What is it?

Silence Guardian is a formula that has been well researched and combines antioxidants, vitamins, minerals and herbs to promote healthy hearing and cognitive functions.

This supplement contains 18 essential ingredients, which work together to improve hearing and memory. It is based on decades of neurocognitive research and is enhanced with millennia-old herbal wisdom.

Silence Guardian addresses the complex relationship between brain and ear health, and provides the nutrients needed to support this essential activity, which promotes mental clarity and calmness.

Silence Guardian is a special dietary supplement that helps to maintain good hearing and improves concentration and attention without causing lightheadedness.

This formula contains all the nutrients necessary for brain and hearing health, which improves overall cognitive function.

Silence Guard Ingredient

Vitamin B6

It is important to maintain ear health by controlling the amount of homocysteine. This amino acid can cause inner ear damage. Homocysteine can increase vertigo and cause tinnitus. Hearing loss is also possible.

Vitamin B6 lowers homocysteine and helps maintain ear health by preventing damage to inner ears. The nervous system and the brain must also function correctly. It works by producing neurotransmitters. These are substances that let nerve cells communicate.

Magnesium

Magnesium protects the inner ear against noise-induced damage. Magnesium does this by lowering free radicals - dangerous chemicals which can damage cells. Ashwagandha Extract This ingredient is anti-inflammatory, and has antioxidant properties. It may help protect the fragile structures of the ear from damage caused by inflammation and oxidative stresses.

These elements also increase blood flow in the ear which can improve hearing.

Ashwagandha Root Extract

Ashwagandha root extract This ingredient has shown anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties, which could help protect the fragile structures of the ear from damage caused by inflammation and oxidative stresses.

These elements also increase blood flow in the ear which can improve hearing.
