WORTEN TAKES YOU TO DINNER WITH MICKAEL CARREIRA

Worten has just launched an online competition called "Mickael Carreira takes you to dinner", which, just as the name suggests, has a grand prize of an exclusive dinner with Mickael Carreira and just five fans. The competition is running until 25 March on www.worten.pt.

Fans who want to enter the competition have to buy Mickael Carreira's new record called "Sem Olhar Para Trás", from a Worten store or the brand's online store and send in a photo showing how big fans they are of the singer.

The five entries that meet the regulations (see more on www.worten.pt) and who present the most creative photograph are going to get the chance to have dinner with their idol.

This is yet another event that makes Worten stand out from the crowd and offers its customers a unique prize, which will certainly leave the winners with great memories.
