1. Introduction

The Council of a local government has broad discretion to make policy for a range of strategic or operational purposes. Its ability to make policy comes from the Local Government Act 1995 (Act), where at section 2.7(2)(b) it states that the role of Council, amongst other things, is to – determine the local government's policies.

The legal basis for a local government to make policy, unless required by legislation, is the general competence common law doctrine that underpins the Act and provides the basis of a local government's executive powers.

The policy making function is fundamental to the Council's role as the governing body of the local government. Accordingly, Council will make policies that encompass an array of functions and activities that stem from diverse pieces of legislation.

Council members, because of their contacts with ratepayers and their roots in the communities they represent, will bring different perspectives and understanding of community issues to Council's policymaking. The City facilitates professional development opportunities for council members in accordance with the Act to support the role of council members in this process.

Some legislation requires local government to make specific policies with prescribed criteria. Local Planning Policies are one such example of this mechanism and are prepared in accordance with requirements of planning legislation, including the City's Town Planning Scheme No. 4. Therefore the preparation of Local Planning Policies are not encompassed by this Policy Framework.

Nevertheless the City's Local Planning Policies are listed in the City's policy register for the purposes of maintaining a centralised master list of all policies adopted by Council.

Delegated authority, if given by Council or the CEO, provides the legal basis to carry out the function, or exercise the power that is needed. Delegated authority is the extension of a legislative power by a delegator using an enabling provision of the legislation, to a person occupying a position who will carry out that function. However policy is often required to place boundaries around how that power or function is performed.

This may apply to the discretion the Council is using when deciding on a matter itself (e.g. to approve or refuse something), or it may apply to a function of the City that is to be exercised by officers on the Council's behalf using delegated authority.

In simple terms, Council can make policy in the following ways.

1. Decision making – in the form of a Council decision. A Council decision or resolution may contain the criteria or foundation of the function that the Council wishes to be performed by the organisation. In its decision, the Council may 'act through' another person (usually the Chief Executive Officer) to exercise the function or power required. The decision of Council becomes the policy statement and stands on its own.
2. Adopting a plan or instrument – for example, the making of a local law is an executive function of the local government and can only be exercised by the Council. A local law may contain provisions about activities or functions that a person may or may not do, or contain offences for such things. Such a provision is statutory and are subject to a range of processes prescribed by the Act to give effect to this status. The limitations or inclusions of things prescribed in local laws is, in effect, Council setting the policy as to how it wants those matters to be regulated.

3. Adopting a policy document – this is the development of a stand-alone policy document for consideration and adoption by Council. This is the most common and well-known form of Council's expression of its policy making function. Such a form of policy making is done to place boundaries around the use of a discretionary power or function arising from legislation or Council has delegated. Policies such as this, with few exceptions, are not legally binding. Council may choose to set part or all of a policy aside depending on the circumstances of the matter that requires a decision. Despite this lack of legal standing the courts can and have used local government policies as a guide to determine whether or not the local government has acted reasonably in the exercise of its powers.

The varying ways Council can make policy, as outlined above, is important as it allows Council to respond to its business needs, community aspirations and long term planning, consistent with the Council's role in community leadership.

2. Integrated Planning and Reporting framework and its relationship to policymaking

As part of its obligations under the Act and regulations, local governments in Western Australia are to plan for the future of the district. In this context, 'plan' does not mean urban planning and design, but is a holistic approach to what a community wants its local government to do, and what the local government needs to do to deliver it.

To achieve this, Council's adopted Integrated Planning and Reporting (IPR) framework sets out, at a strategic level, Council's commitment to deliver services, projects and how those things will be funded to achieve the community's vision for the future. These aspirations are distilled in a range of strategies, plans and other documents to guide the implementation and planning horizon of the service desired. Notably, the IPR framework is a requirement of the Act and also sets out a range of statutory functions of the local government.

It must be understood an important distinction exists between IPR and policymaking. Whereas IPR documents are a requirement of legislation and contain specific elements the legislation requires, policymaking is discretionary unless legislation requires otherwise.

Council has implemented the IPR requirements and has captured the aspirations for the community in the form of the City's adopted Strategic Community Plan 2020 – 2030 which sets out the aspirations as follows:

- Aspiration 1 – Community
- Aspiration 2 – Environment
- Aspiration 3 – Economy
- Aspiration 4 – Leadership

The Strategic Community Plan sets out how Council intends to meet the objectives of these aspirations, what strategies are needed to guide them, and the measures by which its performance against meeting these aspirations are to be judged.

Consequently, when a strategy or planning document is made to guide the implementation of a specific Strategic Community Plan aspiration, it is for the purpose of framing Council's objectives around that item or service but does not place any particular guidance or boundaries around how a particular service or function is to be performed.

This is where policy comes into focus: strategy is for determining what the local government wants, however policy is for detailing how the local government wants it done. These policies, for all intents and purposes, represent an instruction manual on how to implement the aspirations and objectives of the Strategic Community Plan and may be required to govern a statutory function arising from provisions of the Strategic Community Plan.

3. General principles

Where Council –

- has delegated its powers or functions to the CEO via a delegation of authority; or
- has adopted a plan or strategy for a particular objective; or
- has a particular legislative power or obligation to implement

Council may adopt a policy to place parameters on how the function, power or objective will be applied.

The purpose of these policies, regardless of category, is to provide consistency and equity in decision making and to optimise the efficiency of the organisation. Any policy must, as a baseline, accommodate the requirements of the legislation that provide the basis for the policy function.

Officer reports that are submitted to Council for a decision on a matter must refer to, and if necessary detail the relevant policy that impacts that item. As noted previously, policies are not legally binding. Council may choose, if it has appropriate grounds to do so, to set aside part or all of a policy that impacts the item Council is required to decide. In such a circumstance it is crucial in the interests of open and transparent government that the rationale for waiving a policy is provided as part of the Council's decision.

Officers, when exercising their powers and functions, must do so within the parameters of the policy that has been adopted by Council for that power or function.

As custodian of the City's day-to-day operations, and the responsible person for implementing the Council's decisions, the CEO has the discretion to make instructions around how a policy function is to be performed. This is an administrative matter for the CEO to determine in accordance with the CEO's functions and responsibilities pursuant to the Act.

The CEO also has functions and powers given directly by the Act and other legislation (workforce management is an example). Functions and powers of this kind cannot be performed by Council and hence Council cannot make policy for these operational matters. In this context, Operational Directions may be made and applied by the CEO in the absence of policy.

It therefore is at the discretion of the CEO to make or approve the Operational Directions on how specific policy requirements or functions of the Act and other laws will be carried out by the City or by officers.

Where a need is identified for a policy, officers will draft a policy document for consideration by the Council. Alternatively, Council may request the CEO take steps to develop a policy for a particular matter, in one of these categories. The draft policy shall refer to –

- The Strategic Community Plan aspiration;
- The responsible Directorate within the organisation;
- The responsible Business Unit; and
- The legislation relevant to the policy function.

A new policy is not to be made if it duplicates or conflicts with the function of another, unless it is intended to supersede that policy at the time the new policy is made.

No policy shall be proposed, or made, that will conflict with a written law or convey a function, power or duty that is a responsibility of the State or Commonwealth Government in the absence of a Memorandum of Understanding or other kind of formal agreement with a relevant State or Commonwealth agency.

4. Statutory compliance

Few policies are a requirement of legislation. Nevertheless policies do exist that are both required by legislation and are to be reviewed annually (for example, a purchasing and procurement policy).

Where a policy is legislated and is required to be reviewed annually, the City will comply with this requirement.

The City will adopt a position of reviewing all other policies as required, or as circumstances dictate.

5. Policy Register

The policies adopted by the local government are set out in the Policy Register, maintained by the City for the purpose of management of all the policies adopted by Council. The Policy Register is available for inspection on request.

Policy

While Council encourages broad public consultation and community input to elected members and officers alike, Council's decision-making process via its Council Meetings, Committee Meetings and Meetings of Electors shall not be impaired by the disruptive behaviour of members of the public attending such meetings. This Management Practice has been developed to assist Presiding Members cope with instances of disruptive behaviour by the public at Council held meetings.

Rationale

The Local Government Act promotes participation of the community in Council held meetings through public question time and observation of the decision-making process which should be conducted in an open and transparent manner. It is important that meetings of Council be conducted in an atmosphere of inclusiveness and openness to foster productive relationships with the community. The general conduct of meetings of Council, particularly during public question time, depends upon mutual respect and good faith between Councillors and the public.

There can be instances at council held meetings where a member of the public fails to show respect or consideration for the presiding member, councillors, council staff and other members of the public. Such disruptive behaviour makes the conduct of the meeting more difficult and stressful, reducing the efficiency and effectiveness of meetings. Disruptive behaviour also denies other members of the public the opportunity to participate and observe council proceedings.

Suggested Strategies for Coping with Disruptive Behaviour

Most interjections whether from an individual or a group will be of limited duration. In such instances the dignity of the meeting can often be retained by the Presiding Member simply ignoring the interjection(s) and moving onto the next item of business. If the interjections continue it may be appropriate for the Presiding Member to ask the offending person(s) to cease.

If the disruptive behaviour continues then it may be appropriate for the Presiding Member to adjourn the meeting for a specific time during which time, the CEO or Senior Officer may be requested by the Presiding Member to speak with the offending person(s) about behaving more appropriately. It is important during such times that the Presiding Member and other Councillors not interact with the offending persons. Upon resuming the meeting, the Presiding Member may issue a cautionary advice to the effect that any further disruptive behaviour will be cause for firmer action to be taken. Should the disruptive behaviour nevertheless continue, the Presiding Member might then further adjourn the meeting during which time the Presiding Member may request the CEO or Senior Officer to again speak to the offending parties advising them that unless the disruptive behaviour stops, they will be required to leave the premises and that failing to heed this final request, will lead to the Police being called to remove them from the premises (NB: The CEO, or his delegate must take this action for whilst the Presiding Member is in charge of the meeting, it is the CEO who, under section 5.41(d) of the Act, has control or management of council's premises, including the meeting forum).

