

PEOPLE OF N26

Claudio Bedino

General Manager
Italy and Southeast Europe

Claudio Bedino is the General Manager Italy and Southeast Europe at N26, responsible for growing the digital bank's presence and key offering in these markets.

As a manager with strong experience in the finance and technology industries, Claudio has brought his entrepreneurial spirit to some of the most innovative fintech scale-ups. He has a proven track record in growth and innovation, operating in regulated environments, and integrating product and marketing.

In addition to founding Starteed, one of the first crowdfunding platforms in Italy, Claudio also co-founded Oval Money, a savings and investment app designed to help Millennials increase their financial literacy.

For interviews and press enquiries, please contact:

press_italia@n26.com