

TERMS OF USE

These terms of use (“Terms”) are an agreement between you and Lyra Technologies Inc., which owns and operates the website at www.blockrenovation.com (the “Website”), and governs your right to access and use this Website and related services offered through the Website. As used herein, “Block” or “we” and its derivatives refer to Lyra Technologies, Inc. and our affiliates that may be involved in the delivery of the services. Please read these Terms carefully before using or accessing our services. By using or accessing this Website or accepting these Terms in conjunction with agreeing to receive related services, you signify your acknowledgment and assent to the provisions below. If you do not agree to these Terms, please do not use the Website or related services. Block can revise these Terms at any time by updating this posting, and your use of this Website after such change signifies your acceptance of the changed Terms, provided, however, that the Terms in effect when you agree to any Project Order (as defined below) will remain in effect with respect to such Project Order until completed. Please check these Terms periodically for changes.

You acknowledge that “arbitration of disputes” below requires you to submit to binding arbitration, and not a trial, for any dispute arising out of these Terms, and that you also waive your right to bring any action arising out of these Terms on behalf of, or as a member of, a class of plaintiffs.

Welcome to www.Blockrenovation.com. The Website is an online portal where individuals and businesses can schedule, book, and pay for materials and contracting services. The Website allows you to submit a request for contracting services (“Contracting Services”) and then generates a Project Order (the “Project Order”) containing the details of the proposed project (size / number of rooms, room types, extras, specifications, etc.) (the “Project”). When the Project Order is generated, you are also required to sign the terms and conditions of the Contracting Services that will be presented to third party contractors who have expressed a desire to obtain leads from Block (“Contractors”). If the Contractor accepts a request, the Service notifies you and provides a counter-signed version of those terms and conditions (the “Project Agreement”). All services provided by Block to you by means of your use of the Website are hereafter referred to as the “Service”.

Accounts and Registration.

To access some features of the Service, you must register for an account. When you register for an account, you may be required to provide us with some information about yourself, such as your email address. You agree that the information you provide to us is accurate and that you will keep it accurate and up-to-date at all times. When you register, you will be asked to provide a password. You are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account and password, and you accept responsibility for all activities that occur under your account. If you believe that your account is no longer secure, then you must immediately notify us at hello@blockrenovation.com.

Projects and Agreement With Contractor

A Contractor has sole and complete discretion to accept or reject each request for Contracting Services. If the Contractor accepts your Project Order request, the Service will generate a fully executed version of the Project Agreement for you - Block is not a party to the Project Agreement. If you indicate you wish to hire the Contractor for your Project, you are directly contracting with the Contractor (not Block) for the Contracting Services. The Contractor will then perform the Contracting Services and complete your Project in accordance with the terms negotiated by you and the Contractor, including those terms set forth in the Project Order and the Project Agreement.

IMPORTANT: You understand and agree that Block itself does not provide Contracting Services, and that Block is not a contractor, licensed home improvement contractor or employment service, nor is Block an agent of the Contractor. The Contractors made available through the Service are not employees, Contractors or agents of Block. It is up to the Contractor to offer and provide Contracting Services. Block only acts as an intermediary to facilitate the transaction between you and the Contractor. The provision of the Contracting Services by the Contractor to you is subject to the Project Agreement entered into between you and the Contractor (not Block). Block does not have control over the quality, timing, or any other aspect whatsoever of any renovation services and will not be liable for any claim, injury or damage arising in connection with the Contracting Services or the conduct or activities of Contractors. You agree and understand that you assume all risks when using the Service and the Contracting Services, including any risks associated with interactions with Contractors and receipt of Contracting Services.

Additionally, Block reserves the right to change the Contractor assigned to your Project if, prior to commencement of the Project, Block determines that Contractor cannot comply with the terms of its agreement with Contractor. Block will use reasonable efforts to substitute a Contractor of similar capabilities and at similar cost. Any changes to the Project Fee made as a result of a change to the Contractor are subject to your prior approval.

