Legal disclaimer

All applications are subject to underwriting, and we may apply personal exclusions, conditions and/or premium loadings to any offer of terms we make. If there is any conflict between the relevant policy document, an individual policy schedule and this document, the policy schedule and then policy document will take precedence over this guide. For full details of our products, please refer to the relevant nib policy document(s) which can be found at www.nibadviser.co.nz

The information contained in this document is subject to change and was first developed in February 2025. While we make every effort to ensure the information in this document is correct, we may change our underwriting practices over time or exercise discretion when applying this guide.

Duty of disclosure: key points for your clients

It's important your clients understand their responsibilities when applying for insurance. Here are the key points to communicate:

- be truthful, correct, and complete with all information
- if in doubt, disclose it – it could be crucial for cover
- keep us informed of changes before underwriting is completed, especially new information about the insured person's health and lifestyle that comes up before the start date of the insurance
- provide any additional information we request.

If a client doesn't provide true, correct, and complete information when applying, changing their policy, or making a claim, then, depending on the facts of the situation we may do one or more of the following:

- cancel their policy immediately
- change their terms and conditions (backdated to start date)
- adjust their cover/premium based on correct information
- decline claims
- recover any claim payments already made
- keep premiums that have been paid.

Underwriting philosophy

At nib, we aim to provide fair, timely and competitive assessments. We make underwriting decisions to ensure financial sustainability, allowing us to pay claims promptly when needed.

We handle underwriting with sensitivity and confidentiality, considering the unique evidence and circumstances of each applicant. Throughout the assessment process, we'll keep you informed and explain our decisions, offering alternatives whenever possible.

Applying for Ultimate Health and Ultimate Life & Living Insurance through nibAPPLY

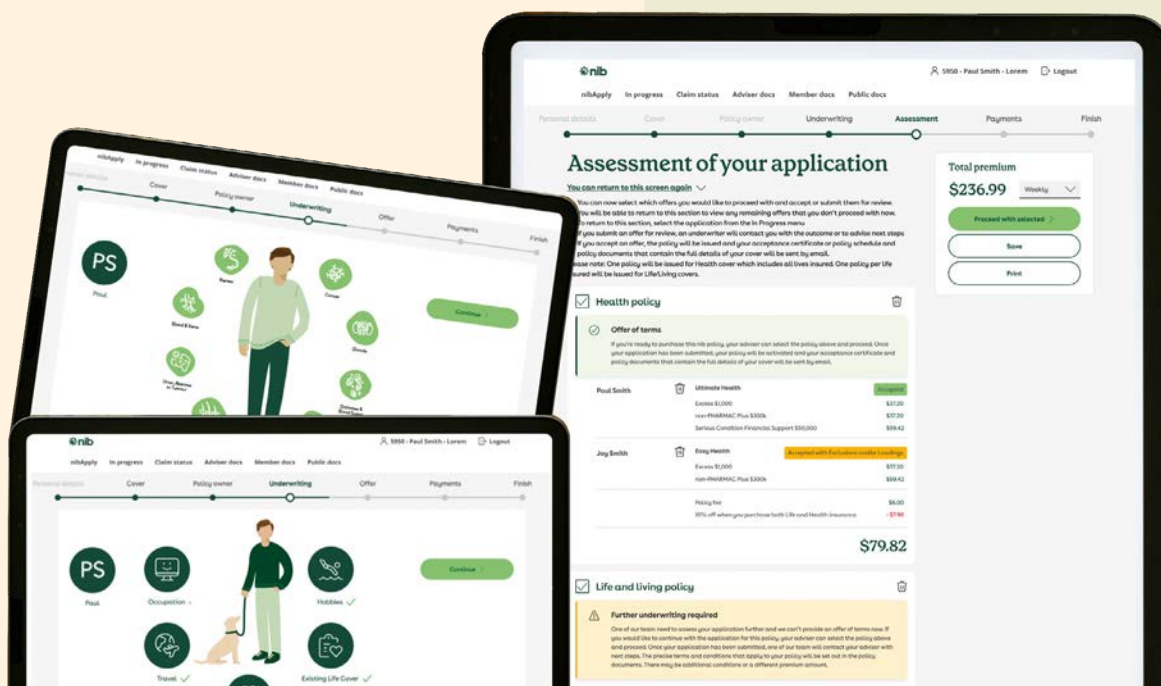

You can now apply for the full suite of nib Ultimate Insurance products using nibAPPLY by completing one application.

