What is Quantum Attraction Code?

Quantum Attraction Code is a powerful tool that uses sound waves delivered at specific frequencies to help you change your relationship with the universe.

The creators of Quantum Attraction Code created audio files that were based on quantum theory, including the work of Albert Einstein. It also has roots in an ancient Indian manuscript and quantum-entanglement.

The Quantum Attraction Code, unlike other spiritual programs however, does not use to target "special brainwaves" as part of the "law of attract".

The program instead is based upon the laws of Physics, including quantum physics phenomena that we know are true.

Quantum Attraction Code targets the Pineal Gland

You can use certain aspects of quantum physics to change your relationship with the universe. This will help you attract new opportunities by manifesting them into the world.

Quantum Attraction Code's creators claim that the program will work the moment you start using it.

Others have taken months to jump-start their pineal gland for Quantum Attraction. Some people have to wait months before they can activate their pineal glands for Quantum Attraction ."

The audio files that come with Quantum Attraction Code create a special relationship with your Pineal gland. The pineal gland, also known as "the third eye," is a small brain gland that produces hormones.

Spiritual healers believed that targeting the third-eye could attract abundance, happiness, and wealth. Quantum Attraction Code creators found they could achieve the same effect by using quantum physics.

Who is the creator of Quantum Attraction Code? Roger Poulson

Quantum Attraction Code is a program created by Roger Poulson. He teamed up to release it to the world with Albert Einstein's great-granddaughter.

Roger, a father of two who was twice divorced, struggled to pay the rent in a rundown apartment located in Queens, New York. His two sons had no interest in him. He was plagued by depression and debt. He tried to commit suicide, but failed.

Roger's future would be transformed forever, both physically and financially, as his life changed.

Roger began driving for Uber in order to survive. Roger met Albert Einstein's descendant while driving for Uber. He called her Brenda, even though Brenda wasn't her real name. Brenda claimed that she was a direct descendant from Albert Einstein.

Roger's chance encounter with Brenda led him on a financial journey that changed his life forever. It led him to eventually create the Quantum Attraction Code, and share his newly found fortune with the rest of the world.

How Albert Einstein's Direct Descendent Helped Create Quantum Attraction Code

Roger Poulson developed Quantum Attraction Code after meeting Brenda, a woman who claimed to be the direct descendant Albert Einstein.

To be a direct descendant of Albert Einstein, Brenda would need to be Albert Einstein's child, grandchild, great-grandchild, or great-great-grandchild (and so on).

Albert Einstein had three children, including:

- Lieserl Einstein, Albert's first daughter, died in 1903 at age 1.
- Hans Albert Einstein died in 1973. He had four children: three biological sons, and one adopted daughter (Evelyn Einstein).
- Albert Einstein's second child, Eduard "Tete", died in 1965, after becoming estranged with his father. Eduard Einstein received electroconvulsive treatment while in an institution for mental illness. He never had children.

- Roger claims that he worked with a female descendant of Albert Einstein. He refers to the woman as Brenda, which he admits is not her true name. Roger's information, even though he does not reveal her identity narrows the list.

Albert Einstein had only one granddaughter. Evelyn, his non-biological grandchild. Roger may have worked with Evelyn Einstein. However, it is unlikely that she died in 2011.

It seems more likely that Roger worked with one of Albert Einstein's great-granddaughters: Albert's son, Hans Einstein, has a granddaughter named Myra Einstein, who works in Switzerland. Myra Einstein appears to be only one of the great-granddaughters in the Einstein clan. Brenda, the woman who spoke to Roger about the secret family tree, says Albert Einstein is her great-grandfather.

Brenda tells Roger about the Quantum Manuscript

Brenda, possibly Albert Einstein's granddaughter, told Roger Poulson a family secret known as the Quantum Manuscript. This manuscript contains the secret of attracting abundance, wealth and opportunity to yourself.

Brenda explains how The Quantum Manuscript functions.

"Brenda", the great-granddaughter Albert Einstein visited New York City in order to visit a high-end studio. Roger assumed that she was a musician, but later learned she was a scientist.

Roger confided in Brenda his financial problems, saying he was in thousands of dollars of debt and suicidal.

Brenda revealed a secret to Roger that she claimed "nobody knew". Her family had sworn to secrecy but she chose to share the information with her Uber driver.

