ST VISTA at AXAMER LIZUM

📍 Europe, Austria/Innsbruck

- Venue for the Olympic Winter Games in 1964 and 1976
- 10 cable cars and lifts
- Around 40 km of optimally groomed slopes

Thanks to its high-altitude location, Axamer Lizum is one of Austria's winter sports areas with the most reliable snow conditions. In summer, Axamer Lizum is a hiking paradise for outdoor enthusiasts, nature lovers, and summiters.

ST VISTA

Since summer 2018, the ST Vista is crowning the sunny Hoagl plateau at 2,340 m. Guests of the Axamer Lizum can enjoy the sight of the spectacular Kalkkögel massif, a protected alpine area where nature is more pristine than almost anywhere else, in a more intense way now.

„The SWAROVSKI OPTIK outdoor spotting scope is an absolute upgrade for the sunny Hoagl plateau. It gives all our guests a wonderful opportunity to experience the exceptional panorama of the Kalkkögel up close. Discover the countless marmots in the Dolomites of the North, the pristine Senderstal valley, almost the entire Inn valley, and – as a special highlight – Germany's highest peak, the Zugspitze!“

📍 Europe, Austria/Wattens

- Part of the Swarovski Group
- One of Austria's most popular attractions
- 14 million visitors since its opening in 1995

ST VISTA

Since spring 2018, two ST Vista spotting scopes are crowning the observation deck in the Giant's alpine garden. For free, visitors may enjoy the view of the entire premises and beyond.

"Our guests coming from 60 nations, are not only mesmerized by the Chamber of Wonder of the Swarovski Kristallwelten, but are also fascinated by the Tyrolean mountain scenery. By looking through the ST Vista on the observation deck in the Giant's garden, our visitors can immerse themselves into this natural spectacle and experience unique vistas thanks to the highest quality by SWAROVSKI OPTIK."

ST VISTA at DIAVOLEZZA

📍 Europe, Switzerland/Graubünden

- Corvatsch, Diavolezza, and Lagalb: cable cars open 365 days a year - seven months for skiing and five months for summer activities
- 19 cable car and lift facilities as well as 14 mountain restaurants
- In winter, Diavolezza is known as a Mecca for ski touring fans and paradise for freeriders
- In summer, alpinists and international guests alike are attracted by the impressive mountain scenery of the Bernina massif

ST VISTA

Since fall 2018, the ST Vista is crowning the viewing platform near the Berghaus Diavolezza restaurant at 3,000 m above sea level. Looking through the spotting scope is free of charge and allows all Diavolezza guests to linger longer and immerse themselves in the breathtaking mountain panorama!

Seen through the scope, the glaciers, Piz Palü, and Piz Bernina look even more magnificent and beautiful. Additionally, in the restaurant section of the Berghaus Diavolezza mountain inn, all guests may experience the unique view from the terrace with even more intensity thanks to the rentable CL Pocket binoculars.

„Our guests are very interested in the spotting scope and impressed by SWAROVSKI OPTIK’s outstanding optics. In summer, the ST Vista will inspire even more people, especially mountaineers.“

ST VISTA at 'T IJ - SCHEELHOEK NATURE RESERVE

📍 Europe, the Netherlands/Scheelhoek

- 'T IJ is an egg-shaped bird hide situated in Scheelhoek, a nature reserve close to the Haringvliet sluices near Stellendam in the Netherlands.
- 'T IJ is the biggest and most striking of a series of objects designed to celebrate the opening of the Haringvliet sluices in November 2018.
- 'T IJ observatory is part of a large scale landscaping plan where people can experience the Scheelhoek nature reserve by taking a walk from the parking area to the hide.

ST VISTA

Since opening its doors in April 2019, this extraordinary vantage point invites people to immerse themselves into the beauty of nature by looking through the ST Vista. Watching diverse birds of the Haringvliet sluices has become an unforgettable, breath-taking experience. With the ST Vista, you dive deeply into the unique landscape of the sluices.

"Experiencing nature in 'T IJ is great, but what makes it even better is the sublime SWAROVSKI OPTIK spotting scope ST Vista. The images of the Sandwich Terns (Thalasseus sandvicensis), the Spoonbills (Platalea) and many other birds appear up close before your very eyes. You feel as though you were right among them. A wonderful experience for all visitors!"