Examples of disruptive and inappropriate behaviour may include:

- constant interjection, particularly when the presiding member or councillors are speaking;
- members of the public calling for points of order;

- booing councillors;
- contemptuous laughter or derisive comments at decisions or during debate;
- refusal to give up the floor to allow other members of the public to ask questions or demanding to ask questions before others in contradiction of an order by the presiding member;
- refusal to accede to a presiding member's instructions, particularly when asked to desist from disruptive behaviour;
- use of abusive and/or inflammatory language when addressing council with a question;
- unnecessarily repetitive questioning; and
- aggressive/threatening behaviour towards either councillors, council staff or other members of the public.

NOTE:

- A person who, without lawful excuse, trespasses on a place is guilty of an offence and is liable to imprisonment for 12 months and a fine of $12,000;

Prevention of Disturbance (Clause 8.6 of the City's Standing Orders Local Law, namely:)

1. Any member of the public addressing the Council or a committee is to extend due courtesy and respect to the Council or committee and the processes under which they operate and must take direction from the person presiding whenever called upon to do so.

Penalty $1,000

2. No person observing a meeting, is to create a disturbance at a meeting, by interrupting or interfering with the proceedings, whether by expressing approval or dissent, by conversing or by any other means.

Penalty $1,000

3. A person must ensure that his or her mobile telephone or audible pager is not switched on or used during any meeting of the Council or a committee.
4. A person shall not behave in a manner that is contrary to section 75 of the Criminal Code.

1. Following a referral by a Councillor to Committee a brief outline/comment on the referral item is to be provided to the CEO in the required format.
2. A summation of the proposal will then be included on the relevant Committee agenda.
3. As this is not a full report to Committee, it is not anticipated that a recommendation other than “that a report be prepared” will follow. Normally, no officer comment/report will be required at this initial stage.
4. Where the Councillors presentation or brief demands advice from officers, at the time, (normally a correction of fact), this will need to be included.
5. In the event that a Councillor has any additional information to provide besides the brief summary in the public agenda, that this information be communicated by the Councillor via a memo under separate cover to all Councillors and the CEO.
6. There will be instances where an officer’s report is already “in the pipeline” and, in the interests of expediency, a Councillors’ Item will be picked up in the process, enabling a quick recommendation to Council.
7. In the event of the Councillor who has made the referral not being able to attend the Committee meeting, then the deputy or an alternative Councillor as nominated by the referring Councillor may speak to the item.
8. If however, the referring Councillor is not in attendance at the Committee meeting and there is no alternative spokesperson to respond to queries then Committee may determine whether the matter should lapse or be recommitted to a subsequent meeting.
9. Should a Councillor wish to withdraw a referral matter or have that matter dealt with administratively after it has been raised at Council, the Councillor is to advise the relevant Executive Director, in writing. The Executive Director will then accordingly bring this to the notice of the appropriate Committee via the list of Councillor Items in the Information Bulletin.

The City of Armadale may provide financial assistance to relevant persons in connection with the performance of their functions provided that the relevant person has acted in good faith and in accordance with their role(s), power(s) and responsibility(s).

In each case it will be necessary to determine whether assistance with legal costs and other liabilities is justified for the good government of the City.

1. Key Terms

In this management practice, unless the contrary intention appears:

“approved lawyer” means –

- (a) a ‘certified practitioner’ under the Legal Practices Act 2003; or
- (b) a law firm on the City’s panel of legal service providers, unless the Council considers that this is not appropriate – for example where there is or may be a conflict of interest or insufficient expertise, approved in writing by the Council or the CEO under delegated authority.

“City” means the City of Armadale.

“legal proceedings” may be civil, criminal or investigative.

“legal representation” is the provision of legal services, to or on behalf of a relevant person, by an approved lawyer that is in respect of a matter or matters arising from the performance of the functions of the relevant person; and legal proceedings involving the relevant person that have been, or may be, commenced.

“legal representation costs” are the costs, including fees and disbursements, properly incurred in providing legal representation.

“legal services” includes advice, representation or documentation that is provided by an approved lawyer.

“payment” by the City of legal representation costs may be either by –

- (a) a direct payment to the approved lawyer (or relevant firm); or
- (b) a reimbursement to the relevant person.

“relevant person” means a current or former councillor, non-elected members of a committee or employee.

2. Payment Criteria

There are three (3) major criteria for determining whether the City will pay the legal representation costs of a relevant person. These are –

- (a) the legal representation costs must relate to a matter that arises from the performance, by the relevant person, of his or her functions;
- (b) in performing his or her functions, to which the legal representation relates, the relevant person must have acted in good faith, and must not have acted unlawfully or in any way that constitutes improper conduct; and
- (c) the legal representation costs must not relate to a matter that is of a personal or private nature.

3. Examples Of Legal Representation Costs That May Be Approved

3.1 If the criteria in clause 2 are satisfied, the City may approve the payment of legal representation costs –

- (a) where proceedings are brought against a relevant person in connection with his or her functions – for example, an action for defamation or negligence arising out of a decision made or action taken by the relevant person;
- (b) to enable proceedings to be commenced and/or maintained by a relevant person to permit him or her to carry out his or her functions – for example where a relevant person seeks to take action to obtain a restraining order against a person using threatening behaviour to the relevant person; or
- (c) where exceptional circumstances are involved – for example, where a person or organisation is lessening the confidence of the community in the Council by publicly making adverse personal comments about a relevant person.

3.2 Subject to clause 3.1, the City will not approve, other than in exceptional circumstances, the payment of legal representation costs in respect of legal proceedings instituted by a relevant person, such as a defamation action or negligence action.

4. Application For Payment

4.1 A relevant person who seeks assistance under this policy is to make written application to the Council.

- (b) how that matter relates to the functions of the relevant person making the application;

- (d) the nature of legal representation to be sought (such as advice, representation in court, preparation of a document etc);
- (e) an estimated cost of the legal representation; and
- (f) why it is in the interests of the City for payment to be made.

- 4.3 The application is to contain a declaration by the applicant that he or she has acted in good faith and has not acted unlawfully or in a way that constitutes improper conduct in relation to the matter to which the application relates.
- 4.4 As far as practicable the application is to be made before commencement of the legal representation to which the application relates.
- 4.5 The application is to be accompanied by a signed written statement by the applicant that he or she –
- (a) has read and understands the terms of this Management Practice;
 - (b) acknowledges that any approval of legal representation costs is conditional on the repayment provisions of clause 8 and any other conditions to which the approval is subject; and
 - (c) undertakes to repay to the City any legal representation costs in accordance with the provisions of clause 8.
- 4.6 An application is also to be accompanied by a report prepared by the CEO or, where the CEO is the applicant, by the Executive Director Corporate Services.

5. Legal Representation Costs – Limit

- 5.1 Unless otherwise determined by the Council, payment of legal representation costs in respect of a particular application is not to exceed $12,000. A relevant person may make a further application to the Council in respect of the same matter.
- 5.2 As far as practicable, approved payments for legal representation of relevant persons will be made by the City directly to the approved lawyer.

 - (c) grant subject to conditions, including a financial limit,
- an application for payment of legal representation costs.
- 6.2 In assessing an application, the Council may have regard to any insurance benefits that may be available to the applicant under the City's Management Liability insurance policy (or their equivalent).
- 6.3 The Council may at any time revoke or vary an approval, or any conditions of approval, for the payment of legal representation costs.
- 6.4 The Council may, subject to clause 6.5, determine that a relevant person whose application for legal representation costs has been approved has, in respect of the matter for which legal representation costs were approved –
- (a) not acted in good faith, or has acted unlawfully or in a way that constitutes improper conduct; or

6. Principles

The following principles must be considered when disposing of assets:

- Ensure that best value for money is achieved within legislative parameters. An assessment of value for money must include consideration of:
 - The impact of the disposal on the City's Long Term Financial Plan and Strategic Plans;
 - Any relevant direct or indirect benefit to the City, both tangible and intangible;
 - Efficiency and effectiveness;
 - The cost of various disposal methods taking into account legislative requirements;
 - Internal resource cost; and

A decision to dispose of non-current assets may be based on one or more of the following:

8. Factors to be considered prior to disposal

Prior to an asset being disposed of the relevant Officer should confirm that the disposal is appropriate and that the following has been secured:

- The remaining economic left within the asset does not allow for it to be utilised optimally at the lowest possible cost.
- No alternative use for the asset exists.
- The asset can be disposed of by using one of the specified disposal methods.
- The preferred method of disposal will provide the highest revenue and benefit to the City.

- All relevant Council policies have been considered prior to disposing of an asset.
- Financial realisation of the disposed asset within the City's asset management system should be considered as part of the disposal process.
- Legislative requirements considered and factored into the disposal of the asset e.g. safe asbestos disposal.

9. Disposal Methodology

Unless it is a major land transaction or a major trading undertaking (Refer section 3.59 of the Local Government Act), section 3.58 of the Local Government Act 1995 stipulates the methods by which assets can be disposed of.

In general where the value of the City owned land or property assets are in excess of $5,000 and $20,000 respectively the authorised disposal methods are as follows:

- i. Public Auction
- ii. Public Tender
- iii. Private Treaty
- iv. Trade – in, where the entire consideration received is not more, or worth more, than $75 000.
- v. Sale via Landfill Tip Site “Drop-in Shop”, to be considered where:

- Asset has reached the end of its useful life;
- Item no longer functions optimally;
- There is no economic benefit to use or redeploy; and/or
- Cost to sell at Public Auction is greater than the estimated return on sale.

vi. Demolition

Regulation 30 of the Local Government (Functions and General) Regulations 1996 provides a number of exemptions to the above. The exemptions specifically include land disposed of to a department, agency, or instrumentality of the Crown in right of the State or the Commonwealth.

The disposal method chosen must be appropriate to the nature, quantity and location of assets earmarked for disposal, and should promote fair and effective competition to the greatest extent possible. Where practical, a competitive disposal method should be selected, particularly for the disposal of high-value assets or large quantities of similar assets. Care should be taken that the preferred method of disposal:

- Is in the best interest of the City;
- Will reduce the potential risk of corruption;
- Are guided by a documented process; and
- Meets, the legislative requirements.