Approval and Limited Warranty

Block requires that all Contractors who participate in our network offer a one-year warranty against installation defects (the “Warranty Period”), and that all materials warranties are passed to you. If you experience any issues with the Project during the Warranty Period, reach out to the Contractor immediately. If at any time you are unhappy with the Contractor’s response, please contact hello@Blockrenovation.com and we will endeavor to work directly with the Contractor to arrive at a satisfactory result. Block may, but is not required to, arrange for alternative resolutions if we are unable to reach a resolution satisfactory to you and the Contractor.

Payment and Payment Disputes

Block facilitates payments for the Contracting Services. The quoted price for your Project will be included in the Project Order, which may change subsequent to the Project Order (but subject to agreement between you and Block) (the final, agreed-upon price is the “Project Fee”). At the time you hire the Contractor and authorize the Project, you will be charged the deposit set forth on the Project Order (“Deposit”) and first estimated installment of the Project Fee. You will be charged the second installment when the Project is complete, unless otherwise agreed to between you and Block. The Contractor will notify both you and Block in writing when the Project is complete. You must pay the second installment within 3 business days of receipt of notice of payment due. If Block does not receive a written complaint from you within three days of your receipt of such notice (the “Complaint Period”), then the Project will be marked as closed by Block, and the Project Fee will be transferred to the Contractor. If you have provided your credit card information to our Payment Processor (defined below) then we may charge your payment method automatically if you do not submit a written complaint during the Complaint Period. After the Complaint Period, if no written complaint is submitted, then no refund will be made of any part of the Project Fee.

If you notify us in writing of a complaint about the Project or of a dispute with the Contractor within the Complaint Period, we will reasonably assist you in resolving the issue. Block will continue to hold the Project Fee (in a non-interest bearing account) without release pending (1) written notice of your withdrawal of your complaint, (2) joint written instructions from you and the Contractor to release the Project Fee; (3) resolution of the dispute pursuant to the Arbitration provisions of these Terms; or (4) receipt of an order from an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction or other release required by process of law.

You should not make any payments to the Contractor for the Project outside of the Service and Block will not be responsible for any such payments or refunds thereof. You agree that you will pay through the Service for all Contracting Services that you purchase or receive from the Contractor. Block may, on behalf of the Contractor collect payment via credit card, wire, ACH, or other means as set forth in a Project Order, including the Project Fee and any taxes and charges for supplies authorized by you. Please note that if you dispute any part of a Project Fee via chargeback, we have the right at our option to pursue you for payment, to seek reimbursement of any related costs incurred by us, to turn any past due account over to collections, and/or report delinquent payment to credit bureaus. We will collect and pay applicable sales tax on behalf of the Contractor on your Project. You are responsible for the timely payment of all fees and other taxes related to the Service and Contracting Services and for providing Block with valid payment information. As applicable, Block retains the right, in its sole discretion, to place a hold on your payment method to cover any payment for the total Project Fee. No change to any Project, or modification of the Project Fee, will be valid without a revised Project Order or other written documentation of the changes agreed to.

Block may use a third-party payment processor (the "Payment Processor"), such as Stripe, to process payments or credits, as applicable, in connection with your use of the Service. The processing of such payments will be subject to the terms, conditions and privacy policies of the Payment Processor and your credit card issuer in addition to these Terms. Block is not responsible for any errors by the Payment Processor or for any security breaches suffered by such entity. In connection with your use of the Service, Block will obtain certain transaction details, which Block will use solely in accordance with its Privacy Policy.

Hazardous Substances

The Project Order estimate does not include additional charges which may accrue to correct hazardous conditions, such as the existence of lead paint, asbestos, mold, mildew or other hazardous substances. A Contractor may immediately suspend work if such substances are encountered and Block will work with you and the Contractor to (a) adjust the Project Fees to reflect the additional work required to mitigate such issues, (b) refer you to a third party (e.g. mold remediation company) to resolve the issue before resuming the Project, or (c) terminate the Project Order, in which case Block may retain amounts allocated to the Project design ("Design") and any materials already ordered for the Project. If the Project is terminated based on (c), you will retain the Designs and materials.