If both health and life covers require further underwriting, where possible a single underwriter will assess both. If health and life offers are made, you can decide to proceed with them either separately or together.

If health and life are applied for together and the first cover is accepted (with or without terms) and the other cover requires further underwriting, and you submitted them together, the first insurance will become active while the other cover continues to be underwritten.

If any new or corrected information is disclosed during the further insurance underwriting for the second cover that would have impacted the first one, we will contact you with an updated offer. This will only happen if there was a failure to disclose relevant information or if there was a misstatement. We will not re-underwrite an active policy if the information was not required or was already disclosed.

If covers are submitted separately, they will be underwritten and issued independently. Please ensure your client is aware they will need to fully disclose their health and lifestyle information in their separate application, even if they had applied for another insurance policy recently.

Residency

To apply for cover, the applicant must be living in New Zealand and have:

- a New Zealand or Australian Citizenship, or Passport
- a New Zealand or Australian Permanent Residency Visa
- a New Zealand Resident Visa (with no travel conditions).

If the applicant holds a Resident Visa and has not completed the requirements to gain Permanent Residency (PR), only Life, Trauma and TPD covers (plus associated Waiver of Premium) can be considered and a travel exclusion will be applied.

Holders of “other” visas (e.g. work visa, student visa) are not eligible for cover.

Applications from New Zealand/Australian citizens or Permanent Residents with the intention to live outside of New Zealand can be assessed on a case-by-case basis subject to the written intention to return to New Zealand.

Anyone who intends to leave New Zealand permanently cannot be offered any cover.

Gender and premium rates

We rate applications based on gender assigned at birth. If we identify an incorrect gender selected during the application process or at any other time during the life of the policy, we'll re-rate the application and send an updated offer reflecting correct premium rates.

Occupation class

Occupation classes referred to in the Product eligibility table on pages 6-10 are based on the following.

- Class 1 = Professional worker
- Class 2 = Sedentary worker
- Class 3 = Manual work, such as trades
- Class 4 = Heavy Manual work
- Class 5 = Occupations class 1-4 who work less than 25 hours per week and applicants who are not in paid employment (e.g. home makers, students).

Please note, occupation Class 5's referred to in the occupation list (other than not in paid employment) are not eligible to apply for Income Protection, Mortgage Protection, Total & Permanent Disability or Waiver of Premium.

Smoker status and premium rates

Your client is considered a smoker if they've used any of these in the past 12 months:

- cigarettes
- tobacco in any form
- vapes (including non-nicotine vapes).

Good news for clients who quit after 12 continuous smoke-free months – they can complete a non-smoking declaration or give us a call. If approved, we'll update their premium rates.

Temporary cover

Temporary Cover starts from the time you've submitted an Ultimate Life & Living Insurance application through nibAPPLY. Cover is valid for up to 60 days, provided that we've received a valid payment instruction (such as a completed direct debit authority form) at the time you submitted the application through nibAPPLY.

It's important to understand that the Temporary Cover has its own limitations and exclusions. There are maximum amounts that will apply, even if your client has selected a higher level of cover.

For full details of temporary cover, including what is and is not covered and when the cover will end, please refer to www.nibadviser.co.nz

Medical underwriting

Underwriting pre-assessment

We offer pre-assessments for medical, occupational, financial, or hazardous risks before you submit an application. These pre-assessments are not offers of coverage or final decisions; they are an indication of possible terms.

Please talk to or email our underwriters for more details.

Underwriting requirements: a quick guide

Here's what you need to know to help prepare your clients for any additional information we may request during the application process.

Medical underwriting limits and key terms

The amount of medical evidence we need is based on:

- the total amount insured with nib
- the type of coverage requested
- the client's age.