The processes for disposal are explained further as per Addendum A – “Processes for the disposal of non-current assets”.

- ix. Costs incurred as a result of proceedings on rating debts are to be charged to the property's rates account as per section 6.56 of the Local Government Act 1995.

Where the debtor has defaulted three times or more from an approved Special Payment Arrangement, the City may proceed with further legal action and not agree to enter into another Special Payment Arrangement.

The City will not proceed with further legal action if the debt has been paid in full or an approved Special Payment Arrangement has been agreed and is adhered to.

The City may take the following debt recovery actions if it is determined to be in the City's best interest to do so, after the above action has been exhausted.

i. Garnishing of rent from the lessee of a property

In accordance with Section 6.60 Local Government Act, the City will write to the owner or managing agent of a rental property and seek to make a Special Payment Arrangement. Where unsuccessful the City will require the tenant to pay their rental directly to the City to clear the outstanding rates and charges.

ii. Means Inquiry

Where a judgement has been obtained for a MCC or GPC and no payment has been received or the payment amount is insufficient to pay the outstanding amount within a reasonable time, the City may lodge a Means Inquiry with the Magistrates Court.

iii. Lodging a Caveat on the Title of land

In accordance with section 6.64(3) of the Local Government Act 1995, where payment of rates or service charges is in arrears, the City can lodge a caveat, and this will be registered on the title for the land that has unpaid rates and service charges. The cost of lodging a caveat cannot be charged to the property.

iv. Property Sale and Seizure Order PSSO

In accordance with a Magistrate Court (Civil Proceedings) for Goods & Land A Property (Sale and Seizure) Order the City may authorise a Bailiff to seize and sell as much real or personal property as necessary to pay the judgment debt. There are strict guidelines around what property cannot be taken to preserve a level of livability for the owner.

v. Sale of Land

In accordance with section 6.64 of the Local Government Act 1995, if any rates or service charges which is due to the City in respect of any rateable land, has been unpaid for at least three years and the City has attempted to commence legal proceedings at least once within the period of three years prior to the exercise of the power of sale, the Council if it resolves, may take possession of the land and sell the land to recover the outstanding payment amounts.

The Chief Executive Officer is not authorised to initiate Sale of Land proceedings without the formal resolution of Council.

vi. Discontinuance of Legal Action

(a) The Notices of Discontinuance of Case (NOD)

The NOD is able to be issued with the Magistrates Court of WA, provided the City has not applied/been granted a Default Judgement (DJ) on the claim. The effect of a NOD is to advise credit recording agencies that the Claim has been satisfied, from the City's perspective. It does not remove the claim from the debtor/ratepayers credit record.

(b) The Memorandum of Consent Order (MOCO)

The MOCO is only agreed to by the City where the City has made an error in the action taken or exceptional circumstances as determined by the CEO apply. Where the City instigates this action it will bear the cost. If a rate payer requires the MOCO then they are to apply directly to the court and pay all fees associated, the City is not obliged to agree to this action.

5. Persons in Situations of Vulnerability

The general principle of rates collection is that, in all circumstances, rates must be paid. This ensures fairness in the community that all property owners accept and carry out their obligations to contribute to the cost of the provision of essential community infrastructure and services.

However, the ability to pay overdue rates by individual ratepayers varies and, in some instances, ratepayers can be experiencing financial stress caused by a wide range of factors. The City recognises that a person experiencing vulnerability is particularly susceptible to experiencing harm, loss or disadvantage.

The phrase 'people in situations of vulnerability' reflects the fact that anyone, given a certain combination of circumstances, can find themselves in a situation of vulnerability.

The City recognises that there are certain risk factors which may not necessarily result in vulnerability, but are more prevalent in those people in our community in situations of vulnerability. This includes:

- Disability;
- Illiteracy/innumeracy;
- Unemployment;
- Serious or chronic illness;
- Bereavement;
- Exposure to family or domestic violence; and
- Low English language proficiency
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who as a result of historical and systemic wrongs are more likely to experience disadvantage and be in situations of vulnerability.

There are varying degrees of vulnerability, which can take the form of payment difficulties or financial hardship. Payment difficulties reflect short term financial constraints while financial hardship may reflect financial constraints with longer term or broader implications. It is difficult to be precise but those who are undergoing financial hardship are generally unable to provide for the costs of one or more of the following items:

- Accommodation costs – arrears of rent, mortgage and/or utility costs.
- Food
- Clothing
- Medical Treatment

- Education
- Other basic necessities

The City notes that in both cases, there is willingness to pay, but an inability to do so.

6. The City's Approach to Situations of Vulnerability

- i. The City's overall approach in these circumstances is that the City will act in a sympathetic manner and work with each individual to tailor a payment plan considering their individual circumstances.
- ii. The City regards proceedings such as legal action and sale of the property as a last resort and tries to avoid this avenue as much as possible.
- iii. The City aims to achieve the payment of outstanding rates and in some circumstances where necessary, payment plans will not recoup outstanding rates in one financial year.
- iv. In arriving at a payment plan the City will consider a payment plan period that is reasonable. The City's preferred plan is the Smarter Way to pay program, which can accommodate payment of arrears.
- v. The maximum length of time that is five years and the payment plan includes future rates. This may be extended if the particulars of the case are warranted.
- vi. The objective is to help those in genuine difficulties work through their issues, even if it takes time.
- vii. In these circumstances, sometimes a ratepayer's actions include poor decision-making, withdrawing and avoiding the issue by not responding to attempts to contact, or they become aggressive. The City attempts to contact ratepayers occurs throughout the debt recovery process.
- viii. Regardless of when the first contact is made with the person, the City will assess financial hardship in accordance with this Policy and that the ratepayer is willing to follow the requirements of the Policy.

7. Evidence of Hardship

Evidence of hardship is required by the City and is treated with strict confidentiality. The ratepayer may provide evidence by attending the City's Administration Building or via electronic means. A City of Armadale Financial Hardship application form along with the evidence of hardship may comprise:

- a) Financial Counsellor report detailing all debts due, income and proposed payment arrangement; or
- b) Any of the following documents but not limited to, to ensure a full assessment can be undertaken:
 - Bank notice, for example, for mortgage arrears
 - Disconnection notice for utilities

- Notice of impending legal action
 - Repossession notice of essential items such as a car or motorcycle
 - Evidence of loss of employment/registration for Newstart allowance
 - Final notice from school regarding payment of mandatory fees
 - Medical certificate confirming inability to work; or
- c) In circumstances of natural disasters, significant economic events or pandemic:
- City of Armadale completed application form ‘Financial Hardship (COVID-19) – Rates Relief’
 - A letter or email from your employer advising that you have either been stood down or made redundant; or
 - If you are self-employed a letter advising how the COVID-19 has impacted your business.

8. Authorisations

The Council has delegated authority to the Chief Executive Officer to implement this policy which includes the ability to enter into Special Payment Arrangements under Section 6.49 and to write off small debts under section S. 6.12(1)(c) of the Local Government Act 1995, and in line with this policy.

a) Writing off debts

The City has a position that it will not write off a rates debt unless the debt is a small debt. A small debt is that amount determined by Council for the purpose of delegating to the Chief Executive Officer under section 6.12(1)(c) of the Local Government Act 1995 (Delegation CORPS 1.1). However, in some cases the City may write off court fees incurred or outstanding interest.

b) Suspending the accruing of interest

This is a useful way of providing immediate help.

c) Deferring interest and write off of charges

A suspension of interest for three months will occur immediately from the date of receiving the completed application form and confirmation of the appointment made with a Financial Counsellor. The City recognises that there may be a waiting period to see a Financial Counsellor, and so long as there has been a booking made and the City receives confirmation of this, the interest will be suspended. Once the Financial Counsellor has sent the City the report and recommended payment amount, the maximum length of time interest can be suspended is 12 months.

d) Debt recovery action and legal proceedings

While the City is awaiting the ratepayer to meet with a Financial Counsellor to commence a payment plan, legal proceedings may be put on hold for an agreed period.

e) Financial counselling

The City may recommend a ratepayer meet with a Financial Counsellor, who will provide advice to the ratepayer in relation to managing their debts. There are not-for-profit organisations in Armadale who provide these services free of charge.

f) Special Payment Arrangement – payment terms

In the case of hardship the City will assess the period required to clear outstanding rates and charges when paid in conjunction with the annual years rates and charges, in exceptional circumstances this will be to a maximum term of 5 years from date of commencement.

9. Financial/Budget Implications

As rates are the primary source of revenue for local governments, overdue rates represent a significant opportunity cost for local governments and can impact adversely on cashflow and the City's ability to fund the service delivery priorities identified in the annual budget.

Welcome to the Engagement Toolkit

The following information steps out the practical application of the City's Community Engagement Framework (2018). The tools have been developed for City staff to provide guidance and a consistent approach to engagement. Training and support will be provided.

Why it's Important

As part of the City's statutory obligation under the State Government's Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework¹ a Strategic Community Plan (SCP) is developed. An outcome of the SCP is the City's commitment to engage: 'Outcome 1.4: The community is engaged and understood.'

Engaging stakeholders produces a number of benefits for the City, these include:

- ☒ Saves time and money to have all stakeholders 'on board' at the beginning of a project;
- ☒ Provides a more thorough examination of all facets of a project;
- ☒ Drives collaboration with other departments and stakeholders;
- ☒ Drives collective decision making and shared responsibility;
- ☒ Develops productive, strong relationships with stakeholders;
- ☒ Leverages a broader knowledge pool for more thorough, resilient outcomes; and
- ☒ Brings together technical and local knowledge (including Indigenous knowledge).

What it shouldn't be

Failing to engage effectively reflects poorly on the City's reputation, so here are some things to avoid:

- ☒ Just a box ticking or data gathering exercise;
- ☒ Gathering support for a decision which has already been made;
- ☒ Raising expectations or wasting people's time;
- ☒ Not using the data for the purpose stated;
- ☒ Failing to be transparent and maintaining the integrity of data;
- ☒ It shouldn't exclude people who are affected by the outcome; and
- ☒ It's not about being 'seen to do the right thing'.