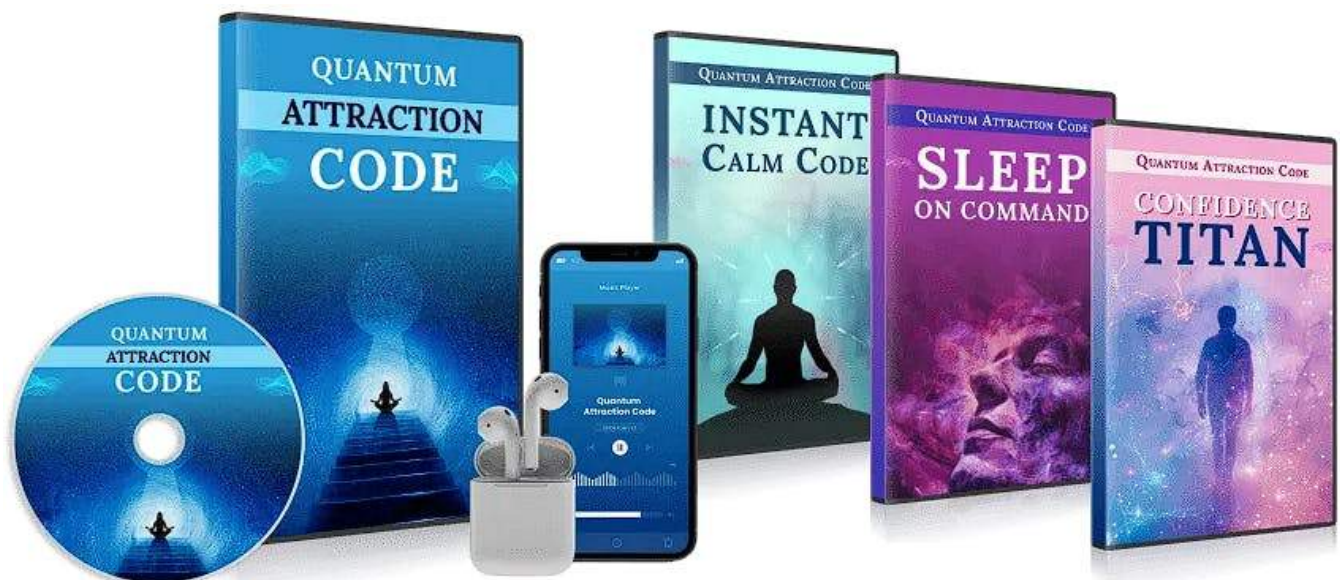

Brenda told Roger that her great-grandfather Albert Einstein had discovered a document called The Quantum Manuscript after a meeting with the United States Military in 1905.

The US military found the Quantum Manuscript in India during a "secret military campaign" in 1904. Unsure about its meaning, they brought it to Albert Einstein.

Albert Einstein studied the manuscript, and found it related to 'quantum entanglements.' This included using quantum entanglement for manifesting opportunity and abundance.

Quantum Attraction Code today uses these same quantum entanglements, theories, and quantum science to transform wealth and health in the 21st Century. Brenda and Roger claim that you can transform your life by listening to audio files every day.

QUANTUMA ATTRACTION CODE : OFFICIAL WEBSITE

Quantum Entanglement lets you "see" wealth around you

Brenda explained to Roger the theory of quantum-entanglement that was described in The Quantum Manuscript by her great grandfather, Albert Einstein.

Roger and his team explain the theory in greater detail. Here's the idea behind the theory.

Dinosaurs were used to navigate on the Earth using the natural magnetic field of the planet.

The Earth's magnetic fields continue to be used by modern dinosaurs (i.e. birds) for navigation. Birds "see" Earth's magnetic field using quantum entanglement. This helps them navigate north and south without a compass in the winter. Butterflies, among other animals, use the same phenomenon.

Ancient Spiritual Leaders believed that humans could use "Third Eye" or Pineal Gland to see the world in a similar way. The theory was that quantum entanglement could be used to "see" hidden power around you.

Spiritual leaders discovered certain sounds activated the pineal gland and helped one see beyond the material world, similar to how birds can see the earth's magnetic fields.

These spiritual leaders laid out their beliefs in a text called the Quantum Manuscript that ultimately fell into the hands of Einstein's family. Roger Poulson, after meeting Albert Einstein's granddaughter, condensed the lessons into audio files. The Quantum Attraction Code.

When you purchase Quantum Attraction Code today, you will have immediate access to audio files that target your pineal or third eye. This allows you to "see" the universe in a unique and profound way - like birds.

Sound Changes Your Relationship with the Universe

Quantum Attraction Code was developed on the idea of listening to certain sounds to change your connection with the universe.

What is the impact of sound on your relationship with the universe? Listening to certain audio files can change your ability manifest fortune.

Roger Poulson discovered a connection between sound and the universe based on a discussion he had with Brenda, Albert Einstein's great-granddaughter.

Ancient spiritual leaders used chants, and mantras to heal themselves naturally. These mantras are therapeutic but no one knows why.

Researchers discovered that certain chants or mantras produced vibrations which affected the body. Different sounds produce different vibrations. These physical vibrations affect every cell of your body.

Listening to certain sounds like those in Quantum Attraction Code can help you apply physical vibratory vibrations to either your pineal gland, or to your third eye.

Targeting the pineal can change your future, health and happiness.

Roger called this connection "quantum attraction", theorizing that certain sounds with specific frequencies can create vibrations which affect your pineal gland.

What to expect after listening to Quantum Attraction Code Roger's Experience

Roger was the very first person who listened to the soundwaves of Quantum Attraction Code. He became rich very quickly after hearing the audio files.

Roger's experience after listening to the Quantum Attraction Code Audio Files:

Brenda, Albert Einstein's great-granddaughter told Roger that he should listen every day to a digital audio file of 10 minutes in order to change his relationship with the universe. Roger began listening to audio files daily.

Roger experienced a series of bad luck during the first three days he listened to the audio files. An Uber driver who was drunk puked on his backseat. He was t-boned in an intersection. He was sued for a hit and run he never committed. Roger began to doubt all Brenda told him, including that she was Albert Einstein's great-granddaughter.

Brenda read Roger's comments and changed the audio file. She split the track so that one frequency played in one ear, and the other in the opposite ear. Roger began to listen to the audio file each day, and his fortunes soon changed.

Roger , a day after listening the new audio, received a check for $4,638.92 from the IRS. This was a tax refund that came as a complete surprise. A $100 bill was also on the sidewalk. Roger then received notification of a revers settlement for $73,500 from the hit and run lawsuit. Roger earned almost $80,000 in just a few days after listening to Quantum Attraction Code.

Roger asked his mother (aged 81) to listen to an audio file. Roger's mother seems to have cured herself of her illness, and her financial troubles by listening to Quantum Attraction Code. Roger claims that his mother no longer requires "her expensive medications" and "now lives in an apartment overlooking Central Park."

Roger, after observing how the Quantum Attraction Code changed his life and that of his mother's, decided to share this code with the rest of the world. Roger bundled all the audio files into the Quantum Attraction Code. Anyone can now buy the audio files for instant access online and enjoy similar benefits to Roger and his family.
