

Now I will show you
the most beautiful
path of all.

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a forest path. The path is covered in fallen leaves and leads into the distance, flanked by trees and dense foliage. The lighting is low, creating a moody and mysterious feel. The title 'The Path of Love' is overlaid in a large, white, serif font across the center of the image.

The Path of Love

1 Corinthians 13

Now I will show you the most beautiful path of all.

I may have the gift of speaking in both the languages of human beings and of spirit-messengers, but if I fail to love, my words become like the screech of a cat or the yelping of a wild dog.

I may have prophetic powers and the ability to see into sacred mysteries and understand all things. I might even have faith strong enough to make mountains move. But if I fail to love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13

I may give all my possessions to the poor and give my body to be burned as a sacrifice, but if I fail to love, I have gained no honor.

Love is patient and kind. Love is never jealous. It does not brag or boast. It is not puffed up or big-headed. Love does not act in shameful ways, nor does it care only about itself. It is not hot-headed, nor does it keep track of wrongs done to it. Love is not happy with lies and injustice, but truth makes its heart glad.

1 Corinthians 13

Love keeps walking even when carrying a heavy load. Love keeps trusting, never loses hope, and stands firm in hard times. The road of love has no end.

The time will come when prophets are no longer needed, when people will stop speaking in unknown languages, and when the need for knowledge will fade away. For we only know some of the story and can only prophesy small parts of it, but the time is coming when we will know the whole story from beginning to end.

1 Corinthians 13

When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, and I saw through the eyes of a child. But when I became fully grown, I put my childish ways behind me.

For now, it is as if we are looking at a poor reflection in muddy water, but then we will see face to face. For now, my knowledge is full of holes, but when that time comes, I will know the Great Spirit as well as I am known by him.

First Nations Version

1 Corinthians 13

These three remain—faith, hope, and love—
and love is the greatest!

Above all other things, make love your aim.

First Nations Version

Now I will show you
the most beautiful
path of all.

*Above all other things,
make love your aim.*

Let love be your greatest aim.

Let love be your highest goal!

Follow the way of love.

Pursue love .

Chase after love.

Go after a life of love as if your life depended on it—because it does.

*EAGERLY PURSUE and seek to acquire [this] love,
make it your aim,
your great quest.*

*Above all other things,
make love your aim.*