International Standard for Engagement

The City's approach is aligned with the international standard for engagement, *International Association for Public Participation (IAP2)*².

Process

Where an engagement is required a plan will need to be developed. This will assist in clarifying the purpose, identifying stakeholders and selecting the best method of engagement in order to achieve the required output.

² <https://www.iap2.org.au/Home>

Engagement Plan Steps

The following steps are laid out in the Engagement Plan Template (see appendices) and explained below. Progressing through these steps will ensure a methodical and consistent approach.

Developing an Engagement Plan

The aim of the engagement plan is to provide a simple, systematic and consistent format for all City staff to follow to undertake stakeholder engagements. This will be complemented with training and support.

A template for an engagement plan can be found at in the appendices, along with a few other templates which can be used to gather the information needed for the plan.

Following is a brief description of each step in the engagement plan:

1. Project

The first section of the template asks you to insert a brief description of the project which requires stakeholder engagement. Include information such as background of the project, scope, purpose, timing, context, limitations and constraints.

2. Decisions to be made/problems to be solved

Clearly defining what problem needs to be solved or what decision needs to be reached is the most important part of the engagement process. Given the time, resources and public nature of engagements, it is crucial that this step is thoroughly considered.

This step can be undertaken through a cross-functional meeting, or project control group meeting, using the following questions to guide discussion:

- What is problem are you trying to solve? (Before engaging, ascertain that the problem can be solved)
- What question(s) do you want answered? (Be open informative in order to manage expectations)
- How will you use the information to inform decision making?
- How will you ensure the transparency and integrity of the process? (Communications and record keeping)

3. Guiding principles and objectives

For this step clearly outline the objectives for the engagement and any guiding principles which are used for the broader project.

4. Outcomes or outputs required

The outcomes or outputs required need to be clarified in the engagement plan, as it will inform the type of information which is required and the best way to obtain this from stakeholders.

Examples of outcomes/outputs might be: Consensus to be reached on a building design; service provider collaboration to inform a feasibility study; broad statistical data around community priorities to inform long term capital expenditure; community perceptions to inform a strategy or Council report, etc.

The outcome or outputs required must be clearly communicated to stakeholders as part of the engagement, so they are fully informed about how and when their contribution will be utilised. Stakeholders must have the opportunity to decide whether the engagement is appropriate, and a good use of their time.

5. Level of Impact/Risk

Projects differ greatly in the level of engagement required, due to factors such as complexity, sensitivity, cost, numbers of people involved etc. Using the table below (and seeking guidance where needed) the level of engagement can be determined based on the impact and risk. This helps inform who needs to be involved and what methods could be used.

The highest level of impact/risk is any level which scores two or more indicators. The level of impact/risk will then determine what oversight the engagement requires (see bottom of the table).

Note: this table is a guide of the minimum oversight for engagements, however there may be lower impact projects which require a higher level of oversight due to the high level of stakeholder or Council interest.

	Limited Impact/Risk	Low Impact/Risk	Medium Impact/Risk	High Impact/Risk
Social	☐ Outcomes won't involve any substantial changes ☐ Limited impact and across community ☐ No potential for cultural or historical offence	☐ Outcome likely to be perceived as having a low impact ☐ The impacts/benefits affect a only a narrow section of the community ☐ No potential for cultural or historical offence	☐ Outcome likely to be perceived as having a moderate impact ☐ Multiple views on the preferred outcome, but more points of agreement than disagreement ☐ Potential for cultural or historical offence	☐ Outcome likely to be perceived as having a significant impact ☐ Multiple conflicting views on the preferred outcome ☐ Significant potential cultural or historical offence
Technical	☐ Simple decision; there are very few solutions with no technical or regulatory challenges	☐ Uncomplicated decision; there are very few technical solutions with a few technical or regulatory challenges	☐ Complicated decision; there are several technical solutions with a few technical or regulatory challenges.	☐ Highly complicated decision; there are several technical solutions, with several technical or regulatory challenges.
Economic	☐ No economic benefit or impact	☐ Minimal economic benefit or impact	☐ Moderate economic benefit or impact	☐ Significant economic benefit or impact
Environment	☐ No environmental benefit or impact	☐ Minimal environmental benefit or impact	☐ Moderate environmental benefit or impact	☐ Significant environmental benefit or impact
Political	☐ No media and political interest ☐ No competing interests	☐ Minimal media interest ☐ Minimal competing interests	☐ Some media interest ☐ Some local political interest ☐ Some community action/groups present ☐ Some competing interests	☐ Significant media interest ☐ Significant local, state or federal political interest ☐ Strongly supported by community action/groups ☐ Multiple competing interests

6. Depth of Engagement

It's important to be clear from the beginning what level of involvement stakeholders will have the decision making process, as this will need to be made clear to those being engaged. The IAP2 table below describes five levels of depth of stakeholder involvement in the decision making processes. It's important to note that in Local Government, Council is ultimately responsible decision making, so this needs to be reflected in the selection of the depth of engagement and explained to those being engaged.

Depth of Engagement (based on IAP2 engagement spectrum)
Inform	Consult	Involve	Collaborate	Empower
Provide stakeholders with information which assists them in understanding the project issues, options and opportunities	Provide stakeholders with information and obtain their feedback to help inform recommendations/decisions	Provide stakeholders with information and work directly with them to ensure that their concerns, values and aspirations are reflected in the recommendations/decisions	Provide stakeholders with information and work alongside them on each aspect of the recommendations/decision, to come to a jointly preferred solution	Support stakeholders to develop their own decisions and solutions, and increase their ownership, self-reliance, and sustainability

7. Stakeholder Identification and Analysis – Involve the right people

Stakeholders can be viewed as partners who will add value to a project, and help identify risks. Using a simple table (see appendices) identify stakeholders who are affected or have a high level of interest in the project. These could include community members, service providers, groups/ organisations, community leaders, advocates, industry, other government agencies, cultural, religious, age, disability, etc. This also includes the City's stakeholders including Council and various departments across the City.

For high profile or large projects, a workshop could be held with key stakeholders, to further identify who other stakeholders by asking 'who else should be involved'. Once the stakeholders and level of engagement have been identified, the list needs to be analysed to determine the best methods of engaging each stakeholder.

Things to note:

- ☒ Missing key stakeholders is a risk to the project, City's reputation, and quality of the engagement output
- ☒ Ensure engagements have the correct level of oversight in order to manage risks
- ☒ Don't omit people who are hard to engage, there will be other offers or agencies who can assist

8. Methodology, Tools – Use a fit-for-purpose approach

There is no simple solution or one fit all approach to identifying an effective engagement method. To be most effective it will often be necessary to combine two or three complementary methods for each engagement to ensure all key stakeholders are reached, in the way which suits them best, and produces the required output.

Things to note:

- ☑ Select engagement method based on the 'best fit' for that stakeholder(s).
- ☑ It might be necessary to use several methods e.g. face-to-face interview, on-line survey, focus group.
- ☑ Think about how to ensure equity, access and inclusion for all stakeholders to be engaged.
- ☑ Select venues, times, and events which will make participation easy E.g. piggy-back on to events or communications, go to where the group already feels comfortable.
- ☑ It may be more effective to use a facilitator who already has a trusted relationship with the stakeholder(s).
- ☑ Ensure the language used is appropriate for the stakeholder(s).
- ☑ It may be more effective to involve stakeholder(s) in the design of the engagement.
- ☑ Ensure the access and inclusion of stakeholders who may experience barriers to participation:
 - People with disability, mobility impairment, or have requirements for information in other formats;
 - Children and young people;
 - Culturally diverse stakeholders; and
 - Harder to reach/ vulnerable stakeholders.

Methods
Inform	Consult	Involve	Collaborate	Empower
Meeting Public notice Website Social media Fact sheets Flyers Letters and emails Newsletters	Public comment Public meeting Information session Surveys Forum	Workshop Focus group Audit (stakeholder) Multi-criteria analysis Digital platform World cafe	Advisory committee Facilitation Working group Appreciative enquiry Charrette/ Enquiry by Design	Open space Guide and resource external stakeholders to undertake engagement

Some characteristics of key methodologies:

- Appreciative Enquiry: Focuses on what is working well, to envisage the best possible scenario and preferred way to get there. In effect what's possible (not focusing on the issue). This methodology helps people compromise, innovate, design, and collaborate. It may not be ideal for solving technical or complex issues.
- Digital: Digital platforms reaches a wide audience, are quick, provide easy analysis of information, can offer information in alternate formats, is consistent and has the potential to be interactive. However it is not collaborative, and doesn't build relationships or consensus. It is impersonal and a barrier for people without access to technology or language proficiency.
- Multi-criteria analysis: Can be used for scoring and ranking criteria to make decisions, such as a cost benefit analysis. This method is good for simple decisions e.g. design elements needed in a playground. Again this is an impersonal process, and could limit innovation and contributions from stakeholders.
- Open space: This is an advanced methodology where the participants set the agenda, and the facilitator relinquishes control to the group. It works well for defining and eliciting issues around complex topics, rather than solving specific problems. So it's most effectively used at the start of a process to help define the focus for the engagement.

9. Timelines

The engagement timeline should include key dates for the engagement process, e.g. key meetings, communication deadlines, Council reporting deadlines etc. In addition to this, stakeholders will need to be informed of the timeline for:

- ☒ Project milestones e.g. draft plans, feasibility, consultant appointed, concept designs.
- ☒ Dates for public submissions.
- ☒ Dates for stakeholder engagements (open or close).
- ☒ Public comment opens or closes.
- ☒ When a project will be finalised, Council decision made, or publication of engagement data.