A few important points to note:

- for cover amounts over $1 million, Ultimate Trauma Insurance requires additional testing
- when calculating medical limits for Ultimate Trauma Insurance and Ultimate Total & Permanent Disability Insurance, we look at both standalone and accelerated benefits combined
- Ultimate Waiver of Premium cover isn't included in medical limit calculations
- when calculating limits for Ultimate Income Protection and Mortgage Protection where both are applied for, the combined amount insured is taken into consideration.

Understanding our assessment codes

When reviewing the tables below, you'll see different codes indicating what medical evidence we need:

A: Paramedical or GP Medical, plus basic blood tests (HbA1c, LFTS, Lipids)

B: GP Medical plus basic blood tests

C: GP Medical plus comprehensive blood tests (HbA1c, LFTS, Lipids, FBC, Creatinine, Hep B)

C+: Same as C, plus Personal Medical Attendant's Report (PMAR)

D: GP Medical, comprehensive blood tests, PMAR, plus either Exercise ECG or Calcium Score

D+: All of D, plus:

- For males: PSA test
- For females: Breast exam or current mammogram (within last 6 months)

E: All of D, plus HIV test and Cotinine Urine Test (COTS)

Paramedical exams and/or blood tests are requested through MedScreen, who provide fast and efficient service. They will contact your client to arrange a suitable time and location for completion of the service.

Conditions where a PMAR may be required, include:

- diabetes, respiratory disease, cancer, bowel disease,
- other chronic medical conditions that require regular medication.

It would be helpful if the consent in nibAPPLY can be completed to ensure an efficient process. If not, we'll be in contact to have this done.

How long medical evidence stays valid

Medical information obtained for previous applications can be used for the assessment of an increase to cover.

The following information will help you plan applications efficiently:

- Application/Personal Statement:
 - Valid for 90 days
 - After this, needs a Declaration of Unchanged Risk
 - After 6 months, requires a new application

- Medical Examination:
 - Valid for up to 12 months
 - May need updating sooner if results were abnormal
- Blood Tests:
 - Valid for up to 12 months
 - Need updating if any results were abnormal
- PMAR:
 - Valid for 12 months
 - Unless new/recurring conditions require updated information
- Exercise ECG:
 - Valid for 12 months
 - Needs updating if results were abnormal
- Medical Codes:
 - When moving between codes within 12 months, we'll only request the additional tests needed for the higher code.

Financial underwriting

Lump Sum – income multiples

The following multiples of annual earned income are a guide to maximum sums insured. Your client can set the maximum amount insured that meets their needs, subject to the maximum amounts we'll cover:

Age	Life	Trauma	TPD
<36 years	25 to 30	15	15
36-40	20 to 25	12	12
41-50	15 to 20	9	9
51-60	10 to 15	7	7
61-65	5 to 10	5	n/a
>65	3 to 5	3	n/a

Income Benefits – replacement ratios

The maximum replacement ratios for Ultimate Income Protection – Indemnity contracts (maximum monthly amount insured $30K):

- 75% of the first $320,000 p.a.
- 50% of the next $240,000 p.a. ($320,001 – $560,000 p.a.)
- 20% of any excess income ($560,001+ p.a.).

The maximum replacement ratios for Ultimate Income Protection Insurance – Agreed Value contracts (maximum monthly amount insured $30K):

- 62.5% of the first $70,000 p.a.
- 60% of the next $30,000 p.a. ($70,001 – $100,000 p.a.)
- 55% of the next $220,000 p.a. ($100,001 – $320,000 p.a.)
- 35% of the next $240,000 p.a. ($320,001 – $560,000 p.a.)
- 20% of any excess income ($560,001+ p.a.).

Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance – Agreed Value (maximum monthly amount insured $7,500)

Cover can be based on either of the following:

- 115% of contractual mortgage repayments; or
- 45% of gross income.

All Agreed Value and Mortgage Protection covers will require confirmation of income and/or loan documentation to be provided. The underwriter will be in contact requesting this information following receipt of application.

Income Protection and Mortgage Protection combination

Applicants requesting both Income Protection and Mortgage Protection are able to insure up to the Income Protection – Agreed Value replacement ratio, split across the cover types.

