

ALWAYS EVENTS: LINE TRACING and GUARDRAILS POST TEST

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

1. Line tracing includes:

- a. Using your hand, physically trace the line from the solution through the pump, ensuring correct cartridge placement, on down to the patient.
- b. Using your eyes, tracing the line from the solution through the pump, on down to the patient.
- c. Reviewing the medication against the Alaris pump settings.
- d. Drawing colored lines on each infusion from the solution to the patient.

2. When verifying fluids, medications and blood products against an order, it's important to review:

- a. Name of infusion/medication
- b. Concentration
- c. Dose/rate
- d. All of the Above

3. Which is NOT correct when verifying correct pump settings:

- a. Ensuring correct Alaris profile
- b. Ensuring .09% NS is infusion as a "Basic Infusion"
- c. Ensuring correct dose/rate and concentration
- d. Ensuring patient weight is accurate for weight-based medications