10. Budget and resourcing

The budget will need to detail the costs for every stage of the engagement, and will be funded by the project to which the engagement relates. The template lists some of the possible costs as a guide. In addition to the budget, there needs to be planning for the other resources the engagement will require, which could include:

- ☒ Staff to deliver the engagement e.g. technical presentations, facilitation, data capture etc.
- ☒ Research and development e.g. background information, briefing papers, concepts plans etc.
- ☒ Administration e.g. promotions, venue hire, transport, printing etc.

11. Communications and feedback loop

Communications are a key component in effective engagement and need to be carefully planned, accessing internal expertise from the Marketing and Communications team as required.

Communications should be:

- ☒ Jargon free, plain English, complying with the style guide.
- ☒ Highlight key messages.
- ☒ Available in accessible formats.
- ☒ Available in alternative language(s) if appropriate.
- ☒ Clear about how the project is likely to affect stakeholders.
- ☒ Utilising existing communication channels.

A feedback loop should include:

- ☒ Information on how and when stakeholders will receive feedback on the engagement and the project.
- ☒ How and when decisions will be made.
- ☒ How stakeholder input contributed to the overall engagement outcomes.
- ☒ Any further opportunities for stakeholder involvement.
- ☒ Any opportunities for ongoing involvement in the project.

An effective feedback loop will illustrate the value the City places on the time and contribution of stakeholders, and helps reinforce strong stakeholder relationships for the future.

12. Data integrity, records, reporting

As with all other City decision making activities, records of engagements must be kept and managed appropriately, and according to their sensitivity. If stakeholders were informed of how the City would use their contribution, it is important to maintain the integrity of that data by ensuring that it is only used for the stated purpose.

13. Evaluation

It is critical that any engagement process is evaluated post completion. Evaluation will provide valuable feedback for example, on the best methods for engaging with groups in a particular area or the most appropriate times or venues. These learnings can be shared to inform your future engagement processes.

Things to note

- ☑ Don't select methodology until you have determined the question, risk/impact, depth, stakeholder identification and analysis.
 - ☑ When identifying stakeholders, ask the stakeholders if they can identify anyone who should be consulted, and if the stakeholders identified will provide a broad and equitable range of views.
 - ☑ Try to reach the people who are seldom heard: People with disability, homeless, children etc. This may involve procuring the services of people who regularly work with these groups.
 - ☑ Be aware of other consultations to avoid over consultation and duplication.
 - ☑ Have technical experts at hand, but don't stifle local knowledge and expertise.
 - ☑ Multilayered processes build fuller picture.
 - ☑ Check back with participants to ensure we heard them correctly.
 - ☑ Be aware of cultural decision making – who 'can' make decisions on behalf of groups/families.
 - ☑ Be honest about the amount of power stakeholders ultimately have in decision making processes.
 - ☑ Set the context – provide information so people can make informed decisions.
 - ☑ Quantitative data is easier to obtain, but qualitative data helps build the full picture. Use people's words and stories – a personal account helps people understand the issues.

Introduction

The City and Council will at times establish a group that includes community or agency representation for a variety of reasons. The purpose, intent and timeframe for the group will determine which format they should be established and operate under.

The purpose of this Management Practice is to provide guidelines for establishing Advisory, Working, Reference Groups and Committees.

The intent of these guidelines are not to be overly arduous so as to place unnecessary burdens on the community engagement opportunities and benefits that arise from including community or agency involvement in City activities. Rather they are provided to guide and direct a process that enables that community engagement to be fully realised whilst ensuring consistency across the City organisation.

Purpose and Intent

The purpose of the Groups will determine what level of formality should apply to its establishment. Some reasons to establish groups could be:

- Assist with the provision of a once off activity or event.
- Assist with the provision of information to inform reports, policy or general service provision.
- Assist with the management of a service or facility.
- Provide an opportunity for specialised or professional input.

If the purpose of the group is to significantly influence Council or City activities, operations or decision making then the relevant Executive Director with the CEO will determine if it requires a resolution of Council. If there is resolution of Council then the group/committee is to be treated as a Committee created under Section 5.8 of the Local Government Act 1995.

Purpose Statement / Terms of Reference

Groups may be established for a set period of time to focus on a clearly defined purpose. Others will be longer term or may be for an indefinite period such as facility / service reference group or for a continuous community or professional reference group.

Where groups are for a short – medium term, there would be the expectation that a purpose statement is established to ensure that all members are aware of the reason and intent of forming the group.

For those groups who are formed for an indefinite period or have a purpose that has a working, management or influence on decision making, a Terms of Reference will be established.

As a guide, the Terms of Reference may include:

- Purpose of the Group
A statement that specifies the purpose of establishing the group.
- Objectives of the Group
Specified objectives of what the group is expected to achieve / contribute.

- Membership

Details of what membership the group will comprise of including the provision for a nominated Councillor if and where appropriate.

- Group / Committee positions

Details of what positions are required, eg Chairperson, Secretary and how those positions will be determined.

- Meetings

Details of what the format and timing of meetings will be.

- Quorum / Voting

Details of how the group will reach a consensus and agreement if required.

- Minutes

Details of how the activities and meetings of the group will be recorded and distributed

- Communication and Public Relations

Confirmation that only the Mayor and the CEO are authorised to make public statements in regard to City operations and activities.

- Conduct of Members

Members of groups are to be governed by the same Code of Conduct as required by Elected members and staff.

Membership

The purpose of the group and the level of community engagement that is expected to be achieved will determine its membership, including the nomination of a Councillor where appropriate.

The relevant Executive Director will determine the appropriate methods of advertising and recruiting of members.

Appointment of Members and Term of Membership

The purpose and timeframe of the group, will provide guidance for how membership appointment and length of tenure will be determined.

For short term groups, the membership will be approved by the relevant Executive Manager or Manager as appropriate and the term will be for the length of period relevant to the group. For example a short term reference or event group.

For medium / long term groups that have a definitive end date no longer than two years, the membership and term will be approved by the relevant Executive Director.

For continuous groups, the membership should be for a period of two years and appointment will be approved by the relevant Executive Director. Where appropriate, Council will be informed administratively.

For groups requiring a resolution of Council, then the group/committee is to be treated as a Committee created under Section 5.8 of the Local Government Act 1995. Accordingly, Council approves the appointment and term of membership.

Rights of Members

Members of groups are considered volunteers of the City and as such the Volunteer Management Policy and Practice (COMD3) apply.

Formal Agreements

Depending on circumstances, the relevant Executive Director will determine if a formal agreement such as a Memorandum of Understanding or Deed of Agreement needs to be initiated.

Appendix 1

Community Consultation Policy Management Practice: Partnership Approach

The Partnership approach is to:

- establish a structure for involvement in decision making, e.g. committee
- enable ongoing involvement and keeping the community informed
- allocate responsibility in achieving initiatives

The possible methods for a Partnership approach are:

Possible Method	Description	Comments / Issues
Committee of Management, Advisory Group or Reference Group.	Committee that works with Council under a Terms of Reference to manage a service or facility. Representation may be by appointment or election.	Shares responsibility for the management of a facility and / or delivery of a service Involves community members in the care and control of local resources Need to ensure the broad involvement of interested individuals Potential to be controlled by select few
Taskforce or Working Party	Group of people selected to work with Council to complete a task or develop a new service or facility	Opportunity to maximise skills and resources within the community Rich source of skills and abilities to complement the roles undertaken by Council Requires a skilled chairperson to maximise the contribution of all members
Joint Venture	A formal arrangement with stakeholders or organisations to plan for and achieve a project or service, e.g. a funding joint venture	Greater commitment and responsibility from within the community to establish a facility or service Less reliance on Council funding and resources Tendency for strong sense of ownership by groups that have contributed funds and time

To establish a framework that respects and protects the relationship between the City and its volunteers and recognises the valuable contribution made by volunteers in the community.

Policy

The City is committed to ensuring best practice procedures that define and acknowledge both the roles and responsibilities of its volunteers and those of the City as a volunteer host organisation.

Those procedures:

- Clearly define the roles and responsibilities of the volunteer and the City;
- Reduce the risk of harm of litigation to the volunteer and the City of Armadale;
- Acknowledge the contribution of volunteers in the community.

Volunteer roles at the City vary greatly. Volunteers participate in a wide range of City of Armadale programs for the benefit of the City and the wider community. These range from ‘one off’ projects to an ongoing involvement in council initiatives. The City is committed to ensuring best practice procedures are in place that:

- Clearly define the roles and responsibilities of the volunteer and the City;
- Reduce risk of harm or litigation to the volunteer and the City of Armadale;
- Acknowledge the contribution of volunteers in the community.

Definition

Volunteering, as defined by Volunteering Australia is the “time willingly given for the common good without financial gain.”

At the City of Armadale members of Advisory Groups, Working, Reference Groups and Committees of Management are also considered volunteers. Further information about these groups can be found in Management Practice COMD2-2

Volunteering does not include:

- Compulsory educational service learning (where students are required to volunteer as part of a course)
- Mandated court orders including community service and fines
- Internships
- Formal work experience / vocational placements
- Mandatory government programs
- Limited choice labour market government programs
- Direct family responsibilities

Aim Of Volunteer Involvement Within The Organisation

To involve volunteers in partnership with paid workers, to:

- Initiate, enhance and extend service provision;
- Add a community perspective;
- Increase community awareness and involvement;
- Build capacity within and develop partnerships with community groups.

The City defines a Volunteer Supervisor as any staff member who is responsible for managing volunteers.

This Management Practice and associated documents have been written for City managed volunteers. These documents do not apply to the management of indirect volunteers, one-off volunteers, spontaneous volunteers, elected members, State Emergency Services Volunteers or the City’s Bushfire Brigade Volunteers.

City Managed Volunteer refers to a volunteer that is engaged and managed by the City. City Managed Volunteers are covered by the City's public liability and personal accident for volunteers insurance.

Indirect Volunteer refers to a volunteer that is engaged and managed by a third party organisation or community group, participating in an activity within the locality of the City of Armadale. Indirect Volunteers may also be engaged via donation or sponsorship to support City of Armadale programs and events. Indirect Volunteers must be covered by the third party's insurance.

