About the Farmers' Markets and Roadside Stands Approved by the Louisiana Department of Agriculture & Forestry

- Arrive early for best selection. Farmers often sell all their produce before the end of market hours.

- Fresh fruits, vegetables, and herbs you will find at the market are locally grown.

- Most produce at the market is picked that morning or the day before.

- Fresher produce is more nutritious, tastes better, and lasts longer.

- Please return and become a regular customer. Support your local farmers by buying locally grown produce fresh from the farm.

For Directory updates, visit our website at www.ldaf.la.gov/fmnp, call (985) 345-9483, or email fmnp@ldaf.state.la.us.
