

Meet Jennifer Ly

With several years of experience in financial reporting, FP&A, and strategic planning, Jennifer Ly is an accomplished CPA with expertise spanning multiple industries. She is currently a Director of FP&A at Cision, where she leverages her experience in revenue management, financial strategy, and business planning to support organizational growth and drive strategic decision-making.

Outside of her professional career, Jennifer is passionate about animal welfare. Growing up, animals played a significant role in her life, inspiring her ongoing commitment to their care and well-being. In her free time, she enjoys reading, travelling, and taking her four-legged family members for walks.

“I am thrilled for the opportunity to work with an amazing organization that focuses on animal welfare through education, advocacy, compliance and care. All animals are important and should be treated with compassion and respect. I am honoured to be part of the Humane Society Board and I look forward to contributing to its mission.”