One-off Volunteers refers to volunteers that are engaged in a one-off activity. Examples of this may be event volunteers, environmental volunteers that attend a one day planting/weeding session and so on.

Spontaneous Volunteer refers to volunteers who come forward following a disaster or emergency to assist in disaster related activities.

Approval Of New Volunteer Roles

Due to the concern of volunteers being placed into paid positions, the City has developed an approval process for new volunteer roles. This process includes:

1. Volunteer Supervisor identifies volunteer role.
2. Volunteer Supervisor meets with Volunteer Services Coordinator to discuss the legitimacy of the role.
3. Volunteer Supervisor liaises with relevant CoA departments including Human Resources to ensure compliance with legislation and policy.
4. Volunteer Supervisor develops Volunteer Role Description.
5. Volunteer Role approved by relevant Executive Director in consultation with Volunteer Services Coordinator.
6. Volunteer Supervisor recruits volunteer.

Some of the key questions a Volunteer Supervisor should ask themselves before creating volunteer roles are:

- Was this role previously held by a paid worker?
- Is the volunteer role description the same as an employee's position description?
- Are volunteers being asked to complete tasks of paid staff during times of industrial dispute?
- Will the volunteer be asked to perform duties that are considered core business for the City of Armadale?

This Management Practice has been written in-line with Volunteering Australia's new "The National Standards for Volunteer Involvement."

The new National Standards for Volunteer Involvement were released in 2015.

Support For Staff Managing Volunteers

Armadale Volunteer Services (AVS) will be available to assist Volunteer Supervisors with any questions they may have in relation to managing volunteers.

AVS can assist Volunteer Supervisors with recruiting volunteers. The Service is also available to refer volunteers but will not recommend them. Volunteer Supervisors will need to apply all of their usual screening processes.

AVS will also report annually to council the number of hours completed by volunteering programs and the outcomes achieved. All City of Armadale volunteers will be invited to AVS recognition events.

AVS will provide professional development and training opportunities for Volunteer Supervisors.

Human Resources will ensure volunteer management is reflected in the position descriptions of all volunteer supervisors and assist with risk management and compliance with Equal Opportunity and Occupational, Health and Safety legislation.

Human Resources will also play a role in supporting volunteer supervisors in times of grievance

Developing Effective Paid Staff And Volunteer Relations

The City understands the importance of cohesive relationships between volunteers and paid staff. The City will develop processes to ensure a climate of mutual trust and respect is achieved between management, staff and volunteers.

Staff will be encouraged to voice any concerns or fears they may have about volunteer programs and will be asked to assist with the review of the City's volunteer programs and roles.

The City's volunteer programs will not be isolated but rather integrated into existing City programs.

In times of industrial dispute volunteers will not be expected to undertake roles previously held by paid staff.

Authority Council Meeting of:	8 February 2010 (C1/2/10) 14 March 2016 (C8/3/16)	8 April 2013 (C13/4/13) 15 April 2019 (C12/4/19)

1. Introduction

The City of Armadale's Visual Art Collection comprises art in a diversity of traditional, new and hybrid media. Some of the Collection represents artists connected with, and/or themes relevant to the City of Armadale. Generally these artworks date from the 1980s onwards.

2. The Art Acquisition Panel (AAP)

The AAP will meet as required to assess and approve acquisitions, de-accessions and outward loans based on and in accordance with the specifics of this Management Practice.

The AAP will consist of: The Mayor or delegated elected member, CEO or relevant City of Armadale Officer designated by the CEO and the contracted Curator.

3. Acquisitions

Acquisitions into the collection are made through:

- Purchase, commission, donation or bequest;
- Items obtained by the City of Armadale or acquired by elected members or staff in the course of their duties.

In order to be considered for the City of Armadale's Art Collection all items should be considered within the following preferred acquisition criteria:

- Compliments and enhances the current scope and value of the collection.
- Where appropriate have a verifiable connection with the City of Armadale (ie lived, worked, studied, created artworks about City of Armadale).
- Be an unconditional donation or purchase which has valid and clearly verifiable legal title.
- Have the capacity to be placed on display in a Council building without hindrance to public access or safety, and without breaching the artist's moral rights.
- Acquisitions must be in a good state of preservation or manufacture. Work requiring extensive conservation and storage or exhibition conditions which cannot be realistically provided by collection resources, unless the works, following significance assessment be essential for the collections, should not be acquired.

4. De-Accessioning and Disposal

De-accessioning is the process whereby works from the collection may be considered for removal from the collection.

An item may be nominated for de-accessioning if it:

- Is an item which does not fall within the Acquisition Criteria,
- Is in a poor condition and is considered to be of insufficient merit to allocate the resources to ensure its conservation,
- Cannot be displayed due to its properties, and is not suitable for research,
- Is a duplicate that serves no specific function,
- Is irreparably damaged or destroyed or is stolen without hope of return.

A de-accessioning assessment will contain a detailed description of the item; a photographic record, an estimated market value and a recommendation of how it is to be best disposed of which will be presented to the AAP for final decision.

5. Collection Management

Art Collection Register

All items are officially receipted and registered upon acquisition into the collection and entered into the Art Collection Register.

The Art Collection Register will:

- Record essential information, including but not limited to, valuations, loans, condition, location, identifying features, provenance and legal requirements and copyright agreement, i.e., whether the artist has retained copyright or transferred copyright to the CoA,
- Document the significance of the item,
- Record an image of the item,
- Be regularly maintained and updated,
- Record any conservation, repairs or reframing of the work.

De-accessioned items will remain on the City of Armadale Art Collection Register with details of its de-accession assessment and disposal details.

Valuation and Insurance

The collection will be valued to its replacement value in accordance with Local Government Accounting Regulation AAS27. Collection valuations are currently undertaken every four years by a suitably qualified art valuer and recorded on the City of Armadale asset register.

Collection insurance will be maintained at the current valuation through standard City Of Armadale procedure.

Storage

The collection should be stored securely and, wherever possible, to museum industry standards of preservation.

Conservation

The general condition of the collection will be assessed and documented in the asset register by City of Armadale's designated officer and/or contracted Curator on a bi-annual basis in accordance with the National Standards for Australian Museums and Galleries. Items requiring maintenance/repairs will be identified during this process and action documented in the asset register.

6. Collection Access:

The City of Armadale rotates artworks from the collection within the public access areas of its own buildings to provide access to the collection.

Broader access may be facilitated through the use of temporary displays in appropriate places, for example, District Hall, Libraries and Civic Administration Centre.

Access is provided through the following:

- Publications and reproductions, programs, exhibitions and display of collection items,
- Supervised research access is available through the Birtwistle Local Studies Library. Photographic reproductions and supplementary information relating to the artworks is available for public access and research only,

- Digital access via the City of Armadale's web site,
- Loans.

Priorities and standards for the regular display of works in Council premises

The priority for display locations within Council premises will increasingly focus on those areas most commonly accessible to the public. Collection items will be placed on display primarily in public areas and secondary meeting rooms and offices.

Regular and special exhibitions and display of the collection will progressively aim towards best museum standards of practice in terms of access, interpretation, space, lighting and security, according to allocated resources.

Period of Display

Not all collection items may be displayed. Suitable items for display are limited by environmental conditions/conservation values and will be displayed in a manner to satisfy conservation concerns. Items may be on display in the same place over a period of 6 to 12 months. After such time the display will be rotated and the item may be relocated.

Where items are particularly sensitive to deterioration they may only be exhibited for a maximum period of up to 6 months. At such time the CoA contracted curator will review the condition of the item, to determine whether the item may remain on display, be conserved, or temporarily returned to storage.

Special Exhibitions

Special exhibitions of the collection may be displayed in accessible, secure venues, appropriate to the material and the exhibition content.

Artist's Moral Rights

During exhibition and display, the artist's moral rights will be observed and the work will be labeled in full view with the following information as a minimum requirement. Artist's name, title of the artwork, date of the work, medium and, as appropriate, the name of the donor or credit to the source of the work.

The work will:

- Not be displayed so as to be obscured or altered without written permission of the artist,
- Not be displayed if it is in disrepair, and
- Be properly identified as a reproduction, where an item on display is not the original work.

Publications and Reproductions

Printed publications including exhibition catalogues may be produced and made available for reference purposes or for sale. The City of Armadale's Art Collection will be professionally photographed and added to the City of Armadale website. The ongoing programme for the production of digital imaging of the collection will continue to provide visual reference and information to the website on an annual basis.

Loans

The collection may accept loans from time to time for exhibition purposes and only within a specifically defined period. All loans to the collection will be properly cared for in keeping with the standards outlined in this management practice.

All loans either inward or outward will be detailed on the Art Collection Register and be for a set period of time. Outward loans will be for a maximum period of 12 months.

The City may lend objects to other museums and organizations holding art and history collections. Where applicable and appropriate outward loans will be made on the understanding of reciprocal lending. It will generally not lend to private collectors.

All outward loan conditions are in reference to Period of Display and Artist's Moral Rights and will be made under signed agreement with the City of Armadale.

All outward loans are subject to notification and acceptance of the City's Insurer noting the following:

- Address and details of display area (Main Foyer, office etc)
- Loan period
- Details of building security or other methods of securing the item.
- Value of the piece/pieces

The lender will be responsible for any additional insurance cost that the City may incur as a result of the loan. Where applicable the City may require the lender to include the piece under their insurance cover and to provide confirmation of coverage.

Notes

Artists in Australia have three rights under Moral Rights legislation. These are:

- the right of attribution (to be identified/credited as the creator of a work)
- the right to not be falsely attributed as the creator of a work
- the right to object to distortion, mutilation or modification of, or other derogatory treatment of, the work which is prejudicial to the artist's honour or reputation.

Moral rights cannot be sold, however, there is a consent clause in the legislation. In most cases moral rights remain with the artist regardless of who has physical possession or ownership of the work.

The following training requirements are to be applied to all local government Bushfire Fighters within the City.

1. Training And The Bush Fire Organisation

Responsibilities differ at various levels in the fire organisation and accordingly the level of skills required to perform related tasks varies.

