BOARDROOM

ALAN PACE

Welcome everybody to today's game against Huddersfield Town Women.

What a start to the season it's been, we arrive at today's game having won our three opening fixtures. It's an incredible start and it's fantastic to see the hard work Jonathan, the players and the staff put into pre-season, come into fruition through such positive results.

It's a quick turnaround between games, following our visit to AFC Fylde Women on Wednesday. It's always a tricky game so to come away with the three points was fantastic. Congratulations to Evie Priestley for her hat trick, we all look forward to seeing her net many goals this season!

While it's been a great beginning to the campaign, we are aware there's a long season ahead, however it's pleasing to get off to such a good start.

We had a brilliant crowd at our first home game of the campaign last weekend. It's wonderful to have your support and it means a lot to our players and staff to see you there cheering them on. We welcome all fans to the County Ground and would encourage supporters to come on down and support the team.

We were pleased to reveal our away kit this week, with our men's, women's and academy teams sharing the same front of shirt sponsor EMA. The kit went on sale online and in the Clarets Store on Friday and our women's team were involved in the launch photos.

We welcomed further new faces to the team recently, with Amaya Coleman-Evans becoming the eleventh summer signing, having made a switch across East Lancashire. Amaya joins from Blackburn Rovers Ladies and featured in our game against Stoke City Women.

Like the men's and academy teams, it's great to welcome new faces for this exciting new era at Burnley FC.

Back to this afternoon, thank you to all those who join us at the County Ground. I hope you enjoy the game.

Up the Clarets!

HEAD COACH

JONATHAN MORGAN

I'd like to welcome everyone back to the County Ground today after what has been a great few opening weeks of the season for us.

We've had the last-minute winner at Derby, a solid win against Stoke here last time out in front of what I'm told was a record crowd. That's incredible news, and I hope we can keep building on it throughout the season.

Earlier this week, we also got a good 4-2 win away at Fylde to earn us some Northwest bragging rights. It's a tough place to go, but the girls came through it and got the three points with a terrific performance.

As good as it has been though, this is only the beginning for this team, and we have to take each game as it comes.

“ THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING FOR THIS TEAM, AND WE HAVE TO TAKE EACH GAME AS IT COMES.

Each of the three so far have posed a different test, and that'll continue to be the case throughout the season.

We know how tough Huddersfield are going to be today, but we've prepared right, and the girls are focused on the task at hand.

Thankyou as always for your amazing support. I can't tell you enough how much it means to me, the staff, and the players.

Together, we can keep this good run going!

Up The Clarets!

Jonathan

CAPTAIN

LAUREN BRACEWELL

Hello and welcome back to the County Ground in Leyland. It was incredible for us to see so many of you supporting us last time we were here against Stoke, now confirmed as a record crowd for a home game.

On behalf of the team, thank you so much, it really did drive us on. The most special thing for me and the rest of the girls is seeing so many youngsters at our games. Inspiring the next generation is what it's all about, and we want to play a part in that, no matter how big or small.

Since then, we've made it three wins on the bounce with success against Fylde in midweek, and we're going to take confidence from that.

We've had another busy week with that game on Wednesday, but the girls have trained well and are ready to put in another professional performance today.

We know how tough a team Huddersfield are going to be to come up against from last season, and we're focused on getting our job done again today.

“ WE'VE MADE IT THREE WINS ON THE BOUNCE WITH SUCCESS AGAINST FYLDE IN MIDWEEK, AND WE'RE GOING TO TAKE CONFIDENCE FROM THAT.

As always, it gives me enormous pride to be able to head up this team and lead them out. They're a special group.

UTC!

CLARET WOMEN MAKE IT TWO FROM TWO WITH WIN OVER POTTERS IN FRONT OF RECORD CROWD

Burnley FC Women made it two wins in two with a 1-0 success over Stoke City Women at the County Ground in Leyland.

Millie Ravening's penalty in time added on at the end of the first half was enough to seal all three points against the Potters in front of 291 people, a record crowd for a Claret Women home game.

Jonathan Morgan made one change to his side from the opening day win away at Derby County Women, with Ella Kinzett coming into the side for her full debut and Olivia Greenalgh dropping out of the squad.

Emma Taylor and Amaya Coleman-Evans were both named in the squad for Burnley's first home game of the campaign, as substitutes, alongside Courtney Willis.

The Claret Women started the brighter and after Leah Embley appeared to have been brought down but referee Cristiana Hattersley waved away the appeal, Evie Priestley saw a shot smothered by Stoke goalkeeper Liz Craven.

Embley then saw a shot of her own kept out by Craven, while the shot stopper also held onto a strike from Ellie May.

After a scrappy period in the game with stoppages for either side, Burnley captain Lauren Bracewell held onto a header from Callan Barber.

Abby Hunt was also close to handing Stoke a lead, inches away from connecting with a low cross, with May then trying her luck on the half volley from range and seeing her effort go inches over the bar with Craven well beaten.

It had appeared as though it would remain goalless come the break, but with the clock ticking over into added time, Priestley was dragged down inside the area having beaten her marker.

The defender avoided any form of caution, but Ravening stepped up to slot home from 12 yards and hand Morgan's side the lead at the interval.

A defensive slip at the back in the first 30 seconds of the restart meant Bracewell had to react quickly to keep out Hunt's attempted lob before Alanta Brown wet close for Burnley from range.

'Keeper Bracewell then leaped acrobatically to deny Beth Roberts' own strike from distance, with Lucy Walsh standing tall to block Kelsey Richardson's volley in the box.

Stoke were building pressure, and just after the hour-mark were awarded a dubious penalty of their own with Bracewell adjudged to have felled an attacker amidst a scramble for the ball.

