THEYJUST GET IT

Jesus took the twelve aside and said to them, "Listen, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. The Son of Man will be handed over to the Gentiles; and he will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. They will flog him severely. After that they will kill him. However, on the third day he will rise again."

Luke 18:31-33

But they understood nothing about all these things. They were unable to see in their minds what he could be talking about. They just didn't get it.

Luke 18:34

THEYJUST GET IT

After Jesus' suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.

Jesus opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that a new way of thinking and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

People of Israel, listen! God publicly endorsed Jesus the Nazarene by doing powerful miracles, wonders, and signs through him, as you well know. But God knew what would happen, and his prearranged plan was carried out when Jesus was betrayed. With the help of Gentiles, you nailed him to a cross and killed him. But God released him from the horrors of death and raised him back to life, for death could not keep him in its grip.

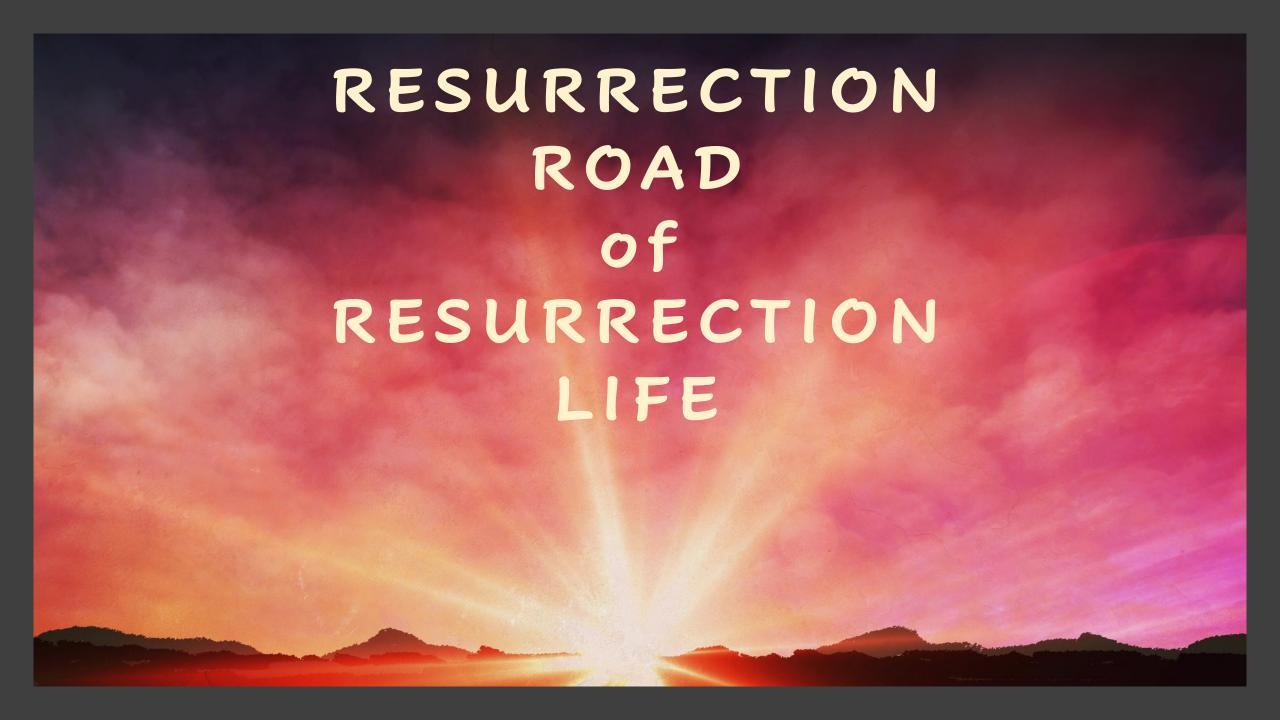

Acts 2:32-23

God raised Jesus from the dead, and we are all witnesses of this. Now he is exalted to the place of highest honor in heaven, at God's right hand. And the Father, as he had promised, gave him the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us, just as you see and hear today.

Acts 2:32-23

Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brethren, awhat shall we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself. Acts 2:47-49

WE JUST

Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. This is a great opportunity for you to grow in your faith so in that sense I am glad we weren't there. Come on, let's go to him."

Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to the rest of disciples, "Let's also go, this may be our time to die with Him."

John 11:14-16

Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

John 11:21-22

Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

John 11:21-24

Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

John 11:21-24

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever puts their trust in Me will live even if they die, and everyone who lives and trusts in Me will never really die. Do you believe this?"

John 11:25-26

Jesus said, "Remove the stone."

Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be an awful smell, it's been four days since he died."

Jesus said to her, "Didn't I hear you say earlier you trust me? Trust me now and you will see the glory of God."

John 11:39-40

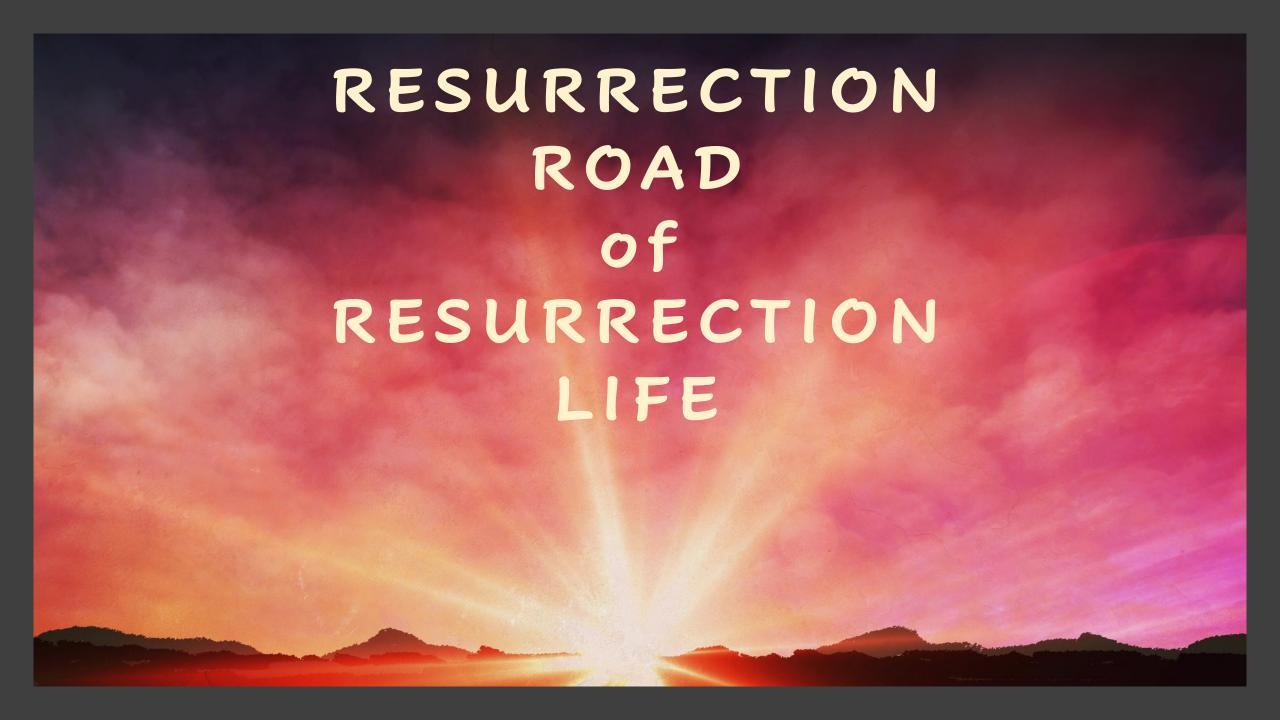

Many of the Jews who had been with Mary put their trust in Jesus. But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus did. Therefore the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting and were saying, "What are we going to do. For this man is doing many signs. If we let this go on everyone will believe in Him and the next thing you know the Romans will come and take away our power and even our nation." John 11:39-40

From that day on they join together and made the decision they must kill him.

John 11:53

Large crowds came to Lazarus' house when they learned Jesus was there. They weren't just coming to see Jesus but also Lazarus, who they heard had been raised from the dead. So, the chief priests planned to kill Lazarus also because when people saw Lazarus they became believers in Jesus.

John 12:9-11