The Department of Fire and Emergency Services (DFES) assists local authorities by providing a variety of training courses with defined prerequisites, known as the Pathways. Pathways addresses specific skills and knowledge required by the various levels of local government bushfire fighters.

These courses offer a DFES level of training, which recognises a promotional structure and development programme for the local government bushfire fighters, and are recognised by the City as being applicable to the volunteer bush fire organisation.

2. Training Officers

8. Acquisition of the Collection by the City of Armadale

All items previously under the care of the Armadale Kelmscott Historical Society, and clearly not identified as a loan prior to the transfer of management of the History House Museum from the History House Museum Management Committee to the City of Armadale in 2003, will be regarded as belonging to the City of Armadale Moveable Heritage Collection.

Items can be accepted into the City of Armadale Moveable Heritage Collection by donation, acquisition, bequest, internal transfer, salvage or external transfer. Where possible all items that enter the collection will be accompanied by appropriate documentation such as a receipt, transfer document or a signed donation/deed of gift form.

The City of Armadale will strictly adhere to the provisions of the restrictions unless a court of competent jurisdiction authorises otherwise.

10. Secondary Collection

Not all items offered to the City of Armadale will meet the criteria established in this document. Some items may have an educational significance and be accepted into the City of Armadale's Secondary Collection. Donors must be made aware of this distinction prior to acceptance of donations.

The secondary collection is to be used for public and educational programs. These items will be used by members of the public and may be subject to possible damage. They are not a part of the City of Armadale's Moveable Heritage Collection, they will not be documented on the primary collection database and not be subject to the management practices set out in this document except that they must be safe to use by staff, volunteers and members of the public.

11. Ethics

- Not provide appraisals for tax deductions or other external purposes.
- Only provide identification and authentication for professional, scientific or educational purposes as outlines in the Museums Australia Code of Ethics.

12. De-accessioning and disposal

De-accessioning is the process whereby an item from the collection maybe considered for removal. In accordance with good collection management practice and International Council of Museums (ICOM) ethics, the City of Armadale has the right to de-accession items over which it has ownership.

13. Condition for De-accessioning

The City of Armadale may de-accession an item if it:

- Fails to meet the criteria set out in the City of Armadale's management practices for the acceptance and retention of material on a permanent basis.
- Does not have adequate documentation proving provenance and significance.
- Is more appropriate for the item to belong in another cultural or collecting institution.

14. Community Consultation

For an item to be disposed of or transferred to another organisation the City of Armadale will present the recommendation for de-accessioning to a Council recognized community committee for ratification.

For items that have significant financial or cultural value, or where the community committee is unable to reach a consensus on disposal or transfer, the decision will be referred to Council for resolution.

15. Conditions for Disposal

The City of Armadale may dispose or de-accessioned items using the following methods:

- Offer the item in the first instance back to the original donor or immediate member of the family.
- Offer the item to another appropriate cultural or collecting institution.

18. Loans

The acceptance of items by the City of Armadale on a 'long term loan' or a 'temporary loan' basis will be refused. Loans may be accepted on a short term basis for exhibition purposes and only within a specifically defined period. All loans to the collection will be properly cared for in keeping with the standards outlined in this management practice.

The City may lend objects to other museums and organizations holding history collections. Outward loans will be for a set period of time. Where applicable and appropriate, outward loans will be made on the understanding of reciprocal lending. It will generally not lend to private collectors.

- Address and details of display area (Main Foyer, office etc)
- Loan period
- Details of building security or other methods of securing the item.
- Value of the piece/pieces

The lender will be responsible for any additional insurance cost that the City may incur as a result of the loan. Where applicable the City may require the lender to include the piece/s under their insurance cover and to provide confirmation of coverage.

19. Display of Moveable Heritage Collection Artefacts

Prior to display all artefacts must be transferred to the legal ownership of the City of Armadale.

- If the artefact is deemed not to belong to City of Armadale's moveable heritage collection it may only be included in a display provided that the artefact is covered in a temporary loan agreement and is essential to the success of the display.
- The City of Armadale should hold those artefacts that originate from indigenous groups under mutual agreement. The rights to such cultural material will legally remain with the indigenous custodians.

Establishing the aim of display

Before any artefact is placed within a display it must be considered to comply with the Moveable Heritage Collection Policy/Management Practice.

The artefact or display must be placed in a location within the museum that is suitable for exhibition of artefacts. Due care is to be given to the condition requirements of artefacts such as exposure to light, heat and biological agents.

Appropriateness

The City will only display in its museums those objects or archival materials, which are relevant to and consistent with the defined purposes of the museum, as defined by the Moveable Heritage Collection Policy/Management Practice.

Research requirements of displayed objects

Those artefacts that are used in displays must have a minimum standard of research so that the object can be interpreted in an appropriate manner. This level of research should include:

- Knowledge on the use or application of the object/artefact.
- Accessioning information at time of donation completed as far as is practicable.
- The object must have a research relevance to the display in which it is to be placed.

Condition of objects to be displayed

All objects earmarked for display should be considered to be in good general order. Any conservation works to objects should be carried out prior to display.

- Objects that are placed in long-term displays should be assessed at least once per calendar year.
- Any object found to have deteriorated while on display should be removed immediately and not replaced until stabilised.
- If necessary replacement artefacts should be used to complement the display.

Safety

The museum will avoid displaying items that may endanger the health or safety of museum staff or the public given reasonable safety precautions.

Authority Council Meeting of:	10 April 2012 (C21/4/12) 10 September 2018 (C30/9/18)	11 May 2015 (C23/5/15)

1. Introduction

The City's Local Studies Library was named in 2003 in honour of Ivor T. Birtwistle, the first president of the Armadale-Kelmscott Historical Society. Birtwistle's private collection of books and documents, donated after his death and originally held in the History House Museum, remains an integral part of the collection. The Birtwistle Local Studies Library is committed to acquiring materials to develop a comprehensive history of the district.

2. Key Collecting Themes

The City of Armadale's local history collection will reflect the following acquisition criteria:

- Items should have a verifiable connection with the City of Armadale (i.e. people, places, activities or events).
- Published district history works of other local government areas will be collected.
- The collection will include oral history recordings and transcripts, photographs, documents, ephemera, books and manuscripts, local newspapers and news magazines, serials, private archives, cartographic materials, micro formats and limited artefacts.

3. Acquisition

Acquisitions into the collection are made through:

- purchase, donation, copying agreements or by bequest.

Where possible all donations that enter the collection will be accompanied by appropriate documentation such as a receipt, transfer document or a signed donation/deed of gift form.

Donations that include a large collection of items, e.g. minutes and correspondence of a community group or organisation, might not be retained in full, rather a sample collection of the items only may be retained depending on the significance of the collection. Remaining items will be returned to the donor or destroyed by agreement.

Where donors do not wish, or are unable, to fulfil these requirements, then donors may be approached for a loan of such materials to be copied for the collection. When an item is on loan for such purpose, a termination date will be specified.

Donation or deed of gift forms must clearly state that the donor is the legal owner of the item or that they have the legal authority to transfer the ownership of the item to the City of Armadale.

Preferably, acquisitions must be in a good state of preservation or manufacture. Items requiring extensive conservation and storage conditions that cannot be adequately provided for by the collection resources should not be acquired unless it meets significance criteria.

4. De-accessioning and disposal

De-accessioning is the process whereby an item from the collection may be considered for removal if it:

- Is an item that does not fall within the Acquisition Criteria,

- Is in poor condition and is considered to be of insufficient merit to allocate the resources to ensure its conservation,
- It is a duplicate and a more physically intact item is available.

The City of Armadale may dispose or de-accession items using the following methods:

- Return to the donor if indicated on the donor's receipt or deed of gift.
- Transfer to another collection agency.
- Sale or auction.
- Destruction.

5. Collection management

All items are officially receipted and registered into the collection and catalogued within the City of Armadale's current Library Management System.

The library catalogue record includes information, including, but not limited to: loans, physical condition, identifying features, provenance and legal requirements and copyright agreement, i.e. whether the donor has retained copyright or transferred copyright to the City.

6. Copyright

Published materials

- Copyright practices should be within the Copyright Amendment Act 2006 and apply to all published material in the collection. Should a researcher wish to use any unpublished item for publication, written permission must be first sought from the City of Armadale's Historian/Local Studies Librarian, who will seek any clearances on behalf of the researcher.
- Photographs will only be available on application to the City of Armadale's Local Studies Library, which will work within the Copyright Amendment Act 2006.
- Digitisation of significant items will be in accordance with the Copyright Amendment Act 2006.

Unpublished materials

- Copies of all or part of unpublished materials may be made, subject to the wishes of the donor of the material.

7. Ethics

The City of Armadale will abide by the codes of ethical practice established by the:

- Australian Library & Information Association
- Australian Society of Archivists
- Oral History Association of Australia

Public libraries receive a large number of community notices and “handout” pamphlet type material in association with their role of information providers. This policy and its associated management practices seek to ensure that the City’s libraries are not used for inappropriate commercial, political or religious gain.

Policy

The City of Armadale Library & Information Service will provide community information notice boards and will disseminate community information brochures.

Permission to place notices on the notice boards, or to disseminate community information brochures will be in accordance with the current Management Practices.

1. Notice Board items promoting an event should be of a non-commercial nature, ie they should be “non profit” other than commercial cultural advertising, such as theatre, ballet, musical events, film etc.
2. Promotion of community courses/events for which payment is required is acceptable, if the course/events are of an educational nature or health/welfare related, and it is considered that they are not being run from a purely profit driven motive. This decision rests with the Branch Librarian in the first instance, with the Manager Library & Heritage Services making the final decision in case of dispute. The Library’s community service obligation should be the prime factor in making such a decision.
3. Any religious promotional material should be of a general nature and should not promote one particular church and its actual location. A telephone number for contact on such notices or handouts is permissible. An address is acceptable for specific events at a religious centre, eg fete, guest speaker, carol singing event.
4. Political advertising in support of particular candidates is not permitted. However, promotion of a particular event eg guest speaker, rally etc is acceptable. It is not the Library’s responsibility to seek advertising material from the other side of political opinion if it does display material promoting an event supporting one particular point of view.
5. When space becomes an issue on notice boards, local events will take priority.
6. Notices should where possible be “classified” so that like events are promoted on one board.
7. Where possible, a separate notice board will be used to display all Council related notices and to promote the City’s events.
8. Open ended notices will in most instances be displayed for up to three months only, other than those deemed to be of greater use to the community. This decision rests with the Branch Librarian.
9. Informational handouts will be offered as space permits. No group has the right to request that their handouts be placed in a more prominent position than another.
10. The placing of handouts inside of books when issued will be restricted to City supported events.
11. The City at its discretion, reserves the right, with or without reason being provided, to refuse the placement of material on its library notice boards which in its view does not comply with the intent of this policy and that decision shall be final.