Example:

- Income of $150,000 = maximum of $7,438 amount insured (broken down as follows)
- $70,000 @ 62.5% = $43,750 ($3,646)
- $30,000 @ 60% = $18,000 ($1,500)
- $50,000 @ 55% = $27,500 ($2,292).
- You can insure $5,625 (being 45% of income) on Mortgage Protection and the remaining $1,813 on Income Protection Agreed value cover.

For Income Protection – Indemnity and Mortgage Protection combinations, the calculation is more complicated.

Please refer to calculator provided on www.nibadviser.co.nz to work through the combinations.

Understanding insurable income

Employees

We calculate insurable income based on:

- pre-tax salary and wages
- fees and fringe benefits
- regular commissions and bonuses*
- other allowances or benefits that are part of the remuneration package.
- superannuation (in most cases).

*Regular means consistent payments at a similar level over three years. We'll need to see this three-year history to include bonuses and commissions.

Important things to note:

- overtime isn't usually counted as regular income
- we only include commission that won't continue if your client makes a claim
- if your client has selected the Retirement Contribution Benefit Option, we won't include superannuation.

Self-employed clients

Insurable income includes:

- their share of net profit before tax
- any salary
- director's fees
- income from all related entities.

Handling special income situations

Fluctuating income

For self-employed clients with varying year-to-year income:

- this can affect their monthly benefit amount
- please explain any significant differences between years to your underwriter
- sharp increases or decreases may impact the amount of cover we can offer.

Depreciation

We can include depreciation in the insured income calculation. The maximum we include is the lesser of the depreciation amount or 10% of total insurable income, with an overall maximum of $10,000. There is an exception for “tools of trade” (like medical equipment or heavy vehicles).

Income splitting

We may include income splitting with a family member if:

- the family member isn't involved in generating the income
- the split income would stop if your client became disabled.

To assess this, we'll need:

- the family member's hours in the business
- their specific duties.

Pregnancy and coverage

We welcome applications from clients who are pregnant. Here's what you need to know:

Ultimate Life Insurance cover

- Available if there are no current or past pregnancy-related complications.

Other covers

For Ultimate Income Protection Insurance applications, we'll need to understand your client's plans to return to work:

- if they're planning to return to their usual role and hours, cover can typically be offered
- if they're unsure or not planning to return, we may need to wait until they're back at work.

For Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance and Ultimate Total & Permanent Disability Insurance:

- if your client is unsure about returning to work, we can offer cover with an "occupation class 5" definition for claims.

Insuring non-income earners

Here's what's available for clients not currently in paid employment:

- Ultimate Life Insurance and Ultimate Trauma Insurance:
 - Available up to $1 million
- Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance and Ultimate Total & Permanent Disability Insurance:
 - Available as occupation class 5
 - Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance Cover
 - Maximum monthly amount insured is $2,500
 - Minimum 13-week wait period
 - Maximum benefit payment period is 5 years.

For sums above the Life and Trauma limits, we'll need:

- financial questionnaire
- details of dependent children
- information about any lending
- previous income/occupation details
- future work intentions
- for Homemakers, details about the income-generating partner.

Applicants who work less than 25 hours, including Homemakers and Students are not eligible to apply for Ultimate Income Protection Insurance.

Understanding occupation classes and risk

Job types and assessment

We assess all cover types based on your client's job title. Some occupations carry higher risks and fall into occupation class 5. These roles:

- are not eligible for Ultimate Income Protection Insurance, Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance or Ultimate Total & Permanent Disability Insurance
- may be eligible for Ultimate Life Insurance and/or Ultimate Trauma Insurance with additional assessment and:
 - may require higher premiums to cover increased risk
 - may have applicable occupation exclusions (discuss options with your underwriter).

Examples of high-risk roles include:

- commercial divers
- offshore fishermen
- explosives technicians.

Clients with multiple jobs

For clients working more than one job:

- their occupation class follows their highest-risk role
- the monthly amount insured is based on their main occupation, including income from both jobs requires the following:
 - jobs should be in similar occupation classes
 - secondary job needs 12 months' consistent work history
 - combined weekly hours must stay under 60.

Working hours limit

For clients working over 60 hours per week:

- Ultimate Income Protection Insurance and Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance isn't available due to burnout risk
- underwriters may consider special terms in some cases.