Cancellation Policy

Once a Deposit is received and we start work on your Design, a Project may only be cancelled as set forth in this section and as noted in "Hazardous Substances" above. Unless otherwise set forth in a Project Order, the Deposit is allocated to the cost of Contracting Services for the Project and is not refundable. The portion of the first installment allocated to materials is not refundable, to the extent that any materials have been ordered. You may cancel the Project (and forfeit any installment payments and the Deposit made thus far, but retain any materials already ordered and the right to use the Design), at any time prior the scheduled start of construction. Cancellation after the start of construction will be subject to forfeiting the remainder of the Services fee. Block may at its discretion issue a pro-rata refund of the Project Fee held based on the percentage of labor completed and the penalty above.

A Contractor reserves the right to cancel your Project for cause, such as if your site is unsuitable, inaccessible or unsafe or hazardous materials are present, or due to force majeure or inappropriate activity by you or third parties. In such a case, you will be responsible for paying for work performed prior to termination plus the cost of any materials specifically ordered for your Project.

Release of Responsibility for Contractors or Contracting Services

Block operates a service to connect Contractors and individuals only, is not an agent or sales representative of either Contractors or such individuals, and does not have control over the quality, timing, legality, failure to provide, or any other aspect whatsoever of any Contracting Services provided in connection with any Project, nor of the integrity, responsibility or any of the actions or omissions whatsoever of any Contractors. You acknowledge and agree that Block will have no responsibility or liability relating to (i) compliance with EPA Lead laws and regulations, OSHA safety requirements and other laws, regulations and rules relating to the Contracting Services provided by Contractors, or (ii) compliance with state or local licensing regulations applicable to Contractors.

Block takes reasonable commercial efforts to screen Contractors using reasonable background checks, reference checks and interviews. We also take reasonable steps to verify that Contractors have obtained applicable state licenses and insurance/bonding. However, Block does not independently verify information from third party sources or verification services. You acknowledge that Block is not liable for misrepresentations or misleading or inaccurate information supplied by Contractors or third party sources or verification services, and you release Block from any liability in connection therewith.

Because Block is not involved in the actual Project Agreement between you and the Contractor nor in the completion of the Contracting Services, if you have a dispute with a Contractor, you release Block (and our officers, directors, agents, investors, subsidiaries, and employees) from any and all claims, demands, or damages (actual or consequential) of every kind and nature, known and unknown, suspected and unsuspected, disclosed and undisclosed, arising out of or in any way connected with such disputes (“Dispute Liabilities”), as further provided in the Liability Disclaimer and Release provision below.

Supplies/Product

Your purchase of fixtures and other Project supplies via the Service (“Supplies”) is subject to these Terms and any terms of sale presented at the time you authorize the purchase. Supplies are not returnable or refundable once purchased. Neither Block nor the Contractor makes any warranties with respect to Supplies, provided, however, that all Supplies are purchased on your behalf and any manufacturer warranties will apply to you. In the event an item is listed at an incorrect price due to a typographical error, or incorrect pricing information received from suppliers, Block may refuse or cancel any orders placed for the Supplies listed at the incorrect price whether or not the order has been confirmed or accepted.

Publicity

Block may take photos and recordings of the work done by Contractors and reproduce and display such photos and recordings online and in marketing materials for the Service and/or Contractors (including the right to permit our designees to do the foregoing). You agree to allow Block (or its designee) with reasonable access to the Project site for such purpose, and that you agree that Block may disclose, copy, reproduce, publicly display, publicly perform, transmit, distribute, translate, reformat, incorporate, and otherwise use such photos and recordings, in whole or in part, and create derivative works therefrom, in any media now known or hereafter developed, and for any purpose without compensation to you or anyone else.

The Website may contain links to other websites (“Linked Sites”). The Linked Sites are not under the control of Block and Block is not responsible for the contents or privacy policies of any Linked Site, including any link contained in a Linked Site, or any changes or updates to a Linked Site. Block is providing these links to you only as a convenience, and the inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by Block of the site or any association with its operators.