To ensure that Constructed Waterbodies are well designed and constructed in accordance with relevant guidelines, ensuring that the waterbodies do not create problems for community and council relating to mosquitoes, toxicity and odours; and to ensure ease of maintenance and management of constructed waterbodies throughout the City.

Constructed waterbodies in existing or proposed public open space areas will only be approved where they satisfy a district recreation need (as per Local Planning Policy PLN 2.9 Landscaping) and are required for irrigation purposes. When considering constructed waterbodies the City will ensure that prior to their construction that they are designed and can be managed to so that costly ongoing management problems will not arise.

Constructed waterbodies in existing or proposed public open space areas will only be approved if it can be demonstrated that they serve a district recreation function and are required for irrigation purposes, including irrigation of private property via a third pipe system.

In demonstrating the need for a constructed waterbody for irrigation purposes, the proponent must first demonstrate that landscape design has sought to maximise water conservation by reference to the overarching practice for areas defined by policy ENG 14 Landscaping, by seeking to:

- (a) achieve “Waterwise” design;
- (b) minimise the need for ongoing irrigation and fertilisation; and
- (c) where appropriate, achieve design and management in accordance with the “Landscaping with local plants - Policy and guidelines”.

Where practical, other technologies or tanks rather than constructed waterbodies should be used for water treatment.

If a constructed waterbody is justified on the grounds of providing water for a third pipe system responsibility for the constructed waterbody should be the responsibility of the organisation operating the third pipe system.

Where a constructed waterbody is proposed as part of a development proposal, the City requires the waterbody to be:

- Off-line from the stormwater drainage system, receiving stormwater input by overland flow only in rainfall events greater than the 1 in 1 year Annual Recurrence Interval.
- Lined with a 0.75mm thick PVC or similar quality liner, covered with at least 400mm of clean sand and with a proven system in place to allow gas release from under the liner.
- Filled from a groundwater bore of sufficiently high water quality to not compromise the good functioning of the waterbody, or if water quality is near ANZECC trigger values the lake volume should be designed to achieve a whole of waterbody volume turnover period of six days during summer. Waterbody volume is measured as the volume of water held by the liner to the top water level less the volume of sand cover over the liner and this total volume must be removed from the lake, used for irrigation and replaced.
- Used for irrigation purposes via a wet well or similar method.
- Maintained by the proponent for a period of at least three years from commissioning of the waterbody before handover to the City.
- Audited by the proponent from the end of the maintenance period (3 years) to a time 10 years after commissioning.

The City further requires the proponent to provide, prior to approval or construction of the waterbody:

- Detailed Engineering drawings to allow full analysis of the waterbody its equipment and any associated infrastructure;

- Whole of life costing information for the lake, equipment and its associated infrastructure in order to confirm that the proposals comply with Council's POS requirements for maximum expenditure values for operations, maintenance and asset renewal;
- Documentation addressing the risk evaluation matrix contained in the Chironomid Midge and Mosquito Risk Assessment Guide for Constructed Waterbodies;
- An Operation and Maintenance Plan for the constructed waterbody and associated Public Open Space to the satisfaction of the Executive Director Technical Services. The Operation and Maintenance Plan should include and address, but not be limited to consideration of;
 - Water quality monitoring and reporting, which as a minimum will be consistent with the Department of Water's document "Water Monitoring Guidelines for Better Urban Water Management Strategies and Plans".
 - Whole of life asset management and replacement costs and expected availability of replacement parts;
 - Measures to discourage feeding of waterbirds;
 - Response times in relation to complaints, including complaints regarding vandalism (e.g. puncturing of the liner) and rubbish in the waterbody (e.g. shopping trolleys);
 - A review and audit process to ensure operation is carried out in accordance with the plan and that operational procedures are reviewed and changed in response to new information.
 - Responsibilities for operation and maintenance during the three year maintenance period.
 - Responsibility for review, audit and overall performance of the waterbody until such time as the bond is fully repaid.

Construction and testing of the proposed water supply for parameters including colour, turbidity, and nutrients.

A commitment, through payment of a bond to cover the costs of altering or removing a constructed water body or the estimated whole of life annual cost over a period of five years, whichever is the greater. The bond will need to be paid prior to clearance of any lots and will be retained for a period of up to ten years after commissioning of the waterbody subject to satisfactory performance of the waterbody. If there are no indications of major operational or environmental problems for a period of three years after full development an estate the City will start to release portions of the bond as per the table below. The table below assumes development of the estate takes two years.

9	30%

Construction of the bore and testing of the water supply for parameters including colour, turbidity and nutrients is required prior to commencing preparation of the Operation and Maintenance Plan.

- 2.6 Graffiti reported internally from Rangers/Parks/Civil Works etc. should be sent to Technical Services Administration to be entered onto the Graffiti database.

3. Removal

- 3.1 Following the receipt of a Graffiti incident report the Manager of Property Services or nominated deputy will allocate the job to:
 - Appropriately trained City Staff;
 - A City nominated graffiti contractor; or
 - Appropriately trained volunteers.
- 3.2 The allocation of the job will be dependent on the extent, location, time of day and level of specialisation required to remove the graffiti.
- 3.3 On site, City employees, volunteers and private contractors will adhere to the safety policies of the appropriate body.
- 3.4 Digital photographs will be taken of the graffiti damage.

- 3.4.1 Images will be downloaded and filed with the associated graffiti incident report. Since there is the potential for such information to go to court, a log must be kept of who took the photograph and who downloaded it (for practical purposes this should be the same person).
- 3.4.2 The cost of removal (included on a spreadsheet sent to Armadale Police), the digital photograph and the above information will be downloaded via the Goodbye Graffiti database.
- 3.4.3 The City will receive an incident report number from the Armadale Police; this should be sent to Technical Services Administration who will file it with the associated graffiti incident report.

3.5 Graffiti will be removed by the most appropriate technique including:

- Painting out;
- Use of high pressure equipment; and/or
- Use of solvents.

The City aims to return the vandalised surface as near as possible to its appearance before the graffiti incident. This includes working to minimise surface damage from chemical or physical treatments and closely matching paint colours where appropriate and if necessary reapplying sacrificial/non sacrificial surfaces.

3.6 The City will aim to remove the graffiti;

- Within 24hrs if racist or obscene;
- Within 48 hrs for all other graffiti.

NB: The Premiers Circular 2011/03 implements the State Government's policy on prompt removal of graffiti vandalism by requiring all public sector bodies to adopt a 48-hour graffiti vandalism removal standard for their assets (from the time of reporting), with immediate removal if the graffiti is racist or obscene.

- 3.7 When City officers/private contractors are removing graffiti from privately owned walls or fences facing onto ovals, parks, public access ways and open public space, a notice of works should be posted explaining the City's practice to each affected resident as a matter of courtesy.
- 3.8 The City will work with the state government to help put in place Service Level Agreements outlining agreed local graffiti reporting and removal processes for property and assets managed by the state. These agreements will only be sought where they will significantly benefit local graffiti control efforts and where they can formalise reporting, removal, or other functions.
- 3.9 The City will support proactive community programs in relation to graffiti removal and prevention.
- 3.10 The introduction of the Graffiti Vandalism Act (2016) has given the City further power under the Act:
 - Section 18 – the City now may give notice to an owner or occupier of property requiring graffiti to be removed within a specified time.
 - Section 19 – the City now has additional powers to ensure the graffiti is removed and is able to recover the reasonable costs of doing so.

- Section 26 – 29 – the City now has powers of entry by Entry Under Warrant for the purpose of removal of graffiti on private property.

Any notices or actions under the Act need to be approved by the Executive Director Technical Services (under delegation from the CEO), or the CEO prior to the action occurring.

4. Prevention

- 4.1 Graffiti prevention tips will be provided on the City of Armadale's website.
- 4.2 The City will take into account Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) principles for new Council buildings. Sacrificial and non sacrificial coatings should be applied to surfaces where applicable and cost effective. In addition, details of paints/coatings used will be recorded against the asset to ensure that when graffiti is removed through 'painting out' an exact match is achieved. NB the cheapest way to remove graffiti is to paint it out.

When considering planning applications for all other buildings, the City should take into account CPTED principles, where possible.

- 4.3 The City will implement CPTED strategies on existing problem areas within its control including planting of suitable bushes/trees along existing long fence-lines etc.) Again uniformity of paint/colour ensures graffiti removal through 'paint out' will be quick, of high quality and least costly.
- 4.4 The City will promote recreational opportunities available to local young people.

5. Information and Support

- 5.1 Graffiti management information will be provided on the City of Armadale's website.
- 5.2 As and when appropriate the City will distribute graffiti management information brochures to local residents and businesses.
- 5.3 The City will provide graffiti management advice to local residents and traders.
- 5.4 Graffiti management community information sessions will be held by the City for local community groups and service clubs.
- 5.5 The City will conduct graffiti community education campaigns at key times/localities.

6. Evaluation and Monitoring

- 6.1 The database information will be used to evidence a decrease/increase in the incidence and recurrence of graffiti in Armadale.
- 6.2 The City will include graffiti incidence as part of any customer satisfaction surveys.
- 6.3 Technical Services Administrator will run regular monitoring reports on:
- Hot spots;
 - Timelines of removal;
 - Removal costs etc.