Occupations with restricted benefit periods

Some occupations are offered a restricted benefit period because they involve higher risks or are associated with a shorter-term employment contract. A restricted benefit period of 2 or 5 years may be offered.

These include but are not limited to:

- apprentices of any occupation, including trades and medical industry (2-year benefit period)
- long haul truck drivers
- heavy transport operators
- occupations working at heights over 10 metres.

Please refer to our occupation list for more information on other occupations that have restricted benefit periods.

Review of loadings and exclusions

Understanding Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance limits

- Maximum monthly amount insured: $7,500
- Cover is for residential mortgages on owner-occupied homes or holiday homes
- We'll need evidence of:
 - current mortgage repayments; and/or
 - income details to assess the application.

Special situations for clients working less than 25 hours per week in an eligible occupation, including:

- non-income earners
- homemakers
- students
- not in paid employment.

These applications:

- are assessed as occupation class 5
- have a maximum monthly amount insured of $2,500
- require minimum 13-week wait period
- have maximum 5-year benefit payment period
- need proof of mortgage repayments.

Please note: cover is specifically for mortgages on your client's primary residence or holiday home for personal use. Investment properties aren't eligible.

Retirement Contribution Benefit Option

This benefit is an optional benefit for Ultimate Income Protection Insurance and Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance. Your client can choose 3%, 4%, 6%, 8%, or 10% to contribute into their KiwiSaver fund. When we pay this benefit, we calculate the monthly retirement contribution as the selected contribution rate multiplied by the monthly amount insured. Cover can only be increased when there is an increase to the Ultimate Income Protection Insurance and Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance monthly amount insured.

We will need your client's Inland Revenue Department (IRD) Number at time of claim so we can allocate payments to their KiwiSaver scheme.

Mental and Neural Health Restriction Cover

This is an option your client can select on Ultimate Income Protection Insurance and Ultimate Mortgage Protection Insurance, that reduces the benefit payment period for any Mental and Neural Health conditions to a maximum of 2 years. If selected, a discount will apply to their premium.

If special terms apply due to any mental health history, the Mental & Neural Health Restriction option will no longer be available. You will receive an offer of cover without the discount and restricted benefit payment period. Your client will have to apply to remove this option if decide they no longer want it after the cover has started.

Cover conversions or alterations

We offer conversions that do not require underwriting when the amount insured and cover options (for example, benefit period, wait period, cover types) have the same or lower risk for the conversion.

Please refer to policy wording for specific terms and conditions regarding eligibility. Your client doesn't need to have their change underwritten if one of the following apply:

Children's coverage

This is not an underwritten cover, it's a benefit included with the following policies.

Lump sum covers

Product type*	Type of benefit	Minimum entry age	Expiry age [#]	Maximum amount insured (age)
Ultimate Life Insurance	Parent's Grieving Benefit [^]	24 weeks of gestation	21	<10 years: $2,000 [^] 10 years+: $15,000
Ultimate Trauma Insurance	Children's Trauma Benefit	3 months	21	$50,000
Ultimate Trauma Insurance	Newborn Children's Benefit	At birth	–	$50,000

* The coverage for these children's benefits is linked to their parent's or guardian's product type where they are the insured person on the policy.

[#] Although the expiry age is the date the child turns 21, the child can have their own life, trauma, and other covers when they turn 16 years and over, subject to normal underwriting.

[^] This benefit is only payable if the policyowner is the parent or legal guardian of the child to comply with the Life Insurance Act.

Once a child has turned 21, we allow them to convert the Children's Trauma Benefit, without having to answer any additional questions on the child's health, to either:

- a standalone Ultimate Trauma Insurance; or
- an accelerated Ultimate Trauma Insurance with an equal amount of Ultimate Life Insurance to support this accelerated Ultimate Trauma Insurance benefit.

How much are they covered for?

We'll convert $50,000, once only, for each person insured's child.

When will cover commence?

We need to receive the application for conversion within 60 days of the policy anniversary date after the child's 21st birthday.

What else do I need to know?

A conversion can't happen if a claim was paid or was eligible to claim under the Children's Trauma Benefit or Newborn Children's Benefit.

An applicable premium will be payable on the converted cover.

Reinstating a lapsed policy

Time since lapse	What's needed