By using any product, service or functionality originating from the Website, you hereby acknowledge and consent that Block may share such information and data as is required to allow the third parties with whom Block has contractual relationships to provide the requested product, service or functionality, including sharing your personal information with Contractors in connection with soliciting Contractors to complete your Project, as set forth in our Privacy Policy.

Disclaimer of Representations or Warranties

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Website and Service are provided "as is." Block does not make any warranty of any kind, whether express or implied, including but not limited to any warranty of non-infringement, fitness for a particular purpose or merchantability. We do not warrant that the Service will be error-free or that defects will be corrected. Block will not be responsible for any damages or loss that may result from the hacking or infiltration of the Website or Block’s computer systems. The information, software, products, and services included in or available through the Website or Service may contain technical inaccuracies, outdated information and typographical errors.

Block makes no other representation, warranty, or guaranty as to the reliability, safety, timeliness, quality, suitability or availability of any services, products or supplies obtained by or from third parties, including Contracting Services. You acknowledge and agree that the entire risk arising out of your use of the Contracting Services or third party supplies remains solely with you, to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Liability Disclaimer and Release

To the maximum extent permitted by law, in no event shall Block and/or its suppliers be liable for any direct, indirect, punitive, incidental, special, consequential damages or other damages whatsoever including, without limitation, damages for loss of use, lost profits, personal injury or property damage arising out of or in any way connected with (1) the use or performance of the Website or Service, (2) the delay or inability to use the Website or Service, (3) the provision of or failure to provide the Service or Contracting Services, (4) any information, software, supplies or services obtained through the Website, (5) any relationship or transaction between you and any third party contractor, service provider or entity whose name or advertising appears on the Website or is referred by the Service, or (6) otherwise arising out of the use of the Service, supplies or Contracting Services, whether based on contract, tort, negligence, strict liability or otherwise, even if Block or any of its suppliers has been advised of the possibility of damages. If you are dissatisfied with any portion of the Service, or with any of these Terms, your sole and exclusive remedy is to discontinue using the Service.

You understand that the quality of the Contracting Services scheduled through the use of the Service is entirely the responsibility of the Contractor who ultimately provides such Contracting Services to you. Block will not be a party to disputes between you and any Contractor. Responsibility for the decisions you make regarding Contracting Services (with all its implications) rests solely with you, and you expressly waive and release Block from any and all liability, claims, causes of action, or damages arising from your use of the Website or Service, or in any way related to the third parties introduced to you by the Service, including without limitation any liabilities arising in connection with the conduct, act or omission of any Contractor (including without limitation theft, stalking, harassment that is sexual or otherwise, acts of physical violence, and destruction of personal property) or related to the Contracting Services.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, and if, notwithstanding the foregoing exclusions, it is determined that Block or its agents, employees, officers or directors or is liable for damages, in no event shall Block's total liability to you for all damages, losses, and causes of action (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) related to the Website, Service, supplies or Contracting Services exceed the greater of (1) $100 or (2) the amount earned by Block, if any, in connection with supplies or services obtained by you through the Service in the 6 months before the claim accrued.

Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Block, its officers, directors, employees, agents and suppliers, for any losses, costs, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) relating to or arising out of (i) your use of the Website or Service in a manner not authorized by these Terms, (ii) your violation of any of these Terms or your use or misuse of the Service or Contracting Services, (iii) your violation of any rights of a third party, including Contractors, (iv) your violation of any applicable laws, rules or regulations, (v) your interactions with Contractors or receipt of Contracting Services, including all claims against Contractors and Dispute Liabilities, and (vi) your Content. Block reserves the right, at its own cost, to assume the exclusive defense and control of any matter otherwise subject to indemnification by you, in which event you will fully cooperate with Block with respect to such defense, including without limitation in asserting any available defenses.

Termination

Block reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate these Terms, without notice; provided, that if Block terminates these Terms in the middle of a Project, Block will provide you with a refund for any Contracting Services not yet provided. These Terms shall continue to apply for as long as you use the Service, and any provisions contained herein which by their nature or effect are required or intended to be observed after termination will survive termination and remain binding, including the provisions regarding your indemnification obligations, our limitations of liability and the resolution of disputes through arbitration.

