

PEOPLE OF N26

Anke Ulrich

General Counsel

Anke is with N26 since 2016. Today, she is one of the most tenured and long-serving members of N26's leadership team. She has played an instrumental role in the foundation of N26 Bank and building up N26's legal function, and took over the role of General Counsel of N26 Group in 2020.

With two decades of experience, Anke is deeply involved in many key aspects of N26's strategic business decisions and operations, directly reporting to Founder and CEO Valentin Stalf. She is responsible for the organization's legal team made up of specialists in Corporate, Funding & Regulatory Law, Banking Law & Litigation, Data Privacy, Commercial, IP&IT, & Beyond Banking. She also oversees legal operations in the French, Italian, and Spanish markets.

For close to 10 years prior to joining N26, Anke was Counsel at a leading German commercial law firm. In her position, she was responsible for the legal functions related to Banking, Finance and Capital Markets Law. Additionally, Anke headed legal operations in the South African market.

Anke holds a degree in Law from Berlin's Humboldt University, two German state examination as well as a Master of Laws in International Trade Law from South Africa's University of the Western Cape.

For interviews and press enquiries, please contact:

press@n26.com