PC Guia 2013 Reader Prizes

WORTEN WINS BEST TECHNOLOGY SALES SITE PRIZE

Worten has been chosen as the best technology sales site by the readers of PC Guia 2013.

This is the second year in a row that Worten.pt has been elected by readers as the best site for technological products. Worten Portugal marketing and online director, Nuno Nascimento Rodrigues, said the award was "acknowledgement of the day-to-day effort of a really committed team to make a difference in a highly competitive market".

Worten is striving hard to ensure it leads the technology market through high quality, effective online services, offering our demanding shoppers the experience they have come to expect.

The PC Guia Readers' Prizes are an annual award electing technology brands, products and services for their efforts over the year.
