

PEOPLE OF N26

Marcus W. Mosen

Member of the Management Board of N26

Marcus W. Mosen is a member of the Executive Board of N26. Previously, he served as Co-CEO of the company from September 2025 to March 2026 and as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of N26 from October 2022 to August 2025.

Marcus brings more than two decades of management and leadership experience in the payments and financial industry. He has overseen both strategic growth initiatives and operational transformations, most recently as CEO of the payment service provider Concardis. In addition, he has held leadership positions at Ingenico, Ogone, Easycash, First Data, and GZS. As a long-standing partner and one of N26's early investors, Marcus is also active in other fintechs. He serves as an advisor to various startups and provides consulting to venture capital firms.

For interviews and press enquiries, please contact:

press@n26.com