Burnley's number one was booked in the process having taken a knock, but got herself back up and provided a big moment in the game with a save to keep out Barber's effort from 12 yards.

The Claret Women strengthened their attacking prowess from the bench, with substitutes Coleman-Evans – signed less than 24 hours prior – and Sarah Greenalgh – involved for the first time this season – combining well.

Greenalgh flashed a cross across the face of goal on 71 minutes, but nobody was there to connect with the ball. The pair again combined seven minutes later as Greenalgh was denied at the back post with Craven's feet, millimetres between the ball crossing the line.

And despite being unable to add to their advantage, Burnley stood strong at the back to keep their opponents out and seal a clean sheet to ensure a 1-0 margin was enough.

CLARET WOMEN SEAL NORTH WEST BRAGGING RIGHTS WITH MIDWEEK WIN ON FYLDE COAST

Striker Evie Priestley hit a hat-trick as Burnley FC Women made it three wins from three this season with a 4-2 midweek win under the lights away against AFC Fylde Women, earning bragging rights in the North West in the process.

Priestley scored the opener and added two more in the second half, with Millie Ravening also on target at Kellamergh Park against the Coasters as a clinical second half performance got the job done for Jonathan Morgan's side.

Morgan made two changes to his side from the 1-0 victory over Stoke City Women last time out as Emma Taylor, on a dual registration deal from Manchester United Women for the season, made her full debut.

Sarah Greenalgh also started for the first time this season with Olivia Wilson named on the bench.

After a tame start to the contest, defender Taylor had the first opportunity of the game, slicing over on 10 minutes as the ball fell to her following a scramble from a set-piece.

Ellie May also set Sarah Greenalgh away soon after with a fine pass using the outside of her boot, but the forward's chip was cleared off the line by defender Jenna Carroll with Fylde goalkeeper Megan Hunter well beaten.

20 minutes in, the opener eventually came via Priestley, latching onto a long ball from Lizzy Hamer and rounding Hunter to stroke home into the empty net.

Leah Embley then went close, rattling the outside of the post, though against the run of play Fylde equalised on 37 minutes through Amy Hughes who found the top corner.

Coasters 'keeper Hunter had to be replaced through injury before the half-time whistle, with it remaining 1-1 come the interval.

Electric at the restart, Burnley found the back of the net twice in the opening five minutes via Priestley & Ravening, but May was the first to try her luck from distance within 60 seconds of the second half.

Her shot from distance was held by substitute 'keeper Ellie Etheridge, but Priestley made it 2-1 on 47 minutes. She tapped home the rebound after Dom Cooper's lob was tipped onto the bar by Etheridge.

And it was 3-1 just three minutes later as Ravening hammered home a low-driven strike when the ball fell to her at the edge of the box from a corner.

It was almost four on 56 minutes as Hamer combined well with Sarah Greenalgh in the box and worked the ball to Embley, but she could only find the side netting.

Hosts Fylde then had the ball in the back of the net amidst a scramble from a corner, but with Bracewell felled by a push, the goal was disallowed, much to the dismay of the Coasters.

Controlling the game well, Burnley saw a penalty appeal waved away for what had appeared a clear handball with eight minutes remaining, and two minutes later, the deficit was halved via McCoy's header from a free-kick.

Embley hit the post for a second time from the edge of the box soon after, while substitute Amaya Coleman-Evans fired wide from distance on the half volley. But any nerves were calmed in the third minute of added time with Priestley completing her hat-trick.

The striker smashed home her third after a free-flowing move upfield, and the Claret

THE VISITORS HUDDERSFIELD TOWN WOMEN FC

A women's team representing Huddersfield Town was first formed in 1920 with Huddersfield Atalanta Ladies FC playing in front of crowds of up to 15,00 before being disbanded in 1925.

The modern Club was formed in June 1988 as Huddersfield Ladies FC who joined the North-East Regional League Division 2. Winning the league cup in their first season, the side also won the league and were promoted as champions.

At the end of the 1992/93 season, Huddersfield Ladies merged with Huddersfield Town juniors to become Huddersfield Town Ladies FC.

The following campaign then saw a treble-trophy haul of league, Yorkshire Cup, and League Cup, losing only one game all season. Town then retained their league title the season after that, winning all of their games and scoring 101 goals.

Eventually, they would be relegated twice in successive seasons, with long-term manager Mickey Booth stepping down as boss after 14 years in charge at the end of the 2012/13 season.

Glen Preston took charge, and won promotion to the FA Women's National League at the first time of asking.

And having changed their name to Huddersfield Town Women FC in the summer of 2019, COVID halted the Terriers' progression. Sat top of the table in 2020/21 when the season was curtailed, the Club didn't apply for promotion when given the option.

Last season saw Glen Preston return to the hot seat after a carousel of managerial changes since his departure, finishing 6th and winning their regional Challenge Cup, just as the Claret Women did.

FAVOURITE HOLIDAY DESTINATION...

It has to be New York, especially at Christmas!

FAVOURITE FOOD...

Pizzzzzaaa!

FAVOURITE SONG...

If I had to choose one, it would have to be Mambo No. 5 by Lou Bega.

FAVOURITE SHOP..

Probably Nike, I literally live in gym clothes.

FAVOURITE THING TO DO ON YOUR DAY OFF...

Either watch football or sleep, which is what you'll find me doing most of the time.

FAVOURITE PLAYER...

Kevin De Bruyne, the passes he sees on the pitch are just a different level.

FAVOURITE MOMENT IN FOOTBALL...

Signing for Burnley has to be my number one moment, and of course there's been loads of great moments since like when we won the LFA Challenge Cup last year, but I also have to mention going to Gibraltar with Everton when I was there. It was a pre-season trip, and it was amazing to be a part of.
