider? _____
2. What is your area of specialization? _____

3. How many years have you been in practice? _____
4. Do you have expertise in evaluating kids with learning and attention issues? _____

5. How many children have you evaluated who have difficulties like my child's? _____

6. How much will the evaluation cost? _____
7. What is the wait time for starting the evaluation? _____
8. What should my child and I expect on the day of the evaluation? How long will it take? _____

9. What types of tests are you planning to give my child? _____

10. Will you be completing the evaluation yourself, or will you have interns or assistants doing some of it? _____

11. When will the results of the evaluation be ready? _____

12. Can you make specific recommendations for interventions and accommodations to me, teachers, schools psychologists, and others who work with my child? _____

13. Would you be willing to talk to these professionals before and/or after the evaluation process? _____
