

MANTLE ROUND

Meticulously handcrafted with sustainable British deerskin and natural upholstery fillings, the Mantle Round is an elegant and adaptable addition to any living space. An exacting cover of soft yet strong suede drapes deftly over its circular frame, revealing glimpses of the skilfully hand-turned legs where the seams stop and split. Each vegetable-tanned hide holds a particular patina that will evolve over time, whether the Mantle Round is used as a footrest, stool or coffee table.