International Users

The Service is controlled, operated and administered by Block from our offices within the USA. If you access the Service from a location outside the USA, you are responsible for compliance with all local laws. You agree that you will not use the Block content accessed through the Website in any country or in any manner prohibited by any applicable laws, restrictions or regulations. Contracting Services are not available outside of the United States at this time.

Choice of Law

To the maximum extent permitted by law, these Terms, including their formation, will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

Arbitration of Disputes

Please read the following arbitration agreement in this Section ("Arbitration Agreement") carefully. It requires you to arbitrate disputes with Block and limits the manner in which you can seek relief from us.

Applicability of Arbitration Agreement. You agree that any dispute or claim relating in any way to your access or use of the Website and Service, to any products sold or distributed through the Website and Service, or to any aspect of your relationship with Block, will be resolved by binding arbitration, rather than in court, except that (1) you may assert claims in small claims court if your claims qualify, so long as the matter remains in such court and advances only on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis; and (2) you or Block may seek equitable relief in court for infringement or other misuse of intellectual property rights (such as trademarks, trade dress, domain names, trade secrets, copyrights, and patents).

IF YOU AGREE TO ARBITRATION WITH BLOCK, YOU ARE AGREEING IN ADVANCE THAT YOU WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN OR SEEK TO RECOVER MONETARY OR OTHER RELIEF IN ANY LAWSUIT FILED AGAINST BLOCK ALLEGING CLASS, COLLECTIVE, AND/OR REPRESENTATIVE CLAIMS ON YOUR BEHALF. INSTEAD, BY AGREEING TO ARBITRATION, YOU MAY BRING YOUR CLAIMS AGAINST BLOCK IN AN INDIVIDUAL ARBITRATION PROCEEDING. IF SUCCESSFUL ON SUCH CLAIMS, YOU COULD BE AWARDED MONEY OR OTHER RELIEF BY AN ARBITRATOR. YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE BEEN ADVISED THAT YOU MAY CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY IN DECIDING WHETHER TO ACCEPT THE TERMS, INCLUDING THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT.

Arbitration Rules and Forum. The Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this Arbitration Agreement. To begin an arbitration proceeding, you must send a letter requesting arbitration and describing your claim to hello@blockrenovation.com or 45 Main St. Suite 202, Brooklyn, NY. The arbitration will be conducted by JAMS, an established alternative dispute resolution provider. Disputes involving claims and counterclaims under $250,000, not inclusive of attorneys' fees and interest, are subject to JAMS's most current version of the Streamlined Arbitration Rules and procedures available at <http://www.jamsadr.com/rules-streamlined-arbitration/>; all other claims are subject to JAMS's most current version of the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures, available at <http://www.jamsadr.com/rules-comprehensive-arbitration/>. JAMS's rules are also available at www.jamsadr.com or by calling JAMS at 800-352-5267. If JAMS is not available to arbitrate, the parties will select an alternative arbitral forum. If the arbitrator finds that you cannot afford to pay JAMS's filing, administrative, hearing and/or other fees and cannot obtain a waiver from JAMS, Block will pay them for you. In addition, Block will reimburse all such JAMS's filing, administrative, hearing and/or other fees for claims totaling less than $10,000 unless the arbitrator determines the claims are frivolous. Likewise, Block will not seek attorneys' fees and costs in arbitration unless the arbitrator determines the claims are frivolous.

You may choose to have the arbitration conducted by telephone, based on written submissions, or in person in the country where you live or at another mutually agreed location. Any judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Authority of Arbitrator. The arbitrator, and not any federal, state or local court or agency has exclusive authority to (a) determine the scope and enforceability of this Arbitration Agreement and (b) resolve any dispute related to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability or formation of this Arbitration Agreement including, but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this Arbitration Agreement is void or voidable. The arbitration will decide the rights and liabilities, if any, of you and Block. The arbitration proceeding will not be consolidated with any other matters or joined with any other cases or parties. The arbitrator has the authority to grant motions dispositive of all or part of any claim. The arbitrator will have the authority to award monetary damages and to grant any non-monetary remedy or relief available to an individual under applicable law, the arbitral forum's rules, and the Terms (including the Arbitration Agreement). The arbitrator will issue a written award and statement of decision describing the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based, including the calculation of any damages awarded. The arbitrator has the same authority to award relief on an individual basis that a judge in a court of law would have. The award of the arbitrator is final and binding upon you and us.

