

PEOPLE OF N26

Eva Glanzer

Chief People Officer (Interim)

Eva Glanzer joined the N26 team in 2021 as Interim Chief People Officer. In her role, Eva is responsible for The Mobile Bank's Recruiting, Employer Brand, People Operations, Employee Experience, Rewards and Leadership and Development functions.

Prior to joining N26, Eva was the Chief People Officer of GetYourGuide, where she grew the Berlin startup's People function from scratch, establishing an attractive employer brand and designing a performance-focused end-to-end employee journey as it expanded from 70 to 700 employees. Previously, she was also the Head of HR at DaWanda, where she helped scale the workforce threefold, while also designing and implementing culture-driven recruiting and performance management frameworks.

With extensive expertise in building world-class teams for major, fast-paced start-ups, Eva loves to see people thrive in great work environments and aims to support the development of diverse leaders with a culture-first approach based on clear principles and values.

She holds a degree in HRD and Performance Management (MSc) from the University of Leicester and a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology from the University of Vienna.
