Hillcrest Blueberry Farm, LLC
634 Ferguson Road
Gloster, LA 71078

Hillcrest Blueberry Farm, LLC was the brainchild of Chris Alexander in 1992 after reading an article in a local paper about the profitability of blueberries. In the fall of 1992, the first 50 acres of blueberries were planted. Since then, Hillcrest Blueberry Farm, LLC has experienced many changes.

For years Hillcrest Blueberry Farm, LLC specialized only in commercial fresh blueberry sales. In 2008 Chris, and his wife Daye, decided to experiment with on-farm sales. We started with humble beginnings. Our store merely consisted of a small counter, a few you pick buckets and blueberry lemonade. Since 2008 Hillcrest Blueberry Farm, LLC Farm Store has experienced extraordinary growth.

In July 2016, Southern Living magazine recognized us as being one of four farms considered U-Picks Worth the Road Trips.

Lockett Farms - Growing Healthy Food - A Baton Rouge Area CSA

Find them on Facebook by searching Facebook for Lockett Farms.

Lockett Farms began as a first-generation farm. It all started at our home garden, 2 acres in Central. We quickly out "grew" our area and moved to 30 acres in Pride. In 2017, We were able to partner with The State of Louisiana and Lease 100 + acres at the Beautiful Rosedown Plantation in St. Francisville, La. We are so excited for the opportunity to cultivate the land and persevere the agriculture history.

We are a local Family Farm working 7 days a week to share our passion with our customers and visitors. We enjoy providing the community with local, quality, home grown produce for affordable pricing. We currently sell our produce direct to the consumer either through our CSA Program, seasonally at the Red Stick Farmer's Market, and (this fall) at our "New" Roadside stand At Rosedown Plantation. We are working hard to provide the community with fresh, homegrown vegetables! "Growing healthy food for our family and yours!" Join us for a Farm tour!!

The Recirculating Farms Coalition works with communities to create stable green jobs and grow affordable local, fresh food by building support for eco-friendly recirculating farms.

Company Overview

Non-profit, local, affordable, healthy food advocacy, social justice, sustainable business, organization

The Recirculating Farms Coalition is a collaborative group that supports building eco-friendly farms using clean recycled water to grow local, affordable, fresh food and create stable green jobs.

A recirculating farm uses naturally cleaned, continually recycled water to grow a variety of fruits, vegetables, herbs, flowers, and/or fish. RFC manages an educational and commercial recirculating farming operation in the Central City neighborhood of New Orleans.

Recirculating farming are systems that use any combination of aquaponics, hydroponic, aquaculture farming techniques. Our farm functions at two locations in the neighborhood. We open our doors to tourists and the public for educational tours and workshops related to a variety of agricultural issues. We also have a small area open to the public and devoted to community gardening.