Waiver of Jury Trial. YOU AND BLOCK HEREBY WAIVE ANY CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY RIGHTS TO SUE IN COURT AND HAVE A TRIAL IN FRONT OF A JUDGE OR A JURY. You and Block are instead electing that all claims and disputes will be resolved by arbitration under this Arbitration Agreement, except as specified in this Section above. An arbitrator can award on an individual basis the same damages and relief as a court and must follow this Agreement as a court would. However, there is no judge or jury in arbitration, and court review of an arbitration award is subject to very limited review.

Waiver of Class or Consolidated Actions. ALL CLAIMS AND DISPUTES WITHIN THE SCOPE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT MUST BE ARBITRATED ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND NOT ON A CLASS BASIS, ONLY INDIVIDUAL RELIEF IS AVAILABLE, AND CLAIMS OF MORE THAN ONE CUSTOMER OR USER CANNOT BE ARBITRATED OR CONSOLIDATED WITH THOSE OF ANY OTHER CUSTOMER OR USER. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (a) representative action for public injunctive relief may be arbitrated on a class basis and (b) in the event that the foregoing sentence is deemed invalid or unenforceable with respect to a particular class or dispute for recovery of damages, neither you nor we are entitled to arbitration and instead claims and disputes will be resolved in a court in New York, New York.

30-Day Right to Opt Out. You have the right to opt out of the provisions of this Arbitration Agreement by sending written notice of your decision to opt out to the following address: 55 Washington St. Suite 703, Brooklyn, NY 11201, or emailing us at: hello@blockrenovation.com within 30 days after first becoming subject to this Arbitration Agreement. Your notice must include your name and address and an unequivocal statement that you want to opt out of this Arbitration Agreement. If you opt out of this Arbitration Agreement, all other parts of this Agreement will continue to apply to you. Opting out of this Arbitration Agreement has no effect on any other arbitration agreements that you may currently have, or may enter in the future, with us.

Severability. If any part or parts of this Arbitration Agreement are found under the law to be invalid or unenforceable, then such specific part or parts will be of no force and effect and will be severed and the remainder of the Arbitration Agreement will continue in full force and effect.

Survival of Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement will survive the termination of your relationship with Block.

Modification. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, we agree that if Block makes any future material change to this Arbitration Agreement, it will not apply to any individual claim(s) that you had already provided notice to Block.

Privacy

Please see our Privacy Policy for information regarding the collection and use of personal information from the Website.

Despite any representations concerning privacy, Block reserves the right to disclose without notice to you any information in its possession if required to do so by law or upon a good-faith belief that such action is necessary to comply with the law, to protect or defend our rights or property, or to respond to an emergency situation. Specific areas or pages on the Website may include additional or different terms relating to the use of personal information collected from such areas or pages.

Miscellaneous

You agree that no joint venture, partnership, employment, or agency relationship exists between you and Block as a result of these Terms or use of the Service. If any part of these Terms is determined to be invalid or unenforceable pursuant to applicable law including, but not limited to, the warranty disclaimers and liability limitations set forth above, then the invalid or unenforceable provision will be deemed superseded by a valid, enforceable provision that most closely matches the intent of the original provision, and the remainder of these Terms shall continue in effect.

A party's failure to enforce any part of these Terms will not be considered a waiver. You will not transfer any of your rights or obligations under these Terms to anyone else without Block's consent.

Unless otherwise specified herein, these Terms, together with the Project Order, constitutes the entire agreement between you and Block with respect to the Website and Service and it supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals, whether electronic, oral or written, between you and Block with respect thereto. A printed version of these Terms and of any notice given in electronic form shall be admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings based upon or relating to these Terms to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as other business documents and records originally generated and maintained in printed form. It is the express wish to the parties that these Terms and all related documents be written in English.
